What could China bring to the world in 2019? The answer, for President Xi Jinping, might be more imports of beef from the United States, given China's strong intentions to boost opening-up.

Xi Jinping, chairman of the Communist Party of China, said his message for 2019 is to "open ever wider" to the world. He said China will continue to push forward its reform and opening-up, and China's growth will be more inclusive and sustainable.

Xi said the products launched in the world are not only for the benefit of the world, but also for the benefit of China. He said China will continue to push forward its reform and opening-up, and China's growth will be more inclusive and sustainable.
