Railways in Focus Ed Bartholomew, Michael Blakemore, 1998 Railway Photographic Advertising in Britain, 1900-1939 Alexander Medcalf, 2018-03-06 This book explores the phenomenal resources dedicated to understanding and encouraging passengers to consume travel from 1900 to 1939 analysing how place and travel were presented for sale Using the Great Western Railway as a chief case study as well as a range of its competitors both on and off the rails Alexander Medcalf unravels the complex and ever changing processes behind corporate sales communications This volume analyses exactly how the company pictured passengers in the countryside at the seaside in the urban landscape and in the company's vehicles This thematic approach brings transport and business history thoroughly in line with tourism and leisure history as well as studies in visual culture Trains, Culture, and Mobility Benjamin Fraser, Steven D. Spalding, 2012-01-01 Trains Culture and Mobility Riding the Rails goes beyond textual representations of rail travel to engage an impressive range of political sociological and urban theory Taken together these essays highlight the complexity of the modern experience of train mobility and its salient relation to a number of cultural discourses Incorporating traditionally marginal areas of cultural production such as graffiti museums architecture or even plunging into the social experience of travel inside the traincar itself each essay constitutes an attempt to work from the act of riding the train toward questions of much larger significance Crisscrossing cultures from the New World and Old from East and West these essays share a common preoccupation with the way in which trains and railway networks have mapped and re mapped the contours of both cities and states in the modern period Bringing together individual and large scale social practices this volume traces out the cultural implications of Riding the Rails Directory of Museums, Galleries and Buildings of Historic Interest in the United Kingdom, 2008 The Railroad Photography of Lucius Beebe and Charles Clegg Tony Reevy, 2019-02-01 Bon vivant railroad historian photographer pioneering food critic chronicler of New York's café society and noted newspaperman Lucius Beebe 1902 1966 was an American original In 1938 with the publication of High Iron A Book of Trains he transformed the world of railroad subject photography forever by inventing the railroad picture book genre In 1940 he met creative and life partner Charles Clegg 1916 1979 also a talented photographer Beebe and Clegg produced an outstanding and diverse portfolio of mid twentieth century railroad subject photographs Beebe sometimes with Clegg also authored about forty books including many focused on railroads and railroading The Railroad Photography of Lucius Beebe and Charles Clegg brings their incredible story and best photographic work together Providing an extensive biographic introduction to Beebe and Clegg author Tony Reevy presents a multi faceted view of the railroad industry that will appeal to rail enthusiasts as well as those interested in American food culture the history of New York City and LGBT studies The Railroad Photography of Lucius Beebe and Charles Clegg is an indispensable history to the work of two men who forever changed the way we see and experience American railroads The Railroad Photography of Phil Hastings Tony Reevy, 2023-05-30 The Railroad Photography of Phil Hastings the voices of women talking about their wartime railway experiences using interviews by the Friends of the National Railway Museum Many were working in men s jobs or working with men for the first time and these interviews offer tantalising glimpses of conditions sometimes under great danger What was it about railway work that attracted them It s fascinating to contrast their voices with the way they were portrayed in official publicity campaigns and in the light of attitudes to women working in the 1940s These women talk about their difficulties in a workplace not designed for women no toilets for example the attitudes of their families what they thought about American GIs and Italian POWs how they coped with swearing and troublesome colleagues rules about stockings They describe devastating air raids and being thrust into tough responsibilities for the first time This book fills a gap as most books on women s wartime roles focus on the military services or industrial work It offers valuable insights into the perceptions and concerns of these young women As generations die out and families lose a direct connection it becomes more important to be able to share their voices with a wider audience Railroad Vision Anne M.
