Sir John Alexander Hammerton

Railway Of Hell A Japanese Pows Account Of War Capture And Forced Labour:

War and Militarism in Modern Japan Guy Podoler, 2009-08-01 A considerable amount of writing has been published on Japan at war in the Second World War and more recently scholars have been revisiting the Russo Japanese War of 1904-5 whereas this volume strives to examine Japan's twentieth century approach to war and militarism in a wider perspective bringing hitherto unexamined new themes and subject matter under scrutiny up to the present day Among the topics covered are the February 26 Incident in Theatre and Film Ethnicity and Gender in Wartime Japanese Revue Theatre Military Festivals and the Japanese Self Defence Forces Major Trends in Japanese Treatment of POWs in Modern Times and Japan's Tug of War after the Russian War Published to mark the distinguished academic career of Ben Ami Shillony who retired in 2006 this volume also offers valuable new insights into the theme of the Japanese and the Jews including the Story and Myth of Anne Frank and Sadako Sasaki the involvement of Jewish scientists in the making of the atomic bomb and Japan's Jewish Policy in the late 1930s

Disassociation Sophia Z. Kovachevich, 2025-07-07 The book looks at some of the problems in our world today It is based on extensive research It shows the problems that colonisation brought into the world and how that has permeated into the very fabric of society It shows the beginning of genocides and concentration camps and the present state of both in the 21st century world It also looks at where the greatest threats to the world peace are posed today which countries are still in the throes of genocide what is the connection between eugenics and killing Further it covers information pertinent to our world today but which very few lay people have any concept about We live in this world It is our world We should all make an attempt to care for our world to the best of our ability and avoid dissension and war whenever possible War brings nothing good to anyone but fosters a lot of negativity among nation countries cultures and religions in the world This book is about bringing awareness to the precarious position our world and environment is in If wars continue at this rate the soil air water will be so polluted and poisoned cancers and other unknown diseases rampant that future generations and all living creatures will be horribly affected as in the Mekong Delta with much less poison We must protect our descendants from such folly It is our duty

Fighting Monsters Richard Wallace Braithwaite, 2016 Only six escapees survived the Sandakan death marches of 1945 in North Borneo the worst atrocity ever inflicted on Australian soldiers 1787 Australian and 641 British POWs perished Previous descriptions of the numerous violent acts have yielded little understanding of a situation where the real struggle was to keep one's humanity when so many were losing theirs whether Allied POWs local residents of Borneo Javanese slave labourers or Japanese soldiers Understanding this extraordinary story is aided by reference to a wide range of sources in different countries and disciplines and by examining the perspectives of all players in this terrible game of survival An unusual and extreme POW story the Sandakan tragedy had four stages active resistance in 1942 3 stubborn endurance in 1943 4 the collapse of civilized existence in 1945 and finally the postwar decades of torment for the six damaged survivors the gradual assimilation of the story the healing of the damage and the commemoration of the tragedy by the families and communities involved Richard Wallace Braithwaite's father was one of the six survivors of the Sandakan death marches of 1945. He died in 1986 still wanting the story to be properly told. This led to a project that has lasted for much of the last forty years of the author's life, culminating in this book. With a scientific background, Richard worked for many years with CSIRO and universities in the biological and social sciences and in historical research. His extensive and diverse research history and lifelong personal immersion in the story has given him a unique perspective in exploring the complexities of the Sandakan tragedy.

Aussie Soldier Denny Neave, Craig Smith, 2009-03-01

The second book in the Aussie Soldier series, Aussie Soldier: Prisoners of War by Denny Neave and Craig Smith details the lives of the men and women who found themselves on the wrong side of the wire. This collection of heartfelt stories and anecdotes from Australian POWs will take you on their very personal journeys. Surviving as a prisoner of war required as much strength of character as any hard-fought battle. Some lived to tell their tales about extreme suffering, mateship and hardship, and many would carry with them forever the memories of those who died. Almost 35,000 Australian service personnel were taken prisoner during the Boer War, World War 1, World War 2 and the Korean War. As POWs are relatively few in number, their stories often take a back seat when it comes to tales about battles and conflict situations. Like most soldiers, former prisoners do not like reliving the horrors of war and their time in captivity. This is a collection of the stories of our Australian POWs. Interviews, questionnaires, written records, images and letters provide an insight into captivity and the joy and fears that came with their release. These vivid and compelling stories highlight the contradictions of war: the compassion and generosity on the one hand, and the cruelty, hate and indifference on the other.

Escape, Survive - or Die Bryn Evans, 2025-08-30

During the Second World War, countless millions of men and women, both in the armed forces and civilian life, found themselves in life-or-death situations with the odds stacked against them. Inevitably, in the vast majority of cases, their experiences and the outcomes will never come to light, but when they do, we can only feel inspired. In this thought-provoking book, the author has unearthed numerous diverse accounts which make fascinating reading. It covers individuals fighting in jungles, deserts, on and below the seas, in mountains, valleys and plains, prison camps, in battles in the sky or as fugitives hunted in enemy territory. In almost every corner of the world, in innumerable conditions of extreme adversity, our forbears confronted an unavoidable choice: escape, survive or die. This superb collection of stories shows us the resilience and stoicism that we need to face the ultimate challenge. The most powerful force of democratic countries is the determination and self-sacrifice of ordinary individuals to endure and fight for their families, their country and freedom. Survivors' personal accounts in Escape, Survive or Die have the power to inspire and sustain us in the never-ending struggle for liberty, just as the Ukrainians fighting the Russian invasion are doing so gallantly today.

Singapore Secret K. S. Drake, 2019-07-19

Singapore Secret is about sacrifice. My PhD work covering three generations of family history. I, as the author, look back to over seventy-five years at the impact of World War II on society and family life. This book also has a narrative by AK MacDougall and a pictorial history from 1941 to 1981. Enjoy.

this threepart nonfiction family saga of the Drake lineage Kerry Susan Drake opens up discussion in her attempt to look at family history and the impact of World War II on social history An award winning author of inspirational poetry 2010 2011 and winner 2012 USA BestBooks This book is a captivating read that involves a human story that will touch all Australians will remember their contribution and share in the great losses made in the World Wars Every Australian know their part in the Singapore Sacrifice Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Emperor's Irish Slaves Robert Widders,2011-11-30 Sister Mary Cooper died in a Japanese prison camp on June 26 1943 from the combined effects of starvation brutality and tropical diseases Timothy Kenneally and Patrick Fitzgerald tried to escape from a slave labor camp on the Burma Railway They were caught tortured crucified and then executed on March 27 1943 Patrick Carberry spent the summer of 1943 cremating the emaciated corpses of his comrades who had died from cholera These people had two things in common they were Irish citizens serving with the British armed forces and they were amongst more than 650 Irishmen and women who became prisoners of the Imperial Japanese Army in 1942 Nearly a quarter of them were murdered whilst in Japanese captivity this is their story Combining historical narrative with first hand accounts of the conditions in Japanese POW camps Robert Widders brings to light their suffering and the strength that saw them home again

Sparrow Grant McLachlan,2012-11-11 Sparrow is a seldom heard but uplifting story of the Sparrows the Battle of Britain gunners who defended Timor as part of Sparrow Force It is the story of Charlie McLachlan s war a triumph of stubborn Scottish defiance and laconic Aussie genius over the relentless violence of man and nature From the Rudolph Hess crash landing to the atom bomb from history s last bayonet charge to the war s greatest aerial bombardment Charlie McLachlan survives and bears witness to some of the landmark days of World War II At one time or other in his four year ordeal he is fired upon by the armies navies and or air forces of Germany Japan Australia the Netherlands Great Britain and the United States of America pretty much everyone but the Russians He defies or evades the ravages of tropical ulcers tropical heat alpine cold gangrene cholera malaria beriberi dysentery mosquitoes crocodiles snakes sharks scorpions sadistic Sikhs Japanese hellships falling coconuts flying shrapnel beatings beheadings bullets bombs bayonets torpedoes a crushed leg a fractured skull malnutrition and premature cremation He s presumed dead by the British Army left for dead by Japanese guards and declared dead by a Dutch Javanese doctor Yet through it all Charlie soldiers on Half a world away his wife Mary fashioned from the same mental granite stoically awaits his return Not even an official telegram confirming the near certainty of Charlie s death or later rumours of his torture can shake her iron faith Sparrow Force the force that defended Timor in 1942 was one of Australia s most successful military units At the lowest point in the Second World War these soldiers equipped with First World War weapons and cut off from Australia waged a commando campaign that held off Japan s most successful and elite special force Low in medicine and ammunition they built an improvised radio that regained contact with their homeland It was the first good news of the war for the Allies Sparrow Force was unique They were the first force to defeat Japan in battle and they were the last to be captured Those who escaped to pursue a guerrilla campaign spent more time in combat against the Japanese than any other Allied unit They were set up to fail instead they endured defied and succeeded Newsreels were made victories were recorded medals were awarded and Australia's morale was elevated As Winston Churchill famously said They alone did not surrender

Anzac and Empire

John Robertson,1990 Railway of Hell Reginald Burton,2002 A young captain in the Royal Norfolk Regiment Reggie Burton was wounded in the closing stages of the disastrous defense of Malaya and Singapore He vividly yet calmly and with great dignity describes the horror of captivity at the hands of the Japanese After initial confusion the true nature of their captors emerged as increasingly debilitated the POWs were forced into backbreaking work This was only a taste of what was to come Following a horrific journey in overcrowded cattle trucks Burton and his dwindling band of colleagues were put to work building the notorious Burma Railway Somehow he survived to tell this moving and shocking story

Narrating the Other Megumi Kato,2008 This is the first extensive study of Japan in Australian literary consciousness Narrating the other provides a broad chronological exploration of Australian writers representations of the Japanese from the late 19th century to the 21st century A comprehensive examination of available literature reveals the powerful and continuing influence of representations of Japan and the Japanese from the early 20th century up to the Pacific War Images of Madame Butterfly the stranger the enemy and later the ally or partner are shown to vary according to authors situations and even wider international relations It attempts to identify the patterns which Australian authors have used to portray and evaluate the Japanese the changing nature of these patterns their contextual relationship and their contribution to the formation of wider Australian views on Japan and the Japanese BOOK JACKET The War Illustrated Sir John Alexander Hammerton,1941

Keesing's Contemporary Archives ,1943 The Times Index ,1990 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Medical Officers on the Infamous Burma Railway ,2022-02-24 In 1944 a compilation of medical reports from the main prisoner of war work camps along the infamous Thailand Burma railway was submitted to General Arimura Tsunemichi commander of the Japanese Prisoner of War Administration The authors stated that the reports were neither complaints nor protests but merely statements of fact The prisoners received only one reply that all copies of the documents must be destroyed As one officer later recalled Of course this was not done and copies of these reports survived stored away in dusty files for future generations to learn the truth Work on the railway began in June 1942 the Japanese using mainly forced civilian labour as well as some 12 000 British and Commonwealth PoWs Such is well known So are the stories of ill treatment and brutality many of which have been published The vast majority of these accounts however were written after the war colored by the sufferings the men had endured The reports presented here are quite unique for they were written by the medical officers in the camps as the events they describe were unfolding before their eyes The health and well being of the PoWs was the medical officers primary concern and these reports enable us to learn exactly how the men were treated fed and cared for in unprecedented detail There are no exaggerated tales or false memories here merely facts shocking and disturbing though they may be We learn how the medical officers organised their hospitals and dealt with the terrible diseases beatings and malnutrition the men endured As the compilers of the reports state 45 per cent of the men under their care died in the course of just twelve months But equally we find that the prisoners did have a voice and had the facilities and the courage to write and submit such reports to the Japanese perhaps contradicting some of the long held beliefs about conditions in the camps Through the words of the Medical Officers themselves some of the detail of what really happened on the Death Railway for good or ill is revealed here Survival on the Death Railway and Nagasaki Jim Briginshaw,2018-06-30 This is a remarkable and unique story of Jim Briginshaw Having been captured by the Japanese after the fall of Singapore in 1942 Jim was first sent to work in Burma to build what has become known as the Death Railway Unlike many of his comrades Jim survived this ordeal only to be transferred to Nagasaki Japan where he was sent to work in the mines of Sendryu Jim describes how the conditions in the Hell pits of Sendryu were even worse than those experienced in Burma but were ultimately the reason why he survived the war On the 9th August 1945 the Americans dropped the second nuclear bomb on Nagasaki Jim was fortunately underground at the time but through this book re lives the harrowing aftermath of the attack when the ground shook violently
