Reality Of Foreign Investments:

Myths and Realities of Foreign Investment in Poor Countries John M. Rothgeb, 1989-06 This book systematically explores the effects upon underdeveloped countries of direct foreign investments made by multinational corporations. The author pays particular attention to themes prevalent in the international political economy literature that depict foreign investment as alternately aiding or hindering economic development in the Third World. In constructing his analysis, Rothgeb treats the relationship between the multinational corporation and the underdeveloped host state as a political relationship, demonstrating that the results of foreign investment depend in large part upon the differing strengths of the actors in the relationship and how they use the advantages derived from their power. Following an introductory chapter which reviews the current status of research on the subject, Rothgeb turns to a consideration of how foreign investments affect host state foreign policy. He then addresses the domestic political and social effects of foreign investment and identifies four basic conceptions of the role played by foreign investment. Finally, Rothgeb focuses on economic growth, analyzing the ways in which multinational firms affect growth via their effects on capital availability, the degree to which the government plays a leading role in managing society and changes in the composition of the local labor force. The author's conclusions regarding the political effects of foreign investment should be required reading for students of economic development and international relations as well as for policymakers and executives of multinational firms.

International Business: The New Realities S. Tamer Cavusgil, Hussain Rammal, Susan Freeman, 2011-12-12 Remarkable change is the new reality of International Business. The accelerating cross border flow of products, services, capital, ideas, technology, and people are driving businesses large and small to internationalise. International Business 1st Australasian edition. The New Realities is a rigorous resource which motivates and prepares future managers to operate in multi national settings by delivering a teaching system that works. Based on the authors' collective teaching and working experience as well as discussions with practitioners, students, and faculty staff, this is a complete teaching and learning system where cases, exercises, and management skill builders are seamlessly integrated and matched to the topics in each chapter. Case studies from a wide variety of markets relevant to Australasian businesses, including ASEAN countries (e.g. Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia) as well as China, India, Japan, South Korea, Pakistan, Europe, and the Middle East, provide a real world perspective to theories and examine the latest trends in international business. For undergraduate students majoring in international business or post graduate courses in international business.
