Padju Epat Alfred B. Hudson, 1983 Unveiling Indonesia Library of Congress, 1996 Books in Series in the United States R.R. Bowker Company, Dept. of Bibliography Staff, 1978 Books in Series , 1979 Padju Epat Alfred B. Hudson, 1992 Books Out-of-print , 1980 Books in Print , 1977 Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-19 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region

From Rebellion to Riots Jamie Seth Davidson, 2008 From Rebellion to Riots is a critical analysis of the roots of contemporary violence in one of Indonesia's most ethnically heterogeneous provinces West Kalimantan Since the late 1960s this province has suffered periodic outbreaks of ethnic violence among its Dayak Malay Madurese and ethnic Chinese populations Citing evidence from his research internal military documents and ethnographic accounts Jamie S Davidson refutes popular explanations for these flare ups The recurrent violence has less to do with a clash of cultures the ills of New Order led development or indigenous marginalization than with the ongoing politicization of ethnic and indigenous identity in the region Looking at key historical moments markedly different in their particulars Davidson reveals the important links between ethnic violence and subnational politics In one case army officers in Soeharto's recently established New Order regime encouraged anti Chinese sentiments To move against communist inspired rebellion they recruited indigenous Dayaks to expunge tens of thousands of ethnic Chinese from interior towns and villages This counter insurgent bloodshed inadvertently initiated a series of clashes between Dayaks and Madurese another migrant community Driven by an indigenous empowerment movement and efforts by local elites to control benefits provided by decentralization and democratization these low intensity riots rose to immense proportions in the late 1990s From Rebellion to Riots demonstrates that the endemic violence in this vast region is not the inevitable outcome of its ethnic diversity and reveals that the initial impetus for collective bloodshed is not necessarily the same as the forces that sustain it A comprehensive case study Essential reading for students of the West Kalimantan violence Dave McRae Indonesia Padju Epat Alfred B.
