Richard H. Bell

Rechts Und Links Roman:

Facing Modernity Jon Hughes, 2006 This is the first monograph on the work of Joseph Roth 1894-1939 to be published in English by a British based academic and should prove useful both to those with a specialized interest in Roth whose novels and journalism continue to gain admirers around the world and to those interested more broadly in an extraordinarily rich period in twentieth century European culture It serves both as an introduction to the early part of a body of work whose variety and volume were for many years overshadowed by the reputation of the historical novel Radetzky 1932 and as a re assessment of Roth's writing both of fiction and of journalism within the modern tradition A perceived fragmentation of social political cultural and other traditions was a particular concern for Roth as for many contemporaries and the thematic chapters present a detailed contextual survey of Roth's intense and often ambivalent engagement with aspects of modern life including travel gender technology the city and cinema Besides assessing the continuities and discontinuities in Roth's attitudes these chapters examine how his responses to the contemporary world impact upon both the form and content of his writing The author argues that Roth's writing of the 1920s should be considered modernist not just in its often prescient sensitivity to cultural and political developments but in its employment of a formal aesthetics and narrative self consciousness which eventually made possible the illusory wholeness of the later fiction Monatsschrift Für Das Deutsche Geistesleben, 1901 Catalog of Copyright Entries. New Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1931 Classic Book Jackets Thomas Stansfield Hansen, 2005 Salter's life and work bridged two continents and cultures and spanned the political turmoil of the mid twentieth century He survived both world wars the rise of National Socialism in Germany and permanent exile in a new land but nothing halted his tireless and brilliant design work Classic Book Jackets tells Salter's story and describes the innovative thinking he brought to his clients and students including his designation of seven jacket types that are still valid today It includes more than two hundred reproductions of his finest works as well as a complete catalog of his jackets designs and lettering jobs for the book trade BOOK JACKET The Grace of Misery. Joseph Roth and the Politics of Exile, 1919-1939 (paperback) Ilse Josepha Lazaroms, 2012-10-19 In The Grace of Misery Joseph Roth and the Politics of Exile 1919-1939 Ilse Josepha Lazaroms offers an account of the life and intellectual legacy of Joseph Roth one of interwar Europe's most critical and modern writers

Provoked to Jealousy Richard H. Bell, 1994 Originally presented as the author's thesis doctoral Universität Tübingen

Cityscaping Therese Fuhrer, Felix Mundt, Jan Stenger, 2015-05-19 The term cityscaping is here introduced to characterise the creative process through which the image of the city is created and represented in various media text film and artefacts It thus turns attention away from built urban spaces and onto mental images of cities One focus is on the question of which literary visual and acoustic means prompt their recipients spatial imagination another is to inquire into the semantics and functions that are ascribed to the image of a city as constructed in various media The examples of ancient texts and works of art and modern literature and films are used to elucidate the artistic potential of images of the city and the techniques by which they are semanticised With its interdisciplinary approach the volume for the first time makes clear how strongly mental images of urban space both ancient and modern have been shaped by the techniques of their representation in media

Robert Couzin,2021-03-01 Robert Couzin's Right and Left in Early Christian and Medieval Art is the first in depth study of handedness position and direction in the visual culture of Europe and Byzantium from the fourth to the fourteenth century. Heretofore largely unnoticed or ignored, the pre-eminence of the right and lapses or intentional departures from that norm in medieval imagery are relevant to such major themes as iconography, visuality, reception, narrative form, gender, production and patronage. The author's investigation of right and left in visual culture is informed by modern experimental research on laterality and contextualized within prevailing theological doctrines and socio-cultural practices. Illustrations in the text are complemented by hundreds more made available on Brill's Arkyves platform here. See inside the book Brill's Companion to Cicero

James M. May,2002-09-01 This volume is intended as a companion to the study of Cicero's oratory and rhetoric for both students and experts in the field. For the neophyte, it provides a starting point; for the veteran Ciceronian scholar, a place for renewing the dialogue about issues concerning Ciceronian oratory and rhetoric for all. A site of engagement at various levels with Ciceronian scholarship and bibliography. The book is arranged along roughly chronological lines and covers most aspects of Cicero's oratory and rhetoric. The particular strength of this companion resides in the individual, often very original, approach to sundry topics by an array of impressive contributors, all of whom have spent large portions of their careers concentrating upon the oratorical and rhetorical oeuvre of Cicero. A bibliography of relevant items from the past 25 years, keyed to specific Ciceronian works, completes the volume. Brill's Companion to Cicero will become the standard reference work on Cicero for many years.

A Companion to Seals in the Middle Ages,2019-02-11 A Companion to Seals in the Middle Ages is a cross-disciplinary collection of fourteen essays on medieval sigillography. It is organized thematically and it emphasizes important, often cutting-edge methodologies for the study of medieval seals and sealing cultures. As the chronological, temporal and geographic scope of the essays in the volume suggests the study of the medieval seal, its manufacture, materiality, usage, iconography, inscription and preservation is a rich endeavour that demands collaboration across disciplines as well as between scholars working on material from different regions and periods. It is hoped that this collection will make the study of medieval seals more accessible and will stimulate students and scholars to employ and further develop these material and methodological approaches to seals. Contributors are Adrian Ailes, Elka Cwiertnia, Paul Dryburgh, Emir O. Filipovi, Oliver Harris, Philippa Hoskin, Ashley Jones, Andreas Lehnertz, John McEwan, Elizabeth A. New, Jonathan Shea, Caroline Simonet, Angelina A. Volkoff and Marek L. Wojcik.
