Radical Desire:

Amorous Acts Frances L. Restuccia, 2006 Amorous Acts uses psychoanalytic concepts to show how queer theory is operating to put in place a non heterosexist social order      Bad Education Lee Edelman, 2022-12-05 Long awaited after No Future and making queer theory controversial again Lee Edelman's Bad Education proposes a queerness without positive identity a queerness understood as a figural name for the void itself unnamable around which the social order takes shape Like Blackness woman incest and sex queerness as Edelman explains it designates the antagonism the structuring negativity preventing that order from achieving coherence But when certain types of persons get read as literalizing queerness the negation of their negativity can seem to resolve the social antagonism and totalize community By translating the nothing of queerness into the something of the queer the order of meaning defends against the senselessness that undoes it thus mirroring Edelman argues education's response to queerness its sublimation of irony into the meaningfulness of a world Putting queerness in relation to Lacan's ab sens and in dialogue with feminist and Afropessimist thought Edelman reads works by Shakespeare Jacobs Almod var Lemmons and Haneke among others to show why queer theory's engagement with queerness necessarily results in a bad education that is destined to teach us nothing      Radical Desire Housk

Randall, Mark Ramsden, 2000 This highly illustrated work looks at all the radical extremes of sexual practice including tantric sex sex magick occult practice bondage erotic piercing fetishism erotic performance rubber sado masochism and bisexuality

The Black Register Tendayi Sithole, 2020-04-09 How can thinkers grapple with the question of the human when they have been dehumanized How can black thinkers confront and make sense of a world structured by antiblackness a world that militates against the very existence of blacks These are the questions that guide Tendayi Sithole's brilliant analyses of the work of Sylvia Wynter Aim C saire Steve Biko Assata Shakur George Jackson Mabogo P More and a critique of Giorgio Agamben Through his careful interrogation of their writings Sithole shows how the black register represents a uniquely critical perspective from which to confront worlds that are systematically structured to dehumanize The black register is the ways of thinking knowing and doing that emerge from existential struggles against antiblackness and that dwell in the lived experience of being black in an antiblack world The black register is the force of critique that comes from thinkers who are dehumanized and who in turn question define and analyze the reality that they are in in order to reframe it and unmask the forces that inform subjection This book redefines the arc of critical black thought over the last seventy five years and it will be an indispensable text for anyone concerned with the deep and enduring ways in which race structures our world and our thought      Lacanian Left Yannis Stavrakakis, 2007-07-12 In recent years psychoanalysis especially Lacanian theory has been gradually acknowledged as a vital resource in the ongoing re orientation of contemporary political theory and analysis Of particular note is that the work of Jacques Lacan is increasingly being used by major political philosophers associated with the Left This indicates the dynamic emergence of a new theoretico political horizon that of the Lacanian Left However this has yet to be properly conceived and structured as a field The Lacanian Left is the first book to bring it into academic consciousness and to draw its implications for concrete political analysis in a systematic way It offers An accessible mapping of its main contours A detailed examination of the points of convergence and divergence between the major figures active or at the periphery of this terrain including Slavoj Žižek the central Lacanian notion of enjoyment The Lacanian Left puts forward innovative analyses of political power and authority nationalism European identity consumerism and advertising culture de democratisation and post democracy It will be of value to everyone interested in exploring the potential of psychoanalysis to reinvigorate political theory critical political analysis and democratic politics

The Queerness of Psychoanalysis

Vanessa Sinclair, Elisabeth Punzi, Myriam Sauer, 2024-11-29 The Queerness of Psychoanalysis From Freud and Lacan to Laplanche and Beyond is an exploration of psychoanalysis often complicated and fraught history with thinking about queerness as well as its multifaceted heritage Throughout the chapters the contributors write about psychoanalysis relationship with queerness the ways in which queerness is represented in the psychoanalytic archive and how that archive endures in the present and creates various disruptive effects both within and beyond the clinic Each chapter from the global cohort of contributors approaches queerness from a different angle they consider the literary aspects of queerness presence in the analytic world the clinical complexities of working with queer and trans people metapsychological inclusion and exclusion of queerness and many other subjects Taken together these contributions constitute a decisive intervention into the psychoanalytic canon They are an unabashed demand for accepting and furthering the representation and inclusion of queer and in particular trans people within psychoanalysis It is a call for action to utilize and deepen psychoanalysis enormous explicatory powers and bring together voices that have so far been denied a unity of expression while critically reevaluating psychoanalysis historical relationship to queerness Each chapter proposes different ways of thinking and writing psychoanalytically with many of the papers queering the format and forms of expression commonly found in academic writing through their use of dialogues conversations or other experimental forms of writing Written almost exclusively by analysts scholars and activists who identify as trans and or queer this important volume puts theory into practice by centering queer and trans voices

Stages of Desire Michael Kidd, 1999-07-01 Within the rich tradition of Spanish theater lies an unexplored dimension reflecting themes from classical mythology Through close readings of selected plays from early modern and twentieth century Spanish literature with plots or characters derived from the Greco Roman tradition Michael Kidd shows that the concept of desire plays a pivotal role in adapting myth to the stage in each of several historical periods In Stages of Desire Kidd offers a new way of looking at the theater in Spain Reviewing the work of playwrights from Juan del Encina to Luis Riaza he suggests that desire constitutes a central element in a large number of Greco Roman myths and shows how dramatists have exploited this to resituate ancient narratives within their own artistic and ideological horizons Among the works he analyzes are Timoneda's Tragicomedia llamada Filomena Castro's Dido y Eneas and Unamuno's Fedra

Kidd explores how seventeenth century playwrights were constrained by the conventions of the newly formed national theater and how in the twentieth century mythological desire was exploited by playwrights engaged in upsetting the melodramatic conventions of the entrenched bourgeois theater He also examines the role of desire both in the demythification of prominent classical heroes during the Franco regime and in the cultural critique of institutionalized discrimination in the current democratic period Stages of Desire is an original and broad ranging study that highlights both change and continuity in Spanish theater By elegantly combining theory literary history and close textual analysis Kidd demonstrates both the resilience of Greco Roman myths and the continuing vitality of the Spanish stage

The Desiring Self Walter E. Conn, 1998 This volume explores the two movements in the journey to transcendence The first is the drive to be an integrated and powerful self The second is to leave that behind and move beyond the self into relationship The two movements are inextricably joined separation and attachment autonomy and relationship Humans are pulled simultaneously by the urge to be and to be for The Desiring Self is an explanation and a practical guide to the process of self transcendence Using case studies as well as insights from psychology and theology it takes readers through the steps of understanding themselves as incarnate integrated and yet transcendent beings bent on discovering their true selves as known by God It is a book to be read and relished by pastoral counselors spiritual directors readers exploring the confluence of psychology and religion and all persons on the journey of self transcendence

Chung, 2017-08-22 This book presents a heuristic and critical study of comparative theology in engagement with phenomenological methodology and sociological inquiry It elucidates a postcolonial study of religion in the context of multiple modernities

Studying Lacan's Seminar VII Carol Owens, 2023-11-24 Studying Lacan's Seminar VII offers a contemporary critically informed set of analyses of Lacan's ethics seminar and astute reflections about what Lacan's ethics offer to the field of psychoanalytic thought today The volume interrogates the seminar with fresh voices and situated curiosities and perspectives making for a compellingly exciting range of explorations of the crucial matters related to an ethics of psychoanalysis The chapters question and tease out the paradoxes Lacan draws attention to in his seminar of 1959 1960 and in addition they offer radical engagements with the seminar in light of theories of racism inequality capitalism education and subjectivity The key elements in Lacan's seminar are explained debated and reconsidered with Antigone as

Ding and the inevitable ne c der pas sur son d sir duly unpacked examined and ruminated upon Studying Lacan s Seminar VII will be of interest to psychoanalytic scholars and students of Lacanian psychoanalysis as well as psychoanalytic therapists and analysts It will also be of interest to scholars and students of politics philosophy and studies at the intersections of racism film feminism sociology gender and queer theory

Nigerian Pentecostalism Nimi Wariboko,2014 Part 1 Origins and spirituality of Nigerian Pentecostalism Sources of Nigerian pentecostalism The spell of the invisible Excremental visions in postcolonial Pentecostalism Desire and disgust ways of being for God The Pentecostal self from body to body politic Part 2 Ethical vision of Nigerian Pentecostal spirituality Politics between ontology and spiritual warfare Miracles sovereignty and community Altersovereignty and virtue of Pentecostal friendship Spirituality and the weight of blackness This neighbor cannot be loved invisibility and nudity of the Pentecostal other Pentecostalism and Nigerian society

Traversing the Fantasy Jason Glynos,2017-11-30 Slavoj Zizek is one of the most provocative and important thinkers writing in contemporary philosophy This book is an engaged debate with Zizek It contains a series of specially commissioned critical essays from an impressive collection of contributors covering the full extent of his oeuvre Essays examine Zizek on cultural theory film studies ethics political theory social theory Kant and Lacanian psychoanalysis In the spirit of Zizek s own interventions these essays critically interrogate his ideas challenging him to respond directly which he does in an extended polemical reply that concludes the collection This volume represents an exciting and important contribution to contemporary theoretical debate and adds significantly to the growing literature on Zizek

Evolving Grace Jean-Pierre Fortin,2024-12-15 Evolving Grace The Spiritual History of a Christian Doctrine seeks to bring out the personal living significance and transformative power of the Christian faith throughout the ages This book spans from Patristic foundations through the elaborated systematic constructions of the Middle Ages to the profound transformation induced by the Protestant Reformation and Roman Catholic responses to it to twentieth century de and reconstructions This theological history grounded in and reflective of the spiritual experience and development of real Christians in and from the past contributes to the production and nurturing of a living theology in and for the present

A New Awareness Dominic Arcamone,2024-02-29 A New Awareness is an endeavor of affection and generosity toward Sebastian Moore The book examines his key theological insights and themes over seventy years and proposes that they are still relevant today for the Christian Community He was a theologian and poet He wrote about many theological topics the significance of Jesus the experiences of the disciples and their meaning for us redemption the Trinity sexuality and ecclesiology and original sin But he is mainly known for being the theologian of desire self love to self gift desire is love trying to happen to be myself for another and the insight that there is no more wonderful reality than to be desired by the one you desire

The Queerness of Childhood Anna Fishzon,Emma Lieber,2022-07-21 This book represents a meeting of queer theorists and psychoanalysts around the figure of the child Its intention is not only to interrogate the discursive work performed on and by the child in these fields but also to provide a stage for examining how psychoanalysis and queer theory themselves interact with the understanding that the meeting of these discourses is most generative around the queer time and sexualities of childhood From the theoretical perspectives of queer theory psychoanalysis anthropology and gender studies the chapters explore cultural aesthetic and historical forms and phenomena that are aimed at or are about children and that give expression to and make room for the queerness of childhood

Communist Study Derek R. Ford, 2022-01-14 In the second edition of this groundbreaking work Derek R Ford contends that radical politics needs educational theory posing a series of educational questions pertinent to revolutionary movements How can pedagogy bridge the gap between what is and what can be while respecting the gap and its uncertainty and contingency How can pedagogy accommodate ambiguity while remaining faithful to the communist project In answering these questions Ford develops a dynamic pedagogical constellation that radically opens up what education is and what it can mean for revolutionary struggle In charting this constellation Ford takes the reader on a journey that traverses disciplinary boundaries innovatively reading theorists as diverse as Lenin Agamben Marx Lyotard Althusser and Butler Demonstrating how learning underpins capitalism and democracy Ford articulates a theory of communist study as an alternative and oppositional logic that perhaps paradoxically demands the revolutionary reclamation of testing Poetic performative and provocative Communist Study is oriented toward what Ford calls the sublime feeling of being in common which as he insists is always a commonness against

Woman in Lars von Trier's Cinema, 1996-2014 Ahmed Elbeshlawy, 2016-10-11 This book discusses the figure of Woman in Lars von Trier's distinctive cinematic productions from 1996 to 2014 It takes the notorious legacy of violence against women in von Trier's cinema beyond the perceived gender division elevating the director's image above being a mere provocateur By raising fundamental questions about woman sexuality and desire Elbeshlawy shows that Trier's cinematic Woman is an attempt at creating an image of a genderless subject that is not inhibited by the confines of ideology and culture But this attempt is perennially ill fated And it is this failure that not only fosters viewing enjoyment but also gives the films their political importance elevating them above both commendations and condemnations of feminist discourse

Lacan in Italy Luca Di Gregorio, 2025-06-25 This book provides the first analysis of the reception and development of Lacanian psychoanalysis in Italy offering a comprehensive account of the relevance and contributions of Italian Lacanians It examines Italian Lacanianism through its distinctive engagement with clinical practice sociopolitical analysis and aesthetics highlighting the work of influential figures such as Sergio Benvenuto and Massimo Recalcati Lacan in Italy proposes a nuanced understanding of how Italian Lacanians reinterpret Lacan's legacy advancing an affirmative approach to the notion of the real often conceptualised in negative terms as traumatic impossible unrepresentable and unsymbolisable by emphasising its generative life affirming potential The book also fosters dialogue with Lacanian receptions across different countries and languages

Ethics, Aesthetics, and the Beyond of Language Robert Hughes, 2010-08-02 This book explores the relationship between literature and ethics showing how literature and art work to open up a part of ethics that resists traditional philosophy Focusing on three American Romantic texts Wieland The Legend of Sleepy Hollow and The Marble Faun Robert Hughes demonstrates how each dramatizes the ethical psychological and existential imperative to put the experience of our own traumatic limits death mortality and being into poetic language To develop the theoretical stakes of these literary readings Hughes also draws on four twentieth century continental thinkers Jacques Lacan Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas and Alain Badiou each of whom in his own way proposed aesthetics or art as an approach to this dimension of ethics The book also points to an overlooked common lineage descending from German Romanticism between American Romanticism and contemporary post Romantic continental thought a shared supposition about the limits of reason as a mode of presenting the essence of art and ethics and a shared faith in the promise of literature to speak to or open up this subjective space of foundational ethics
