Public Sentiments Glenn Hendler,2003-04-03 In this book Glenn Hendler explores what he calls the logic of sympathy in novels by Walt Whitman Louisa May Alcott T S Arthur Martin Delany Horatio Alger Fanny Fern Nathaniel Parker Willis Henry James Mark Twain and William Dean Howells For these nineteenth century writers he argues sympathetic identification was not strictly an individual feminizing and private feeling but the quintessentially public sentiment a transformative emotion with the power to shape social institutions and political movements Uniting current scholarship on gender in nineteenth century American culture with historical and theoretical debates on the definition of the public sphere in the period Hendler shows how novels taught diverse readers to feel right to experience their identities as male or female black or white middle or working class through a sentimental emotionally based structure of feeling He links novels with such wide ranging cultural and political discourses as the temperance movement feminism and black nationalism Public Sentiments demonstrates that whether published for commercial reasons or for higher moral and aesthetic purposes the nineteenth century American novel was conceived of as a public instrument designed to play in a sentimental key Frank in the Mountains Harry Castlemon,1896 Frank seeks adventure in the mountains of the American West Julius, Or, The Street Boy Out West Horatio Alger,1874 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
