Pacific Press The Unauthorized Story Of Vancouvers Newspaper Monopoly:

Pacific Press Marc Edge, 2001 As a city of 2 million Vancouver is not unusual in having two daily newspapers What makes it an anomaly among North American cities is that the Vancouver Sun and the Province share an owner the former Pacific Press In this in depth account researcher Marc Edge traces the history of Pacific Press from its inception in 1957 to the Sun s shift to morning publications in 1991 Pacific Press analyzes the market business and labour forces that gave rise to and shaped Pacific Press We also get intimate glimpses of the early Vancouver newspaper world including insight into Robert Cromie publisher of the Sun and heirs Don Bob and Sam Tales of venerable editorialist Bruce Hutchison red baiting Province columnist Ormond Turner warring Sun writers Allan Fotheringham and Doug Collins and many others enliven the narrative Pacific Press furnishes an invaluable history of newspapering in Vancouver that is also a gripping business saga

Becoming Vancouver Daniel Francis, 2021-09-25 A brisk chronicle of Vancouver BC from early days to its emergence as a global metropolis refracted through the events characters and communities that have shaped the city In Becoming Vancouver award winning historian Daniel Francis follows the evolution of the city from early habitation by the Musqueam Squamish and Tsleil Waututh First Nations to the area s settlement as a mill town to the flourishing era speakeasies and brothels during the 1920s to the years of poverty and protest during the 1930s followed by the long wartime and postwar boom to the city s current status as real estate investment choice of the global super rich Tracing decades of transformation immigration and economic development Francis examines the events and characters that have defined the city s geography economy and politics Francis enlivens his text with rich characterizations of the people who shaped Vancouver determined Chief Joe Capilano who in 1906 took a delegation to England to appeal directly to King Edward VII for better treatment of Indigenous peoples brilliant and successful Won Alexander Cumyow the first recorded person of Chinese descent born in Canada L D Taylor irrepressible ex Chicagoan who still holds the record as the city s longest serving mayor and tireless activist Helena Gutteridge Vancouver s first woman councillor Vancouver has been called a city without a history partly because of its youth but also because of the way it seems to change so quickly Newcomers to the city arriving by the thousands every year find few physical reminders of what was before making a work like Becoming Vancouver so essential A Magical Time Frances Atkinson, Tessa Perkins Deneault, Carole Gerson, Christine Hearn, Bill Jeffries, Francis Mansbridge, Barry Truax, Hildegard Westerkamp, Sandy Wilson, Max Wyman, Ann Cowan, 2025-03-25 Simon Fraser University went from an idea in 1963 to opening its doors in 1965 a feat that led it to be dubbed the instant university This multi authored history chronicles the excitement of that first radical decade of the arts at SFU The 1960s were famously a decade of cultural revolution and Simon Fraser University was a creature of its time The counter culture spirit infected all levels of society but none more than the new university and its innovative arts programming Early SFU was shaped by a vision of a new kind of university where thought was free flowing and lines between the disciplines were blurred The open format attracted experimental artists such as the dramatist John Juliani and the composer R Murray Schaffer whose avant garde performances did much to set a revolutionary tone In this multi authored book writers associated with the university such as Max Wyman Barry Truax Ann Cowan and Francis Mansbridge capture the excitement of that first decade of the arts at SFU Hildegard Westercamp Carole Gerson and Christine Hearn describe the years of ferment from the viewpoint of former SFU students and celebrated filmmaker Sandy Wilson contributes a moving piece written specifically for this book about the beginning of her career in film as a student at SFU Richly illustrated with ephemera and photographs from the era A Magical Time traces how innovation in the arts shaped events over the next six decades at SFU Making National News Gene Allen, 2014-01-31 For almost a century Canadian newspapers radio and television stations and now internet news sites have depended on the Canadian Press news agency for most of their Canadian and through its international alliances foreign news This book provides the first ever scholarly history of CP as well as the most wide ranging historical treatment of twentieth century Canadian journalism published to date Using extensive archival research including complete and unfettered access to CP s archives Gene Allen traces how CP was established and evolved in the face of frequent conflicts among the powerful newspaper publishers John Ross Robertson Joseph Atkinson and Roy Thomson among others who collectively owned it and how the journalists who ran it understood and carried out their work Other major themes include CP s shifting relationships with the Associated Press and Reuters its responses to new media its aggressive shaping of its own national role during the Second World War and its efforts to meet the demands of French language publishers Making National News makes a substantial and original contribution to our understanding of journalism as a phenomenon that shaped Canada both culturally and politically in the twentieth century Converging Media, Diverging Politics Mike Gasher, 2005-01-01 What purpose does the news media serve in contemporary North American society In this collection of essays experts from both the United States and Canada investigate this question exploring the effects of media concentration in democratic systems Specifically the scholars collected here consider from a range of vantage points how corporate and technological convergence in the news industry in the United States and Canada impacts journalism s expressed role as a medium of democratic communication More generally and by necessity Converging Media Diverging Politics speaks to larger questions about the role that the production and circulation of news and information does can and should serve The editors have gathered an impressive array of critical essays featuring interesting and well documented case studies that will prove useful to both students and researchers of communications and media studies Beyond Bylines Barbara M. Freeman, 2012-08-01 Beyond Bylines Media Workers and Women s Rights in Canada explores the ways in which several of Canada s women journalists broadcasters and other media workers reached well beyond the glory of their personal bylines to advocate for the most controversial women s rights of their eras To do so some of them adopted conventional feminine identities while others refused to conform altogether openly and defiantly challenging the gender expectations of their day The book consists of a series of case studies of the women in question as they grappled with the concerns close to their hearts higher education for women healthy dress reforms the vote equal opportunities at work abortion lesbianism and Aboriginal women s rights Their media reflected their respective eras intellectual magazines daily and weekly newspapers radio feminist public relations alternative women s periodicals and documentary film made for television Barbara Freeman takes an interdisciplinary approach combining biography history and communication studies to demonstrate how their use of different media both enabled and limited these women in their ability to be daring advocates for gender equality She shows how a number of these women were linked through the generations by their memberships in activist women s organizations Citizenship in a Connected Canada Elizabeth Dubois, Florian Martin-Bariteau, 2020-11-10 This interdisciplinary edited collection brings together scholars activists and policy makers to build consensus around what a connected society means for Canada The collection offers insight on the state of citizenship in a digital context in Canada and proposes a research and policy agenda for the way forward Part I examines the current landscape of digital civic participation and highlights some of the missing voices required to ensure an inclusive digital society Part II explores the relationship between citizens and their political and democratic institutions from government service delivery to academic and citizen engagement in policy making Part III addresses key legal frameworks that need to be discussed and redesigned to allow for the building and strengthening of an inclusive society and democratic institutions This is a foundational resource for policy makers students and researchers interested in understanding citizenship in a digital context in Canada Published in English Asper Nation Marc Edge, 2007 The second generation of Aspers that now runs Canada s largest news media company is much like the first Israel Izzy Asper s three children often appear in today s headlines David is bidding to buy the Winnipeg Blue Bombers football team Gail heads fundraising efforts for the new Canadian Museum of Human Rights Leonard sits in his father s place as head of CanWest Global Communications Like its founder they also use their media empire to influence public opinion Asper Nation explains why Canadians should be concerned about where the country s first family of news media is coming from politically Izzy Asper was an oddity as a Liberal politician in the 1970s Fiscally he was to the right of most Conservatives As a nationally syndicated newspaper columnist he called for a flat tax and workfare As a best selling author he helped thwart a plan to shift Canada s tax burden from the middle class onto corporations But when Asper took his policies to Manitobans as Liberal leader in 1973 he was soundly defeated Asper got into the television business instead and built Canada s third network Asper made CanWest the country s most profitable broadcaster by feasting on regulations that encouraged the importation of cheap American programming He took his formula to the world in the 1990s buying television networks in New Zealand Australia and Ireland Then in 2000 Asper pioneered media convergence buying Canada s largest newspaper chain from Conrad Black Southam dailies were soon ordered to run national editorials written at CanWest Global headquarters in Winnipeg This corporate news control brought protest from journalists and two government inquiries

Neither resulted in long sought limits on media ownership however Marc Edge offers a compelling account of the political perils involved in allowing the Asper family to dominate Canadian media Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 America, History and Life, 2003 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide
