Pacificasian Capital Markets And Regional Financial Cooperation:

The Pacific-Asian Capital Markets and Regional Financial Co-operation William Guttman,1989      The Bond Markets Of Developing East Asia Robert F Emery,2018-02-23 This comprehensive book provides detailed descriptions and analysis of the bond markets in eight East Asian developing economies Hong Kong Indonesia South Korea Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Taiwan and Thailand Drawing on the most recent data available Emery assesses the strengths and weaknesses of each countrys bond market concluding with comparisons of the eight countries bond markets The book will be an invaluable reference for economists policymakers and all those interested in emerging capital markets Drawing on the most recent data available this comprehensive book provides detailed descriptions and analysis of the bond markets in eight East Asian developing economies Hong Kong Indonesia South Korea Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Taiwan and Thailand Robert Emery devotes a full chapter to evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of each countrys bond market For each country Emery describes the history of the bond market and identifies its key participants the different types of bonds and the current terms for bond issues He also discusses the size of the bond market the bond issuing process trading procedures and the structure of the market the clearing and settlement system and fees and taxes Finally he lists the regulators of the market current regulations and bond rating agencies assesses the markets past performance and offers suggestions for improvement Each country chapter is organized into a standard format making it easy for the reader to locate and compare specific information Emery concludes the book with cross country comparisons of the eight countries bond markets It will be an invaluable reference for economists policymakers and all those interested in emerging capital markets      Financing for Industrial Development in Asia and the Pacific United Nations Industrial Development Organization. Regional and Country Studies Branch,1991      Financial Reporting in the Pacific Asia Region Ronald Ma,1997 There is a dearth of good books on accounting in China East Asia and Southeast Asia This book makes a valuable contribution towards filling the gap In particular the authors focus on the extent of the harmonisation of domestic standards with international accounting standards and on the development of the accounting profession The final chapter in Part III deals with the problems and prospects for accounting harmonisation in the region      Estudios de economía ,      The Elgar Companion to the Asian Development Bank M. G. Quibria,Albab Akanda,2024-02-12 Providing an authoritative yet accessible introduction to the Asian Development Bank ADB this comprehensive Companion offers a detailed examination of the ADB s objectives policies development outcomes strengths and weaknesses areas for reform and challenges going forward      Bibliography of Asian Studies ,1995      Asian Economic Integration Report 2018 Asian Development Bank,2018-10-01 This publication is the annual report of the Asian Development Bank ADB on Asia s progress in regional cooperation and integration It covers ADB s 48 regional members and analyzes regional and global economic linkages This year s special chapter Toward Optimal Provision of Regional Public Goods in Asia and the Pacific examines how collective action among countries can help find solutions to growing transnational development challenges It discusses how to best provide regional public goods that transcend the so called collective action problem which occurs when individual interests are too weak on their own to drive cooperation on common issues The chapter suggests that multilateral development banks should act as honest broker in enhancing mutual trust and facilitating regional cooperation for regional public goods Asian Regionalism and Japan Shintaro Hamanaka,2009-12-16 This book explores the essential nature of regionalism by conducting a comprehensive analysis of more than 30 regionalist proposals made by Japan and other Asian countries throughout the post war period Shintaro Hamanaka examines the whole post war period and covers all regionalist proposals since then while most existing studies cover only the development of Asian regionalism in the recent decade A significant number of cases in the proposed book enable the readers to go beyond an understanding of each regionalist project to a deeper understanding of theoretically generalizeable behavior pattern of Japan and other countries The book also comparatively analyzes political financial and trade regionalisms The central aim of the book is to reveal the fact that policies with regard to regionalism have a pattern in this case with a principal though not an exclusive focus on Japan The author demonstrates that the behavior pattern of external policy is extremely consistent in terms of the membership of regionalist organizations and discusses whether this new approach to regionalism holds explanatory power vis vis regionalism outside Asia This book will be of interest to scholars postgraduate students and policy makers in the fields of international relations Asian studies international trade and regionalism Current Bibliographical Information Dag Hammarskjöld Library,1990 Making Money Work Asian Development Bank,2015-07-01 The new sustainable development agenda is expected to touch every country person and activity Therefore shouldn't every dollar count toward achieving it Asia and the Pacific home to more than half of humanity has the money to improve the lives of all its people and protect the planet in fair and durable ways However funds are in many hands invested elsewhere or used for various purposes It is time to move beyond this fragmentation and align finance behind sustainable development recognizing that while capital will be key so will the capacity to apply and attract it effectively This report explores some of the ways forward It highlights not just the need to inject more money into investments that contribute to sustainable development but also the need to attract funds toward them to finance human needs infrastructure and cross border public goods The report spans public and private options in their distinct roles and in combination An eight point agenda suggests how key constituents can do their parts Working together they can make money work for development where benefits are not only more equitably shared but will last for generations to come Asian Economic Integration Report 2021 Asian Development Bank,2021-02-01 The coronavirus disease COVID 19 pandemic disrupted both supply and demand sides of an interconnected world economy in 2020 Asia and the Pacific was not immune as lockdowns and travel and trade restrictions affected nearly all aspects of cross border economic activity This publication examines the initial impact on trade investment finance and people's mobility across the region as the pandemic struck It looks at how regional economies individually or collectively respond to the crisis by for example leveraging rapid technological progress and digitalization as well as increasing services trade to reconnect and recover The theme chapter focuses on digital platforms and how they can accelerate digital transformation across the region Asian Bibliography,1991 Facing Asia - Japan's Role in the Political and Economic Dynamism of Regional Cooperation Blechinger, Verena,Legewie, Jochen ,2000-05-04 Facing Asia examines the political and economic processes of regionalism and regionalization in Asia with a focus on Japan and Japanese actors The articles by eminent scholars address the forces that tie the region together They treat topics ranging from Japanese bilateral and multilateral ODA and the activities of state and non state actors on the regional level to issues such as Japanese multinational corporations foreign direct investment in Asia and regional financial institutions Methodologically the authors draw on disciplinary strengths in either the social sciences or economics while organizing their treatment around a shared political economic perspective By looking at Asia through an interdisciplinary lens the volume offers something to anyone interested in Japanese involvement in the politics and economics of the region In the final chapter the editors weave together the different approaches to Japan s place in Asian regional cooperation in the 1990s and beyond The Dynamics of Global Cooperation and Competition ,1994 Asian Economic Integration Report 2023 Asian Development Bank,2023-03-01 This report shows how smart trade and investment policies and regulatory cooperation in the Asia and Pacific region can help economies tackle climate change recover from the pandemic and support resilient and sustainable development Analyzing topics including global value chains investment the movement of people and regional cooperation initiatives it outlines the economic and environmental challenges the region currently faces It explores how trade and investment policies can support climate action and highlights why a joined up approach is essential to help deepen the digital economy strengthen supply chains and foster greener businesses markets and trade International Books in Print ,1997 Research in Accounting Regulation Gary Previts,Tom Robinson,2007-03-21 The scope of service provided by professional accountants is influenced by legislation and case law as well as the dictates of a variety of government and private sector agencies including State Boards of Accountancy Academic Accreditation Bodies the United States Securities and Exchange Commission the Public Accounting Oversight Board independent standard setting bodies such as the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board US the Financial Accounting Standards Board US and the International Accounting Standards Board These entities and self regulatory organizations such as U S State Societies of CPAs and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and equivalent and emerging national bodies that exist in most developed and developing countries are among the emerging entities which attempt to coordinate the activities of professional accountants among sovereign nations It is important for academics students practitioners regulators and researchers to consider and study the role and relationship of such bodies with the practice and content of our discipline Main feature examines developments in accounting regulation Papers provide an international
