The Purpose of Man A. W. Tozer, 2010-10 The one great obsession of A W Tozer s life was worship Many have written about worship but Tozer surpassed them all in simple passion and supreme purpose Compiled from material never before published this book presents A W Tozer s systematic teaching on worship His thoughts on the subject were deeply rooted in biblical doctrine and historic writings blending Scripture with some of the great devotional writers throughout history Be inspired to not only understand worship but also experience it in your own heart This will be the best teaching in my ministry I want to deliver my soul as a prophet of God to the people and to explain why we were created and why we are here not to the satisfaction of the needed appetite only but to something bigger grander and more eternal that we might worship God and enjoy Him forever

Gandhi, 2005-09-20 All Men Are Brothers is a compelling and unique collection of Gandhi s most trenchant writings on nonviolence especially in the context of a post nuclear world This compendium which reads like a traditional book Gandhi without tears is drawn from a wide range of his reflections on world peace It is not that I am incapable of anger but I succeed on almost all occasions to keep my feelings under control Such a struggle leaves one stronger for it The more I work at this the more I feel delight in my life the delight in the scheme of the universe It gives me a peace and a meaning of the mysteries of nature that I have no power to describe

Homo Aestheticus Luc Ferry, 1993 Can subjective individual taste be reconciled with an objective universal standard In Homo Aestheticus Luc Ferry argues that this central problem of aesthetic theory is fundamentally related to the political problem of democratic individualism Ferry s treatise begins in the mid 1600s with the simultaneous invention of the notions of taste the essence of art as subjective pleasure and modern democracy the idea of the State as a consensus among individuals He explores the differences between subjectivity and individuality by examining aesthetic theory as developed first by Kant s predecessors and then by Kant Hegel Nietzsche and proponents of the avant garde Ferry discerns two moments of the avant garde aesthetic the hyperindividualistic iconoclasm of creating something entirely new and the hyperrealistic striving to achieve an extraordinary truth The tension between these two Ferry argues preserves an essential element of the Enlightenment concern for reconciling the subjective and the objective a problem that is at once aesthetic ethical and political Rejecting postmodern proposals for either a radical break with or return to tradition Ferry embraces a postmodernism that recasts Enlightenment notions of value as a new intersubjectivity His original analysis of the growth and decline of the twentieth century avant garde movement sheds new light on the connections between aesthetics ethics and political theory
