Reason Truth And God:

Reason, Truth and God Renford Bambrough, 1973 Reason, Truth, and Theology in Pragmatist Perspective Paul D. Murray, 2004 In this work Paul Murray explores which style of rationality is most appropriate to Christian theology in the contemporary pluralist postfoundationalist postmodern context At its heart is a fresh consideration of the American pragmatist tradition focussing on the writings of Richard Rorty and Nicholas Rescher Where Rorty correctly diagnoses the failures of foundationalist objectivism Rescher's pragmatic idealism is presented as healing the ills in Rorty's own neo pragmatism The significant resonance between Rescher's view of rationality and Christian understanding of the trinity is explored In turn Donald MacKinnon's influential writings are presented as exemplifying just such an approach to theology Murray both articulates an enriched form of Christian postliberalism committed to receiving and learning from other traditions of thought and practice and probes the claim that the dynamics of human rationality can be expected to reflect the Trinitarian dynamics of God's being Paul Murray presents us here with an exhaustive and insightful study of recent pragmatic theory in which he sets up rhythms of healing and completion as well as interrogation particularly remarkable is his exploration of Christianity as the deep and in some sense final interlocutor of pragmatic tradition I strongly recommend this book Olivier Davis Professor of Christian Doctrine King's College London This is a mature wide ranging work that by uniting the intellectual and the practical carries both rational and ethical conviction It does equal justice to the classic teachings of Christianity and to the challenges to rethink them in dialogue with modern and postmodern approaches The result is a conception of Christianity both generously orthodox and deeply engaged with contemporary life and thought It is especially good to see the profound contribution of Donald MacKinnon understood and developed with such perception and relevance David F Ford Regius Professor of Divinity University of Cambridge Paul Murray is currently Lecturer in Systematic Theology within the Department of Theology at the University of Durham England He has previously held posts at St Cuthbert's Seminary Ushaw College Durham and Newman College of Higher Education Birmingham Essays of his exploring issues in philosophical theology science and theology and contemporary Roman Catholic theology have appeared in leading journals and edited collections This is his first monograph The Cause of God and Truth ... John Gill, 1736 The Cause of God and Truth: Being an Examination of the Principal Passages of Scripture Made Use of by the Arminians, in Favour of Their Scheme; Particularly by Dr. Whitby, in His Discourse on the Five Points, Etc John GILL (D.D., Baptist Minister, at Horsley Down.), 1736 God's Mysteries and Truth Johnny L. Hatfield, 2022-01-31 God's mysteries and truth uncovered Will faith in God really work False doctrines and false prophets Is divine healing real Were true homosexuals born that way Was the blood of Jesus human or divine Is the rapture biblical Will all Christians get out in the rapture Can Christians live free from sin Does God really speak to people Aquinas on God Dr Rudi te Velde, 2013-05-28 Aquinas on God presents an accessible exploration of Thomas Aquinas conception of God Focusing on the Summa theologiae the work containing Aquinas

most systematic and complete exposition of the Christian doctrine of God Rudi te Velde acquaints the reader with Aquinas theological understanding of God and the metaphysical principles and propositions that underlie his project Aquinas conception of God is dealt with not as an isolated metaphysical doctrine but from the perspective of his broad theological view which underlies the scheme of the Summa Readers interested in Aquinas historical theology metaphysics and metaphysical discourse on God in the Christian tradition will find this new contribution to the studies of Aquinas invaluable

Truth and the Reality of God Ian Markham,1998-01-01 Belief in the possibility of truth demonstrates a belief in God Professor Markham places this striking argument which lies at the very heart of Augustinian theology within the modern debate about truth and defends its underlying claim Belief in God is he claims an all embracing world view about the nature of reality of which the possibility of truth is a part Drawing on the work of St Augustine and St Anselm Richard Rorty Don Cupitt and in particular Alasdair MacIntyre Markham demonstrates that the necessary assumptions underpinning the realist account of truth must entail the existence of God Referring to Nietzsche and again to St Augustine Markham concludes with the stark choice either God and truth or no God and no truth

The Collapse of Truth John Casperson,2020-11-13 The United States is amid a defining moment that will irrevocably determine the future of the American democratic experiment In 1787 when the constitution of the United States was adopted Americans gathered on the steps of Independence Hall in Philadelphia and asked Benjamin Franklin what type of government had been fashioned by the Founding Fathers Franklin replied A republic if you can keep it The American political system has held a firm grasp on the concept of representational government until now In Jonathan Swift s brilliant political satire Gulliver s Travels rope by rope Gulliver was imprisoned albeit imperceptibly Now judge by judge the judicial system has been co opted by the right wing and the Department of Justice is occupied by a king maker Elections are corrupted beyond measure both by domestic political machinations and foreign influence meddling The American free press is under attack like never before This book is an analysis and expose of forces at work that overtly and covertly are propelling America toward an authoritarian fascist state

God, Creation, and Revelation Paul King Jewett,Marguerite Shuster,1991 A theology that is real readable and relevant such is Paul Jewett s God Creation and Revelation Writing from a distinctively evangelical and Reformed viewpoint Jewett offers a general systematic introduction to these doctrines of the Christian church how we know God revelation and Scripture who God is the divine nature what God is like the divine attributes and what God has done creation While upholding the historic Christian faith Jewett s approach to Christian teaching is uniquely neo evangelical in that he seeks to expound and clarify orthodox Christianity for twentieth century Christians Jewett purposely sets forth his systematic theology in light of scientific and social issues that confront the church in the contemporary world Throughout the book Jewett also refers to literary masterpieces and to the church s hymns giving the reader a greater appreciation for the theological treasures in our literature and our hymnody The culmination of nearly forty years of study and teaching this book adeptly balances the philosophical efforts needed in systematic theology with the biblical material in which Christian doctrines are rooted and it covers well the range of theologies from the early fathers to the Scholastics from the Reformers to liberation and feminist theologians Interspersed throughout the text are useful addenda and excursions which provide further detailed treatment of specific topics An unusual feature of God Creation and Revelation is Jewett's inclusion of eight sermons by Dr Marguerite Shuster a former student of his Believing that theology and preaching must go together Jewett has strategically placed these sermons throughout the book as creative examples of how to preach Christian doctrines
