Security Challenges In The Mediterranean Region:

Security Challenges in the Mediterranean Region Roberto Aliboni, Tim Niblock, 1996 This book sets out to identify the challenges to western security emerging from the Mediterranean area Troubled Waters James Black, 2017 New challenges are reshaping the international order requiring government leaders to consider new strategies and tools that integrate diplomatic economic and military instruments of power Nowhere is this more evident than around the Mediterranean Sea which has progressively returned as a region of global strategic interest where political tensions armed conflict economic and social instability and transnational criminal networks demand solutions that cross traditional institutional boundaries of domestic and international policy making The geo political situation on the southern coast of the Mediterranean has radically changed and new challenges have emerged for the European Union United States and beyond Long lasting issues such as the Israeli Palestinian conflict or the tensions between Turkey and Greece continue to be present but new destabilising factors have emerged in the region following the Arab spring of 2011 The US EU and NATO continue to maintain a significant military presence in and around the Mediterranean but military capabilities must be nested within a whole of government international approach The challenges in this region demand unprecedented levels of civil military and intergovernmental cooperation In this context RAND established the Mediterranean Foresight Forum MFF in 2015 to support the development of comprehensive integrated civil military responses to complex regional challenges through an innovative combination of research scenario based sensitivity analysis and strategic level exercises Publisher s web site

Troubled Waters James Black, 2017 New challenges are reshaping the international order requiring government leaders to consider new strategies and tools that integrate diplomatic economic and military instruments of power Nowhere is this more evident than around the Mediterranean Sea which has progressively returned as a region of global strategic interest where political tensions armed conflict economic and social instability and transnational criminal networks demand solutions that cross traditional institutional boundaries of domestic and international policy making The geo political situation on the southern coast of the Mediterranean has radically changed and new challenges have emerged for the European Union United States and beyond Long lasting issues such as the Israeli Palestinian conflict or the tensions between Turkey and Greece continue to be present but new destabilising factors have emerged in the region following the Arab spring of 2011 The US EU and NATO continue to maintain a significant military presence in and around the Mediterranean but military capabilities must be nested within a whole of government international approach The challenges in this region demand unprecedented levels of civil military and intergovernmental cooperation In this context RAND established the Mediterranean Foresight Forum MFF in 2015 to support the development of comprehensive integrated civil military responses to complex regional challenges through an innovative combination of research scenario based sensitivity analysis and strategic level exercises Publisher s web site

Security Challenges in the Euro-Med Area in the 21st Century Stephen C. Calleya, 2012 This book provides an empirical analysis of security challenges in the Euro Mediterranean area and highlights the political military economic societal and environmental issues that are already serving as a source of instability in the region

Euro-Mediterranean Security: A Search for Partnership Sven Biscop,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This work provides a clearer understanding of the EU s approach towards security in the Mediterranean After examining the EU s interests and the potential threats to security in the region it analyzes EU security policy towards the region as a whole through the Euro Mediterranean Partnership and towards all disputes and conflicts in the area It recommends opening up the European Security and Defence Policy to Mediterranean participation in order to establish a deep and equitable security partnership between both shores The book argues that this way the EU could implement its innovative comprehensive and cooperative approach to security Rather than focusing on the military aspect alone this approach takes into account all dimensions of security political socio economic cultural and ecological and is based on partnership rather than confrontation It therefore contrasts quite sharply with the policies advocated in the US National Security Strategy

The Greek-Turkish Relationship and NATO Dr Fotios Moustakis,2004-11-23 This publication shows that the Eastern Mediterranean having been transformed from a region of secondary importance during the Cold War to one of greater importance for the western interests in the post Cold War era is in a state of flux Despite sporadic periods of rapprochement tensions between Greece and Turkey still exist Therefore one must question the grounds behind the lack of normal relations that exist between these two NATO members and its effects on the NATO organisation as a whole Hence this volume has two purposes first to examine Greek and Turkish foreign security and defence policies during and after the post Cold War period and second to investigate why these policies have been formulated

Strengthening Maritime Security Through Cooperation I. Chapsos,C. Kitchen,2015-07-30 Seventy percent of our planet is covered by water and even in today s world of instant communication the global community is still heavily reliant on sea based transport The maritime domain has always been one of NATO s key strengths but concerns about maritime security have taken on renewed importance in recent years and NATO has been forced to re examine some of its fundamental assumptions about the post Cold War security environment This book shares some of the research debates and findings from a NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW Building Trust to Enhance Maritime Security held in Geneva Switzerland in November 2014 The chapters in the book deal extensively with lessons learned by NATO from a wide range of policies operations and situations This maritime experience has been amassed from the Atlantic and Mediterranean to the Baltic and the Black Sea and even into the Indian Ocean as well as from the four decades spent defending NATO allies on the high seas during the Cold War The single most profound lesson learned over the years has concerned the importance of efficient coordination Structures and mechanisms have been created not least in recent counter piracy operations which enable a vast array of actors to work together in an efficient way and which could prove invaluable in future efforts to counter terrorism and aggression worldwide The safety of the maritime domain is essential to the freedom and security of all nations and this book will be of interest to all those whose work involves maintaining that freedom and security

The security dimensions of EU enlargement David Brown, Alistair Shepherd, 2021-06-15 The changing nature of security the enlargement of European institutions and the evolving functions of the EU have been key developments in post Cold War Europe This book blends these three crucial developments in a sophisticated and illuminating manner It assesses the impact of EU enlargement on both pre existing security arrangements and key relationships with the EU s new partners and neighbours It also investigates both hard and soft and internal and external security issues ranging from military intervention to terrorism and from organised crime to human rights From this it concludes that enlargement has both positive and negative implications for European security Completing the analysis this study examines the evolving security relationships with key states regions and international organisations in the EU s neighbourhood The examination of relations with Turkey Russia Ukraine the Greater Middle East and the Balkans provides a sense of the direction in which European security politics is moving

Coping with Global Environmental Change, Disasters and Security Hans Günter Brauch, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Czesław Mesjasz, John Grin, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, Béchir Chourou, Pál Dunay, Joern Birkmann, 2011-02-03 Coping with Global Environmental Change Disasters and Security Threats Challenges Vulnerabilities and Risks reviews conceptual debates and case studies focusing on disasters and security threats challenges vulnerabilities and risks in Europe the Mediterranean and other regions It discusses social science concepts of vulnerability and risks global regional and national security challenges global warming floods desertification and drought as environmental security challenges water and food security challenges and vulnerabilities vulnerability mapping of environmental security challenges and risks contributions of remote sensing to the recognition of security risks mainstreaming early warning of conflicts and hazards and provides conceptual and policy conclusions

The European Union in the Security of Europe Steve Marsh, Wyn Rees, 2012-03-12 This book examines the European Union s contribution to providing security in Europe amidst an increasingly complex and challenging environment In this new and comprehensive guide to the EU s role in security since the end of the Cold War the authors offer an explanation of EU internal and external security regimes and argue that the Union has become an important exporter of security within its region However the Union s rhetorical ambitions and commitments continue to outstrip its capabilities and it lacks both a common conceptualisation of security and a meaningful shared strategic culture Drawing extensively on primary sources the book examines the Union s relations with the US and Russia in a time of shifting geostrategic calculations and priorities With the EU capacity for enlargement slowing this text presents a detailed assessment of EU security policies towards Central Europe the Mediterranean the Western Balkans Eastern Europe and South Caucasus European Union Security will be of interest to students and scholars of the EU security studies and international relations

European Security Thomas Jäger, Gerhard Kümmel, 2016-07-27 The authors of this collection combine different national and institutional perspectives They cover a broad range of subjects new threats to Europe's security the advantages and disadvantages of the present security architecture in Europe the problem of nuclear weapons and their control the options for enlargement and partnership for peace the shifts in Europeans public opinion about security matters and the prospects for a European defence industry This collection provides an incomparable synthesis of some of the most crucial problems for the emergence of Europe as an independent actor in international politics

EU Development Policy in a Changing World Andrew Mold, 2007 On many fronts European Union development policy is at a critical juncture in the face of new obstacles the EU has been forced to rethink trade security and its relationship with neighbors in North Africa and the Middle East Contentious questions have centered on the effects of EU expansion agricultural protectionism and development friendly trade policy in the EU and its member nations To answer these questions and others this expertly edited volume draws on analysis from well known specialists in fields such as public policy and economic development providing a critical overview of EU development policy and the challenges it must confront in an increasingly volatile and changing world

Communitarian International Relations Emanuel Adler, 2005 Emanuel Adler is one of the leading IR theorists of his generation This volume brings together a collection of his articles including four new and previously unpublished chapters

Transnational Islam and Regional Security Frederic Volpi, 2013-09-13 This volume investigates the impact of a new brand of transnational terrorism and political violence produced by radical Islamist groups from the Maghreb on the regional security dynamics It describes the causes of the problems and the strategies devised by European and North African states in order to address it and details the successes and failures of co operation between states and society on both shores of the Mediterranean Investigating the grand security strategies that have been devised for the Mediterranean after the Cold War and after 9 11 the contributors focus on the role of police and military apparatus in securitizing the new threats that have become prominent after 9 11 and the unintended consequences of these strategies In addition the contributors analyze the relationship between Islamist groups the state and society and highlight some key causes of political violence and radicalism They outline how a better use of the law migration and intercultural dialogue might provide useful alternatives or complements to the mostly securitarian strategies that are currently dominant in the region

Non-Traditional Security Challenges in Asia Shebonti Ray Dadwal, Uttam Kumar Sinha, 2017-07-05 Asia is challenged by a number of non traditional security issues including the foodenergywater nexus climate change transnational crime terrorism disaster relief and economic performance This volume categorizes and clarifies some key emerging issues in the area and looks at their interconnectedness and implications The essays explore how non traditional issues can manifest as security challenges and the role of the state and military in dealing with these Issue based and area specific they rely on facts and interpretation of data avoiding alarmist predictions A nuanced and analytical approach into an uncharted area this book will be essential for policymakers researchers and students of security and strategic studies foreign policy sociology and political economy as well as the general readers
