Painting In Italy 1500 To 16:

Painting in Italy, 1500-1600 Sydney Joseph Freedberg, 1993-01-01 Art declared Vasari in Lives of the Artists has been reborn and reached perfection in our time Indeed the roster of great names in painting of the Cinquecento which only begins with those of Leonardo Michelangelo and Raphael appears to justify this grand claim Professor Freedberg here discusses the individual painters and analyses the hallmarks of their work He traces the classical style of the High Renaissance the Mannerism that succeeded it and the events in North Italy especially that resist stylistic categories He has given order to this diversity but at the same time has preserved the intense individuality of the works of art "A" New History of Painting in Italy from the Second to the Sixteenth Century Joseph A. Crowe, G. B. Cavalcaselle, 1864 Flemish Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Walter A. Liedtke, 1984 Two volumes including works by the three foremost seventeenth century Flemish artists u2014 Rubens Van Dyck and Jordaens u2014 as well as works by their contemporaries Metropolitan Museum of Art website Games and Game Playing in European Art and Literature, 16th-17th Centuries Robin O'Bryan, 2025-10-01 This collection of essays examines the vogue for games and game playing as expressed in art and literature in sixteenth and seventeenth century Europe Focusing on games as a leitmotif of creative expression these scholarly inquiries are framed as a response to two main questions how were games used to convey special meanings in art and literature and how did games speak to greater issues in European society In chapters dealing with chess playing cards board games dice gambling and outdoor and sportive games essayists show how games were used by artists writers game makers and collectors in the service of love and war didactic and moralistic instruction commercial enterprise politics and diplomacy and assertions of civic and personal identity Offering innovative iconographical and literary interpretations their analyses reveal how games played written about illustrated and collected functioned as metaphors for a host of broader cultural issues related to gender relations and feminine power class distinctions and status ethical and sexual comportment philosophical and religious ideas and conditions of the mind Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1980 Painting with Demons Michael Fried, 2020-10-15 The achievements of Italian Renaissance painter Giovanni Gerolamo Savoldo were even during a period of unprecedented artistry out of the ordinary Born in Brescia around 1480 he radically reimagined Christian subjects His surviving oeuvre of roughly fifty paintings from the intensely poetic Tobias and the Angel to sober self portraits represents some of the most profound work of the period In Painting with Demons a beautifully illustrated book and the first in English devoted to the painter Michael Fried brings his celebrated skills of looking and thinking to bear on Savoldo's art providing a stunning contribution to our understanding both of the early modern European imagination and of the achievement of this underappreciated artist Bernardino Poccetti and the Art of Religious Painting at the End of the Florentine Renaissance Douglas Dow, 2025-10-01 By almost any measure Bernardino Barbatelli called Poccetti was a successful and sought after painter in late sixteenth century Florence but his works have remained largely overlooked This study situates representative examples of his religious painting within their respective contexts to demonstrate how Poccetti and his patrons negotiated the increasingly fraught terrain of sacred painting in the period of religious reform These case studies demonstrate how patrons ranging from the Dominicans to the Carthusians to prominent Florentine patricians relied on Poccetti's skill in creating compelling narratives that reflected current concerns within the Catholic world In the process Poccetti invoked an august Florentine tradition of fresco painting shaping it to better address the demands placed on religious imagery at the end of the Renaissance The Schools of Painting in Italy Franz Kugler, 1855 Chambers' Encyclopædia , 1893 Siting

Federico Barocci and the Renaissance Aesthetic Peter Gillgren, 2017-07-05 Focusing on what he calls the performative gaze the author explores the artistic world of the Urbino painter Federico Barocci 1535-1612 in the context of Renaissance culture Through analysis of Barocci's works Gillgren also sheds new light on Renaissance aesthetic communication generally The first part of the book discusses the poetics of Early Modern painting based on contemporary theories of Reception Aesthetics hermeneutics and phenomenology but grounded in Renaissance culture itself through numerous examples from Early Modern painting The author discusses works by such artists as Botticelli Raphael Titian Velázquez and Poussin from the point of view of their spectator status The second part deals specifically with the art of Federico Barocci showing in detail how his works relate to aspects of the gaze and to their intended spectators Gillgren's method is unusual in that he takes care to set the images within their original physical contexts lighting space framing materials angle of viewer approach as much as possible through careful analysis of early descriptions of now destroyed or modified chapels The third section of the volume contains a brief catalogue of Barocci's paintings presented in a chronological order with a full bibliography and with details about the painting's original locations
