Packaging Law Europe Ashgate Studies In Environmental Policy And Practice:

New Environmental Policy Instruments in the European Union Ian Bailey, 2017-07-05 The use of legislation by EU governments to define environmental standards for industry has been criticised for its poor track record in arresting the decline in the quality of Europe's environment Environmental economists in particular have proposed that legislation should be supplemented or replaced by New Environmental Policy Instruments NEPIs such as eco taxes environmental charges tradable permits and voluntary agreements This book focuses on practical experiences with NEPIs in the EU and tests their application using the case study of the Packaging and Packaging Waste Directive It traces the ways in which member states have adapted NEPIs to suit their preferred styles of environmental policy then assesses their performance and how NEPIs have both assisted and hindered the EU environmental programme It suggests options for ensuring that the environmental programme does not become fragmented by the use of NEPIs and discusses the implications of EU enlargement

Packaging Law Europe Bailey Patricia M., 2019-01-04 First published in 1999 this volume responds to the 1991 enactment by the German government of its Packaging Ordinance which led to new or revised packaging legislation throughout the European Union Problems caused by this divergent legislation led to the enactment of the Directive on Packaging and Packaging Waste in late 1994 Unfortunately the imprecision of the Directive necessary to ensure its enactment has led to further disputes At the heart of these disputes is the classic struggle between the priorities of environmental protection and economic development This book analyses the implementation of the Directive by Member States and in particular issues such as the imposition of quotas on reusable containers the use of economic instruments and environmental agreements and competition issues and state aids The book enlightens readers to the current debates regarding packaging legislation which continue today despite the enactment of EU legislation

New Environmental Policy Instruments in the European Union Ian Bailey, 2003 The use of legislation by EU governments to define environmental standards for industry has been criticised for its poor track record in arresting the decline in the quality of Europe's environment Environmental economists in particular have proposed that legislation should be supplemented or replaced by New Environmental Policy Instruments NEPIs such as eco taxes environmental charges tradable permits and voluntary agreements This book focuses on practical experiences with NEPIs in the EU and tests their application using the case study of the Packaging and Packaging Waste Directive It traces the ways in which member states have adapted NEPIs to suit their preferred styles of environmental policy then assesses their performance and how NEPIs have both assisted and hindered the EU environmental programme It suggests options for ensuring that the environmental programme does not become fragmented by the use of NEPIs and discusses the implications of EU enlargement
