Pure Lust Byers, Catherine, Daly, Mary, 1986      Pure Lust Mary Daly, 1984 This title aims to offer a journey into the interior of language The author reveals the patriarchal construction of language and religious imagery offering alternatives

Pure Lust Mary Daly, 1984      Feminist Interpretations of Mary Daly Sarah Lucia Hoagland, Marilyn Frye, 2010-11 This open ended anthology is a journey into the very canon that Mary Daly has argued to be patriarchal and demeaning to women This volume deauthorizes the official canon of Western philosophy and disrupts a related story told by some feminists who claim that Daly's work is unworthy of re-reading because it contains fatal errors The editors and contributors attempt to prove that Mary Daly is located in the Western intellectual tradition Daly may be highly critical of conventional Western epistemological and theological traditions but she nevertheless appropriates themes out of context for the building of her own systematic philosophy The following are just a few of the many themes explored in this volume the question of subjectivity understood as an ongoing process of becoming the ambiguity of the need for feminists of colonial nations to speak out about violence against women in other parts of the world while that speaking carries with it the stamp of a colonial location the territoriality of lesbian and women's space the theological dimensions of twentieth century Western philosophy Contributors are Wanda Warren Berry Purushottama Bilimoria Debra Campbell Molly Dragiewicz Frances Gray Amber L Katherine AnaLouise Keating Anne Marie Korte Mar a Lugones Geraldine Moane Sheilagh A Mogford Laurel C Schneider Renuka Sharma and Marja Suhonen      God Or Goddess? Manfred Hauke, 1995 Hauke provides a tour de force study of the history and basic characteristics of modern feminism Hauke presents an objective detailed study of the facts of feminist theology around the world using their own words and writings He looks at the distinctiveness of feminist theology what its image of man is as a fundamental point of departure its basis from the experience of women as formal principle its views of the image of God Christ Mary the Church liturgy ecology and eschatology After carefully describing what the feminist position is Hauke gives a critique from the point of view of the Catholic tradition The purpose of the present work is to provide not a kind of encyclopedia on feminist theology but an introduction and representative survey of central themes that will enable one to form a personal opinion Addressed here are not just specialists in theology but all women and men who desire to inform themselves further about the powerful historical current that is feminist theology Manfred Hauke

Transfigurations C.W. Maggie Kim, Susan M. St. Ville, Susan M. Simonaitis, 2002-04-15 This volume explores the impact and import of the provocative and challenging work in this generation's most notable French feminists Despite the growing influence of the French feminists in the humanities especially in literary criticism poststructuralism and psychoanalysis American religionists have only recently begun to utilize their approaches and theories The volume introduces the characteristic concerns and themes of the leading French feminists particularly Helene Cixous Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva assesses their work against the very different orientations and impulses of North American feminism and gauges the potential of their ideas for both hermeneutical explorations and for feminist theologies In the process contributors shed important light on such issues as the normativity of women s experience the character of subjectivity and structural dimensions of oppression For those who would join this critical conversation Transfigurations will be the indispensable entree Contributors include Ellen T Armour Rebecca S Chopp Elizabeth Grosz Amy Hollywood Serene Jones Cleo McNelly Kearns Francoise Meltzer Sharon D Welch Haus des Theologischen Gewissens | 1 Circe Eureka,2025 Theology and Embodiment Melissa Raphael,1996-03-01 Theology and Embodiment both analyses and contributes to spiritual feminism s postmodern construction of the female body as a metaphor and medium of divine generativity Addressing religious studies and women s studies students and all those interested in contemporary spirituality Raphael counters reformist feminism s recurrent criticism of goddess feminism as naively essentialist and sub political She presents spiritual feminism as a set of religio political manoeuvres that powerfully resist such patriarchal degradations of female natural generativity as environmental destruction weight reducing diets and menstrual taboos Reconstructing Christian Theology Rebecca S. Chopp,Mark Lewis Taylor, Christian theology needs to be reconstructed in light of recent and momentous intellectual changes social revolutions and steep pedagogical challenges That is the conviction of many of North America s leading theologians whose close collaboration over several years bring us this exciting volume Reconstructing Christian Theology introduces theology in such a way that readers can discern the relevance of historical materials pose theological questions and begin to think theologically for themselves Further like other projects of the Workgroup on Constructive Theology this volume stems from a deep desire to model a credible creative and engaged contemporary theology So each chapter tackles major Christian teaching juxtaposes it with a significant social or cultural challenge and then reconstructs each in light of the other The result is an innovative and compelling way to learn how theology can contribute to rethinking the most pressing issues of our day Spiritual Transformation and Healing Philip Hefner,Joan D. Mansueto, 2010-04-07 No discipline has been more uniformly derided for a longer period than metaphysics Of the ancient and medieval sciences now in disrepute even astrology and alchemy get better press The most devastating and currently the most influential attack on metaphysics has come from a broad spectrum of thinkers including Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger Arendt Levinas Derrida and Milbank who have argued that metaphysics is the root of modern nihilism and totalitarianism Anthony Mansueto puts this claim to the test developing a historical sociology of metaphysics that analyzes the social basis and political valence of metaphysical systems Mansueto does this globally and cross culturally engaging not only the Hellenic tradition and its extension into medieval Christendom and Dar al Islam but also the Indian and Chinese traditions Specifically Mansueto argues that far from representing the roots of nihilism or modern state terror metaphysics emerges and continues to be necessary as a way to ground meaning and value in societies especially in market societies in which these have become problematic Metaphysics tends to restrain exploitation and to encourage the redirection of surplus toward activities that promote development of human capacities Knowing God The Journey of the Dialectic concludes with an outline of a new dialectical metaphysics that reconciles a Buddhist metaphysics of interdependence in the Hua yen tradition with a historicized metaphysics of Esse yielding results that look startlingly like the dao xue or neo Confucianism of Song China Mansueto shows how such a metaphysics can ground meaning and value while answering postmodern concerns to safeguard difference      Victorian Literary Cultures Kenneth Womack, James M. Decker, 2016-11-01 Victorian Literary Cultures Studies in Textual Subversion provides readers with close textual analyses regarding the role of subversive acts or tendencies in Victorian literature By drawing clear cultural contexts for the works under review including such canonical texts as Dracula Jane Eyre Middlemarch and stories featuring Sherlock Holmes the critics in this anthology offer groundbreaking studies of subversion as a literary motif For some late nineteenth century British novelists subversion was a central aspect of their writerly existence Although or perhaps because most Victorian authors composed their works for a general and mixed audience many writers employed strategies designed to subvert genteel expectations In addition to using coded and oblique subject matter such figures also hid their transgressive material in plain sight While some writers sought to critique and even destabilize their society others juxtaposed subversive themes and aesthetics negatively with communal norms in hopes of quashing progressive agendas
