Raphael Basic Art:

T25 Raphael Big Art Christof Thoenes, 2012 Painting the divine Heavenly grace and human grandeur Influenced by his contemporaries Michelangelo and Leonardo Raphael Santi 1483 1520 became in his own right one of the most important artists of the High Renaissance Though Raphael painted many important works in his Florence period including his famous Madonnas it was his mature work in Rome that cemented his place in history most notably the Stanza della Segnatura in the Vatican featuring his School of Athens and Triumph of Religion murals This overview traces the life s work of this Renaissance master who achieved the height of greatness in only two decades of creation and whose influential work paved the way for the Mannerist and Baroque movements About the Series Each book in TASCHEN s Basic Art series features a detailed chronological summary of the life and oeuvre of the artist covering his or her cultural and historical importance a concise biography approximately 100 illustrations with explanatory captions Raphael's Poetics David Rijser, 2025-10-01 Raphael s Poetics applies strategies of interpretation implicit in antique poetry to the visual art of the Renaissance concentrating on Raphael s Roman works and their cultural context Until recently scholarly discussion was dominated by the application of Renaissance literary theory to visual arts obscuring the fact that Renaissance humanists who contributed to literary theory were in the first instance and almost without exception poets rather than theorists To counter the tendency towards theory the hermeneutic rules implicit in their poetry and thus the poetry itself is brought to the fore by this study as a hermeneutical tool By focusing on the interaction between the work of art and its public Rijser offers innovative interpretations of canonical works and important insights into the cultural history of the early modern period Reconstructing a visual grammar and defining the context in which Raphael s art functioned this study illuminates contemporary significances that have since been lost The Cambridge Companion to Raphael Marcia B. Hall, 2005-03-07 This book examines all facets of the High Renaissance painter Raphael The Translation of Raphael's Roman Style Henk Th. van Veen, 2007 The papers show that the response to the new style was without exception a very conscious one In Siena and Venice it was simply rejected whereas in Pesaro Mantua Rome and Fontainebleau it was transformed or attempts were made even to surpass it In other cases Florence in particular the answer to the new Raphaellesque style was found by proposing a conspicuously Michelangelesque one instead BOOK JACKET Representing Belief Michael Paul Driskel, 2010-11-01 Representing Belief provides a detailed discussion and analysis of the forms and meanings in religious art of nineteenth century France This genre usually assigned minimal importance by writers on the period turns out to occupy a central place in the cultural history of the era touching the core of the century s conflict between tradition and modernity science and faith ultramontanism and naturalism Although it was generally assumed that this kind of art was of little importance in the evolution of modern painting Driskel demonstrates that in reality it played a crucial role Many of the artists discussed are firmly installed in the present canon Delacroix Ingres Manet Gauguin while others Flandrin Orsel Gleyre Cazin were major figures in their own time though largely forgotten today Writing from an interdisciplinary perspective and employing concepts derived from structuralist and poststructuralist theory Driskel moves beyond simple formalism to restore a category of once important works to a meaningful context thereby offering others a model by which to discuss and interpret these paintings Carefully charting the genealogies of hieraticism and naturalism he demonstrates that a dramatic shift occurred in the 1860s and 1870s as naturalism gained acceptance among ultramontanes and the hieratic mode began to attract the interest of adherents to the belief system of modernism Representing Belief is the first book to situate this art in its social and historical contexts and to approach it from this point of view

Art in Renaissance Italy John T. Paoletti, Gary M. Radke, 2005 Art in Renaissance Italy sets the art of that time in its context exploring why it was created and in particular looking at who commissioned the palaces and cathedrals the paintings and the sculptures

The Cognitive Basis of Aesthetics Elena Fell, Ioanna Kopsiafti, 2016-04-14 This book seeks to fill a void in contemporary aesthetics scholarship by considering the cognitive features that make the aesthetic and artistic worthy of philosophical study Aesthetic cognition has been largely abandoned by analytical philosophy which instead tends to focus its attention on the non exhibited properties of artwork or issues concerning semantic and syntactic structure The Cognitive Basis of Aesthetics innovatively seeks to correct the marginalization of aesthetics in analytical philosophy by reinterpreting aesthetic cognition through an integration of Ernst Cassirer's philosophy of symbolic forms with Paul Crowther's theory of imagination and philosophy of art. This integration has three important outcomes: 1. it explains why the aesthetic and artistic constitute a unique form of knowledge; 2. it shows the role this plays in the formation of aesthetics as a discipline; and 3. it describes why aesthetic cognition is so deeply engaging. This book's unique theoretical approach engages with important works of visual, conceptual, and digital art as well as literature, music, and theatre. The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art, 1846.
