

Pupil Parliament

To be a good member of our Pupil Parliament you must be a good listener, be fair and approachable.

Our Pupil Parliament is made up of children from Year 2 – Year 6

Pupil Parliament elections are held leading up to Parliament Week

Campaigns are held leading up to elections and everyone has the right to vote for their choice of Parliament members.

Once elected, committees are formed and meet regularly to discuss school priorities and share information.

During these sessions, decisions are made about projects and Parliament members feedback to classes.

Parliament members try to help our community and discuss ideas to make our school the best place it can be.

Our past achievements include raising money for charities and to buy a playground equipment, supporting food banks, period poverty etc .

We volunteer to do litter picks around our village and have met with the Parish Council to discuss how we can be part of the wider community.

Time for learning in your school to face the future John West

Burnham, Malcolm Groves, 2022-07-19 It is not the role of schools to solve the climate crisis or any of the other multiple crises now facing humankind But it is powerfully their role if they so choose to equip young people as well as possible to deal with the consequences of the serious problems they will be inheriting from their elders not betters Could it be our collective failure to respond effectively to the threat of the climate emergency or the challenges of the pandemic has been shaped to a small but significant degree by the nature of the learning that happens in our schools and a failure to enable young people to learn appropriately there That question lies at the heart of this thought provoking new book as it unpicks the concept of deep learning for future sustainability This combines deep understanding with action and links both to moral purpose It is not enough just to be concerned about climate change awareness must lead to action The book draws on an eclectic range of sources case studies of actual practice critical perspectives and opportunities for reflection The authors argue that first and foremost it is for educators and leaders to get on as best they can in their own school context to do what is both necessary and right to secure learning fit for a just and sustainable future irrespective of governmental lead in these matters In doing so the authors set out some clear evidence informed principles for school development and leadership that are central to the success of that mission

Active Citizenship Education for a Better Tomorrow Oliver Holz,Katrijn D?Herdt,Dorien Sampermans,2025 This publication offers a reflection on citizenship education in Europe By bringing together experts from various countries it illustrates how historical events national contexts and European policies shape the way citizenship is taught in schools Global events such as the migration crisis and the increasing ongoing environmental issues have demanded and continue to demand international responses These changes and crises influence identities provoke us to ask what citizenship means in our societies and lead us to question how citizenship education is perceived today Countries can no longer solely focus on national values rather they now emphasize international democratic values and encourage citizens to develop the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to become active and critical members of society Bringing together an overview of citizenship education opportunities and challenges this book provides substantial food for thought and helps us to better understand the international perspective on citizenship education Each chapter of the book provides a synthesis of how citizenship education is organized within specific national contexts Furthermore the results of a comparative study on citizenship in Flanders Belgium Czech Republic Greece The Netherlands Spain and Turkey is illustrated in this publication

Civic Learning, Democratic Citizenship and the Public Sphere Gert Biesta,Maria De Bie,Danny Wildemeersch,2013-10-07 This books explores the relationships between learning democratic citizenship and the public sphere from thee interconnected angles theory methodology and research The main message of the book is that civic learning necessarily has a public character as it is learning that emerges from engagement in democratic processes and practices that occur both at the centre and the margins of society Through a combination of theoretical development methodological reflection and empirical case study the chapters in the book provide new insights in the complexities of learning in the context of the ongoing struggle for democracy
