Romancing The Life And Work Of Henry Green:

Romancing Jeremy Treglown, 2000 Henry Green led a double life As Henry Yorke a descendant of the earl of Hardwicke and Baron Leconfield he was a wealthy aristocrat with a family fortune and an engineering plant in the British Midlands As Henry Green the pseudonym he settled on after trying out Henry Browne he wrote nine of our century's most original novels including Living Party Going Caught and Loving all of which with daringly experimental techniques capture the psychological truths of ordinary life in dramatic sometimes poignant and often hilarious ways Green also formed friendships and rivalries with many of his time's leading literary figures including Evelyn Waugh and Anthony Powell Eudora Welty and Terry Southern And he led an extravagantly messy personal life Jeremy Treglown the highly praised biographer of Roald Dahl discusses Green's novels in close connection with his life his unusual camaraderie with factory workers his sympathy for servants his ambivalence about his peers his drinking and his extramarital affairs Treglown also shows how Green's portrayal of everyday uncertainties mirrored his efforts to understand his weaknesses and the chaotic conduct of his life efforts whose literary results John Updike has said bring the rectangle of the printed page alive like little else in English fiction of this century

Henry Green Nick Shepley, 2016-07-29 Henry Green Class Style and the Everyday offers a critical prism through which Green's fiction from his earliest published short stories as an Eton schoolboy through to his last dialogic novels of the 1950s can be seen as a coherent subtle and humorous critique of the tension between class style and realism in the first half of the twentieth century The study extends on going critical recognition that Green's work is central to the development of the novel from the twenties to the fifties acting as a vital bridge between late modernist inter war post war and postmodernist fiction The overarching contention is that the shifting and destabilizing nature of Green's oeuvre sets up a predicament similar to that confronted by theorists of the everyday Consequently each chapter acknowledges the indeterminacy of the writing whether it be the non singular functioning or malfunctioning of the name the open ended purposefully ambiguous nature of its symbols the shifting cinematic nature of Green's prose style the sensitive but resolutely unsentimental depictions of the working classes and the aristocracy in the inter war period the impact of war and its inconsistent irruptions into daily life or the ways in which moments or events are rapidly subsumed back into the flux of the everyday their impact left uncertain Critics have historically offered up singular readings of Green's work or focused on the poetic or recreative qualities of certain works particularly those of the 1940s Green's writing is undoubtedly poetic and extraordinary but this book also pays attention to the clichéd meta textual and uneventful aspects of his fiction

Henry Green at the Limits of Modernism Marius Hentea, 2013-11-01 Although Henry Green has been recognised by James Wood David Lodge and John Updike as one of the most innovative writers of his time his significant achievement remains largely neglected Henry Green at the Limits of Modernism provides a theoretically sophisticated and historically nuanced reading of Green's novels and makes the case for Green's importance in reconsiderations of modernism late modernism and post war

realism This work is the most ambitious reassessment of Green's oeuvre to date and thus critical reading for scholars interested in modernism late modernism and the evolution of British post war fiction Arguing against the predominant view of Green's fiction as an autonomous literary construction the work connects Green to a number of social and literary contexts resulting in fresh readings of his novels and also a greater accessibility to an author long considered oblique and elusive With significant investigations of Green's connection to his literary generation his multifaceted and formally innovative handling of social class his negotiations of narrative authority and authorship and the importance of disability studies to understanding Green's fiction this study charts the complex trajectories of Green's fiction against both social and literary contexts The work also moves beyond the narrow confines of British literature to explore Green's connections to broader trends in European literature

Henry Green Peter Wolfe, 2017-11-30 By mid career many successful writers have found a groove and their readers come to expect a familiar consistency and fidelity Not so with Henry Green 1905-1973 He prefers uncertainty over reason and fragmentation over cohesion and rarely lets the reader settle into a nice cozy read Evil he suggests can be as instructive as good Through Green's use of paradoxical and ambiguous language his novels bring texture to the flatness of life making the world seem bigger and closer We soon stop worrying about what Hitler's bombs have in store for the Londoners of Caught 1943 and Back 1946 and start thinking about what they have in store for each other Praised in his lifetime as England's top fiction author Green is largely overlooked today This book presents a comprehensive analysis of his work for a new generation of readers

The Novel After Film Jonathan Foltz, 2018 In this provocative and original study Jonathan Foltz charts the institutional stylistic and conceptual relays that linked literary and cinematic cultures and that fundamentally changed the nature and status of storytelling in the early twentieth century

The Cambridge Companion to English Novelists Adrian Poole, 2009-12-10 In this Companion leading scholars and critics address the work of the most celebrated and enduring novelists from the British Isles excluding living writers among them Defoe Richardson Sterne Austen Dickens the Brontës George Eliot Hardy James Lawrence Joyce and Woolf The significance of each writer in their own time is explained the relation of their work to that of predecessors and successors explored and their most important novels analysed These essays do not aim to create a canon in a prescriptive way but taken together they describe a strong developing tradition of the writing of fictional prose over the past 300 years This volume is a helpful guide for those studying and teaching the novel and will allow readers to consider the significance of less familiar authors such as Henry Green and Elizabeth Bowen alongside those with a more established place in literary history

Great War Modernism Nanette Norris, 2015-12-16 New Modernist Studies while reviving and revitalizing modernist studies through lively scholarly debate about historicity aesthetics politics and genres is struggling with important questions concerning the delineation that makes discussion fruitful and possible This volume aims to explore and clarify the position of the so called core of literary modernism in its seminal engagement with the Great War In studying the years of the Great War we find ourselves once more studying the giants about whom there is so much more to say as well as adding hitherto marginalized writers and a few visual artists to the canon The contention here is that these war years were seminal to the development of a distinguishable literary practice which is called modernism but perhaps could be further delineated as Great War modernism a practice whose aesthetic merits can be addressed through formal analysis This collection of essays offers new insight into canonical British American European modernism of the Great War period using the critical tools of contemporary expansionist modernist studies By focusing on war and on the experience of the soldier and of those dealing with issues of war and survival these studies link the unique forms of expression found in modernism with the fragmented violent and traumatic experience of the time

The Politics of 1930s British Literature Natasha Periyar, 2018-06-14 Winner of the 2018 International Standing Conference for the History of Education s First Book Award Drawing on a rich array of archival sources and historical detail The Politics of 1930s British Literature tells the story of a school minded decade and illuminates new readings of the politics and aesthetics of 1930s literature In a period of shifting political claims educational policy shaped writers social and gender ideals This book explores how a wide array of writers including Virginia Woolf W H Auden George Orwell Winifred Holtby and Graham Greene were informed by their pedagogic work It considers the ways in which education influenced writers analysis of literary style and their conception of future literary forms The Politics of 1930s British Literature argues that to those perennial symbols of the 1930s the loudspeaker and the gramophone should be added the textbook and the blackboard

Portable Modernisms Emily Ridge, 2017-06-23 Luggage is an overlooked detail in the stock sketch of the expatriated modernist writer from the valise fashioned desks of both James Joyce and Vladimir Nabokov to the lost manuscript laden cases of Ernest Hemingway and Walter Benjamin While the trope of modernist exile has long been spotlighted little attention has been given to the material meaning of this condition What things and objects do modernism s exiles and emigres carry with them and how does the act of carriage enter into the modernist picture more broadly What are the implications and historical resonances of a portable outlook particularly from the angles of gender wartime conflict and character conception Above all how far does such an outlook impact upon artistic vision Portability represents the simultaneous transportation and repudiation of domesticity and the home those key frames of reference in the nineteenth century novel This book examines the multifarious ways in which the emergence of a modern culture of portability prompts a radical if often problematic departure from Victorian architectural conceptions of fiction towards more movable understandings of form and character

The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of World War II Marina MacKay, 2009-01-22 The literature of World War II has emerged as an accomplished moving and challenging body of work produced by writers as different as Norman Mailer and Virginia Woolf Primo Levi and Ernest Hemingway Jean Paul Sartre and W H Auden This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of the international literatures of the war both those works that recorded or reflected experiences of the war as it happened and those that tried to make sense of it afterwards It surveys the writing produced in the major combatant nations Britain and the Commonwealth the USA Japan Germany France Italy and the USSR and explores its common themes With its chronology and guide to further reading it will be an invaluable source of information and inspiration for students and scholars of modern literature and war studies
