Narrow Gauge in the Ypres Sector Martin J B Farebrother,Joan S Farebrother,2024-06-06 The Ypres sector of the Western Front was held predominantly by the British and Dominion Armies from 1914 to 1918 The Ypres Salient at the centre of this sector was one of the most intensively fought over single locations of the First World War By the end of 1917 the sector was full of railways dumps camps and other facilities Much was lost in the German advance in April 1918 but from September 1918 the German Army was driven eastwards until the Armistice Although Ypres and most of the forward areas are in Belgium much of the support area is in northern France In this book the meter gauge networks of both countries established before the First World War are examined with their uses and extensions during the War The build up of light 60cm gauge railways from 1916 to 1918 is described with an assessment of the contribution of both narrow gauges to the war effort After the war the light railways in this sector were generally used only for short term clearing up and salvage The meter gauge railways in Belgium were rebuilt or repaired Those in France had been less affected The story is followed to the closure of the last of these railways This book is a companion volume to those on the Arras Sector 2015 and the Somme Sector 2018 It refers to other previous works on British French and Belgian railways especially during the First World War but contains sufficient information to stand alone The West Yorkshire Regiment in the War, 1914-1918 Everard Wyrall,1918 Military Operations France and Belgium, 1914[-18] Sir James Edward Edmonds,1927 Americans in Occupied Belgium, 1914-1918 Ed Klekowski,Libby Klekowski,2014-04-02 Belgium in the First World War the first country invaded the longest occupied and when the war finally ended the first forgotten In 1914 Belgium was home to a large American colony which included representatives of American companies artists writers and diplomats with the American

Legation After the invasion American journalists and adventurers flocked there to follow the action military restrictions on travel were less stringent than in England or France As the most industrialized country in Europe Belgium depended upon trade and food imports to support its economy The war isolated Belgium and wholesale starvation was imminent by the fall of 1914 Herbert Hoover and his Commission for Relief in Belgium raised funds to purchase and import food to sustain Belgium and eventually Occupied France as well Idealistic American volunteers including some Rhodes scholars supervised food distribution in the occupation zone Along the Western Front in Belgium hundreds of Americans served illegally in the British and Canadian armies This book tells the story of the German invasion occupation and retreat from the perspective of Americans who were there New Zealand Artillery in the Field, 1914-18 J. R. Byrne, 1922 Salient Points One Tony Spagnoly, Ted Smith, 1990-12-31 A collection of stories of men their units and the actions they took part in during the conflict of 1914 1918 together with stories other points of interest along the old Western Front Each story is supported with photographs and maps showing the area of the action as it was then and is today The content feature titles are Larch Wood Railway Cuttings Cemetery Second Lieutenant Keith Rae Bellewaarde Farm Major William Redmond H H Prince Maurice of Battenberg Major Cropper s Craters Sergeant Harry Combes D C M R G A A Cemetery Lost A Scottish Soldier Along the Messines Ridge Halloween Night 1914 A Bloodless Victory Old Bill is Born The Yanks are Coming The Lost Mines of Messines Hospitalization South of Poperinghe and Canada at Ypres The Territorial Divisions, 1914-1918 John Stirling, 2023-07-10 The Territorial Divisions 1914 1918 by John Stirling Published by Good Press Good Press publishes a wide range of titles that encompasses every genre From well known classics literary fiction and non fiction to forgotten or yet undiscovered gems of world literature we issue the books that need to be read Each Good Press edition has been meticulously edited and formatted to boost readability for all e readers and devices Our goal is to produce eBooks that are user friendly and accessible to everyone in a high quality digital format The Grenadier Guards in the Great War of 1914-1918 Vol 1, 2, 3 Frederick Ponsonby, 2021-08-30 Excerpt When the Archduke Francis Ferdinand of Austria was assassinated at Sarajevo in Serbia on June 28 1914 it never for a moment occurred to any one in this country that the crime could in any way affect the destinies of the First or Grenadier Regiment of Footguards No one dreamed that before another year had passed not only would the three Battalions be fighting in a European war but there would even be a 4th Battalion at the front in addition to a 5th Reserve Battalion of almost unwieldy proportions Even when Austria began to show her teeth it still seemed an incident quite beyond our horizon If Austria and Serbia did come to blows Great Britain was not even indirectly involved and the British Army therefore remained unmoved The Balkan peoples were constantly in a state of warlike commotion but their troubles hardly affected the great British Empire The war clouds that from time to time darkened the European sky had hitherto always been dispersed More than once of late years the German Emperor had rattled his sword in the scabbard and talked or telegraphed to the very limits of indiscretion but nothing had ever come of it nor did it seem at all probable that the assassination of an Austrian Archduke could be made the pretext for a European conflagration
