a broad range of philosophers including Dewey Eisner Greene Hume Plato Kant Langer Read and Schiller The book aims to show how attempts to justify art as a tool for societal and individual improvement fail in advocating art education Ultimately she claims that the arts should be taught because children have the right to receive art education That right stems from the unique nature of art Rethinking Language Arts Nina Zaragoza,2013-12-02 In Rethinking Language Arts Passion and Practice SecondEdition author Nina Zaragoza uses the form of letters to her students to engage pre service teachers in reevaluating teaching practices thus bringing to life a vision of an alternative classroom environment in which the teacher is the prime mover and creative leader Zaragoza discusses and explains the need for teachers to be decision makers reflective thinkers political beings and agents of social change in order to create a positive and inclusive classroom setting This book is both a critical text that deconstructs the way language arts are traditionally taught in our schools as well as a visionary text with clear no nonsense directions on how to provide much needed change in our schools Critical Literacy as Resistance Laraine Wallowitz,2008 Critical Literacy as Resistance is a collaborate effort among secondary and university educators from across the United States that addresses questions such as What does a critical literacy classroom look like What various texts are used What strategies do teachers use to encourage students and teacher candidates to recognize how texts construct power and privilege How do educators inspire activism in and out of the classroom This book documents the experiences of scholars and teachers who have successfully bridged theory and practice by applying critical literacy into their respective content areas The authors spell out the difference between critical thinking and critical literacy then show how to write and implement curriculum that incorporates diverse texts and multiple literacies in all content areas including world language and includes the voices of students as they confront issues of race class gender and power The principles and practices laid out here will help teachers use literacy to liberate and empower students both in and outside the classroom by respecting and studying the literacies students bring to school while simultaneously teaching and challenging the literacies of those in power This is a book for pre and in service teachers in all content areas staff developers secondary literacy specialists university professors and anyone interested in social justice Art for Children Experiencing Psychological Trauma Adrienne D.
