The Martian Child David Gerrold,2002-06 A Novel about a Single Father Adopting a Son Based on a True Story Oh One more thing Dennis thinks he s a Martian Soon to be parents are instructed to expect the unexpected Good advice it turns out Especially for the anxious or apprehensive parent who is considering adoption How can one know about an adopted child All David Gerrold knew for certain was that he wanted to be a parent As a single gay man he thought adoption would be the most direct route to fatherhood But he soon found out to both his joy and dismay that the emotional route to fatherhood was anything but direct In fact it was a roller coaster ride that changed his life forever When he first saw the picture of eight year old Dennis beaming up at him from the photograph in the adoption book David knew this was the boy for him But these were the facts Abandoned as an infant by drug addicted parents Documented abuse Shuffled from one foster home to another Deficit hyperactivity disorder Ritalin to control his violent emotional outbursts For his antisocial behavior Disipramine The conclusion from experts Dennis was hard to place A polite bureaucratic euphemism for unadoptable It was a depressing assessment that David could not would not accept He needed Dennis And he believed Dennis needed him It was that simple Until the reality of single fatherhood set in A searingly honest funny moving and heartfelt portrait of the joys and perils of parenting The Martian Child is David Gerrold s valentine to the redemptive value of love in this case a father s love for his son A son who thinks he s a Martian
