Ragga To Riches:

Ragga to Riches Random House,1999-06-01 Ragga to Riches Yinka Adebayo,1999 The fourth in this series of popular children s books finds the Drummond Hill Crew leaving the city to go on summer holiday They come across an old sea pirate s map but find themselves in the clutches of some mean looking villains when they start searching for treasure

, Sound Clash C. Cooper,2004-09-14 Megawattage sound systems have blasted the electronically enhanced riddims and tongue twisting lyrics of Jamaica s dancehall DJs across the globe This high energy raggamuffin music is often dismissed by old school roots reggae fans as a raucous degeneration of classic Jamaican popular music In this provocative study of dancehall culture Cooper offers a sympathetic account of the philosophy of a wide range of dancehall DJs Shabba Ranks Lady Saw Ninjaman Capleton Buju Banton Anthony B and Apache Indian Cooper also demonstrates the ways in which the language of dancehall culture often devalued as mere noise articulates a complex understanding of the border clashes which characterize Jamaican society and analyzes the sound clashes that erupt in the movement of Jamaican dancehall culture across national borders

A Companion to British and Irish Cinema John Hill,2019-07-18 A stimulating overview of the intellectual arguments and critical debates involved in the study of British and Irish cinemas British and Irish film studies have expanded in scope and depth in recent years prompting a growing number of critical debates on how these cinemas are analysed contextualized and understood A Companion to British and Irish Cinema addresses arguments surrounding film historiography methods of textual analysis critical judgments and the social and economic contexts that are central to the study of these cinemas Twenty nine essays from many of the most prominent writers in the field examine how British and Irish cinema have been discussed the concepts and methods used to interpret and understand British and Irish films and the defining issues and debates at the heart of British and Irish cinema studies Offering a broad scope of commentary the Companion explores historical cultural and aesthetic questions that encompass over a century of British and Irish film studies from the early years of the silent era to the present day Divided into five sections the Companion discusses the social and cultural forces shaping British and Irish cinema during different periods the contexts in which films are produced distributed and exhibited the genres and styles that have been adopted by British and Irish films issues of representation and identity and debates on concepts of national cinema at a time when ideas of what constitutes both British and Irish cinema are under question A Companion to British and Irish Cinema is a valuable and timely resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of film media and cultural studies and for those seeking contemporary commentary on the cinemas of Britain and Ireland

Theorizing World Cinema Lúcia Nagib,Chris Perriam,Rajinder Dudrah,2011-11-02 This innovative book is about the place of world cinema in the cultural imaginary It also repositions world cinema in a wider discursive space than is usually the case and treats it as an object of theoretical enquiry rather than as a commercial label The editors and distinguished group of contributors offer a range of approaches and case studies whose organizing principle is the developing idea of polycentrism as applied to cinema They refine and redefine key concepts in film studies including identification and identity narrative and realism allegory and the national project auteurism and the popular art and genre They re evaluate how cinema shapes and responds to the philosophical cultural and political effects of transnationalism and cosmopolitanism in the age of the moving image and explore the interconnectedness of films produced worldwide as well as the links between cinema and other visual cultural forms The contributors include John Caughie Felicia Chan Tiago de Luca Rajinder Dudrah Song Hwee Lim Laura Mulvey Lucia Nagib Geoffrey Nowell Smith Chris Perriam Ashish Rajadhyaksha Paul Julian Smith and Ismail Xavier

Un/settled Multiculturalisms Barnor Hesse, 2000-11 This anthology reconsiders the social political and intellectual meanings of multiculturalism in the West particularly Britain It introduces a conceptual language for thinking about multiculturalism and casts the surrounding debates in the contexts of globalization post colonialism and what Barnor Hesse calls multicultural transruptions The contributors consider a variety of diaspora formations ranging from the Muslim Umma and Black Britain to the Chinese foodscape and Transatlantic Black sporting performances They examine the transnational impact on how cultural differences are lived and pose questions for how we participate in and think about Western societies The material on cultural entanglements focuses on media constructions of the Asian Gang in Britain gender and sexuality in ragga music and the ambivalence of identities in post apartheid South Africa

Black British Culture and Society Kwesi Owusu, 2003-09-02 Black British Culture and Society brings together in one indispensable volume key writings on the Black community in Britain from the Windrush immigrations of the late 1940s and 1950s to contemporary multicultural Britain Combining classic writings on Black British life with new specially commissioned articles Black British Culture and Society records the history of the post war African and Caribbean diaspora tracing the transformations of Black culture in British society Black British Culture and Society explores key facets of the Black experience charting Black Britons struggles to carve out their own identity and place in an often hostile society The articles reflect the rich diversity of the Black British experience addressing economic and social issues such as health religion education feminism old age community and race relations as well as Black culture and the arts with discussions of performance carnival sport style literature theatre art and film making The contributors examine the often tense relationship between successful Black public figures and the media and address the role of the Black intellectual in public life Featuring interviews with noted Black artists and writers such as Aubrey Williams Mustapha Matura and Caryl Phillips and including articles from key contemporary thinkers such as Stuart Hall A Sivanandan Paul Gilroy and Henry Louis Gates Black British Culture and Society provides a rich resource of analysis critique and comment on the Black community's distinctive contribution to cultural life in Britain today
