Newfoundland and Labrador Sean Cadigan, 2017-06-22 Published to coincide with the sixtieth anniversary of Newfoundland and Labrador joining Canada Sean T Cadigan has written the book that will surely become the definitive history of one of North America's most distinct and beautiful regions The site of the first European settlement by Vikings one thousand years ago a former colony of England and known at various times as Terra Nova and Newfoundland until its official name change to Newfoundland and Labrador in 2001 this easternmost point of the continent has had a fascinating history in part because of its long held position as the gateway between North America and Europe Examining the region from prehistoric times to the present Newfoundland and Labrador is not only a comprehensive history of the province but an illuminating portrait of the Atlantic world and European colonisation of the Americas Cadigan comprehensively details everything from the first European settlements the displacement and extinction of the indigenous Beothuk by European settlers the conflicts between settlers and imperial governance to the Royal Newfoundland Regiment's near annihilation at the Battle of the Somme the rise of Newfoundland nationalism Joey Smallwood's case for confederation and the modernization and economic disappointments instigated by joining Canada Paying particular attention to the ways in which Newfoundland and Labrador's history has been shaped by its environment this study considers how natural resources such as the Grand Banks the disappearance of cod and off shore oil have affected the region and its inhabitants Richly detailed compelling and written in an engaging and accessible style Newfoundland and Labrador brings the rich and vibrant history of this remarkably interesting region to life Twentieth-century Newfoundland James Hiller, Peter Neary, 1994

Twentieth Century Newfoundland Explorations brings together ten papers by eight well known historians of Newfoundland and Labrador The papers address a wide variety of subject matter and open many avenues for further research The book concludes with an extensive bibliography on the Newfoundland and Labrador in the Twentieth century This bibliography is organized by topic and will serve the needs of the general reader and specialists alike Twentieth Century Newfoundland Explorations highlight the scope and complexity of present day writing about the history of Newfoundland and Labrador James Hiller Professor of History at Memorial University and author of a number of articles on Newfoundland in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Peter Neary Professor of History at the University of Western Ontario and the author of Newfoundland in the North Atlantic World 1929 1949 1998 The Atlantic Provinces in Confederation Ernest R.

Forbes, Delphin A. Muise, 1993-12-15 Canada's four easternmost provinces while richly diverse in character and history share many elements of their political and economic experience within Confederation In this volume thirteen leading historians explore the shifting tides of Atlantic Canada's history beginning with the union of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick with Ontario and Quebec to form the Dominion in 1867 Continuing on through Prince Edward Island's entry into Confederation six years later and Newfoundland's in 1949 they take the story of Atlantic Canada up to the 1980s Collectively their work sheds light on the complex political dynamic between the region and Ottawa and reveals the roots of current social and economic realities Fragmentation versus integration plenty versus scarcity centre versus periphery and other models inform their analysis The development of regional disparity and responses to it form a major theme The tradition of regional protest by Maritimers and later Atlantic Canadians runs deep so does their commitment to the idea of an integrated Canadian nation Protests over the decades have primarily been expressions of frustration at perceived exclusion from the full benefits of national union The creation of national markets for labour capital and goods often operated to their detriment and political decisions at the national level frequently reinforced rather than alleviated the regional predicament More than an account of the wealthy and powerful this book often places ordinary men and women at the centre of the story Above all it reveals the resilience of Atlantic Canadians as they have struggled to overcome their problems and to share in the benefits of life in the Canadian community The Cause of Art Jeff Webb, 2024-05-01 In 1949 Newfoundland and Labrador had a widely celebrated oral culture but little visual art After entering the Canadian federation recreational painters worked to create a venue for the display of art The Cause of Art tells the story of the advocates curators and professional artists who laid the foundation for an artistic community in the province The Memorial University Art Gallery was the site of a struggle between recreational painters who aspired to express their creative impulse and develop a Newfoundland art and curators who wanted artists to participate in the Canadian art market and international artistic movements The book recounts the history of passionate and strong willed curators and cultural administrators who fought for control of the gallery It reveals how they appealed to competing conceptions of professionalization as well as diverse political and aesthetic preferences Based on extensive archival research in previously unexamined collections and oral interviews with key informants this book examines a cultural institution that is widely remembered as the centre of the cultural renaissance in late twentieth century Newfoundland and Labrador As a result The Cause of Art illuminates the relationship between the state and the university during a key period in the modernization of the province Shooting from the East Darrell Varga, 2015-11-01 Atlantic Canada has a rich tradition of storytelling and creativity that has extended to critical and audience praise for films from the region's four provinces Until now there has been no comprehensive history of this diverse body of work In Shooting from the East Darrell Varga traces the emergence of art cinema in the 1970s and 80s and subsequent rise of a contemporary commercial feature film and television industry by way of representative examples of a great range of titles including The Adventure of Faustus Bidgood Life Classes The Disappeared and Trailer Park Boys He provides analysis of documentary filmmaking to emphasize concerns such as the establishment of the regional National Film Board studio and the influence of broadcast policy but also considers significant recurring themes including the environment the body race and First Nations and the North Through critical analyses of key films and interviews conducted with filmmakers from all corners of the region Varga uncovers patterns of meaning across diverse productions and interrogates the concept of region in relation to prevailing notions of national cinema and transnational media culture With a focus on short films and an extensive history and analysis of the filmmaking production co-operatives located in each province Shooting from the East sheds light on the creative processes and local economic and cultural conditions for making images on the edge of the Atlantic

Newfoundland Rhapsody Glenn David Colton, 2014-03-01 Frederick Rennie Emerson 1895-1972 was a dynamic presence in the cultural and intellectual life of Newfoundland and Labrador for much of the twentieth century A musician lawyer educator and folklore enthusiast Emerson was a central figure in the preservation and mediation of Newfoundland culture in the tumultuous decades prior to and following Confederation with Canada in 1949 Glenn Colton shows how Emerson fostered greater awareness and understanding of Newfoundland's cultural heritage in local national and international contexts His collaboration with song collector Maud Karpeles in the late 1920s preserved some of the most cherished folk songs in the English language and a decade later his lectures at Memorial University College emphasized folk traditions and classical repertoire to inspire cultural discovery for an entire generation As Newfoundland's representative on the first Canada Council and vice president of the Canadian Folk Music Society he played a crucial role in shaping Canadian cultural policy during the transformative years of the mid twentieth century Colton also reveals the meaningful creative works Emerson composed in response to the same cultural heritage he documented and preserved his one act drama Proud Kate Sullivan 1940 is a pioneering depiction of Newfoundland life and the folk inspired Newfoundland Rhapsody 1964 is one of few examples of symphonic music composed by a Newfoundlander of his generation Newfoundland Rhapsody explores Newfoundland society Canada's emerging arts scene and the international folk music community to offer a new lens through which to view the cultural history of twentieth century Newfoundland and Canada
