

Chapter 1

He contemplated stealing it. But, given the punishment of theft in these parts, he needed a better look. To make sure it'd be worth it, at least.

Roian knelt slowly, turning to the side in search of someone draped in dust-colored linens—the Robes. The nearest was down the riverbank towering over a young girl of maybe twelve years, the words too far to hear, but the bent hook of the shaking girl's body said enough.

He looked out over the rush of brown river first, then down at his own hands where the day's digging in the rough sands had carved new scrapes over old scars. A wooden board beneath a new day's butchering knife.

She'd be okay. Eventually, the skin would heal over, and over. Smooth scars would replace the spiraled texture of each finger. Soon, she just wouldn't feel them anymore.

Another Robe stood farther down the bank to Roian's other side, the Désjwan Halls over the river standing tall behind her, polished stone glowing in the midday suns.
