The Aesthetics of Enchantment in the Fine Arts M. Kronegger, Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-03-14 Let us revive the true sense of fine arts enchantment In the conceptualised commercialised artificial approach to fine arts we forgot its authentic experiential sense It lies at the imaginative heart of all arts there to be retrieved by the creative recipient as the very truth of it all

In Our Own Image Wesley J. Wildman, 2017-12-15 In Our Own Image is a work of comparative philosophical theology It is a study of the roles anthropomorphism and apophaticism play in the construction of conceptual models of ultimate reality Leading scholar Wesley J Wildman considers whether we create our ideas of God He offers a comparative analysis of three major classes of ultimacy models paying particular attention to the way those classes are impacted by anthropomorphism while tracing their relative strengths and weaknesses Wildman provides a constructive theological argument on behalf of an apophatic understanding of ultimate reality showing how this understanding subsumes challenges and relates ultimacy models from the three classes being compared He describes and compares competing ultimacy models fairly and sympathetically The conclusion is that all models cognitively break on the shoals of ultimate reality but that the ground of being class of models carries us further than the others in regard to the comparative criteria that matter most
