The Cult of St Clare of Assisi in Early Modern Italy Nirit Ben-Aryeh Debby, 2017-07-05 Notwithstanding the wealth of material published about St Clare of Assisi 1193 1253 in the context of medieval scholarship and the wealth of visual material regarding her there is a dearth of published scholarship concerning her cult in the early modern period This work examines the representations of St Clare in the Italian visual tradition from the thirteenth century on but especially between the fifteenth and the mid seventeenth centuries in the context of mendicant activity Through an examination of such diverse visual images as prints drawings panels sculptures minor arts and frescoes in relation to sermons of Franciscan preachers starting in the thirteenth century but focusing primarily on the later tradition of early modernity the book highlights the cult of women saints and its role in the reform movements of the Osservanza and the Catholic Reformation and in the face of Muslim Christian encounter of the early modern era Debby's analyses of the preaching of the times and iconographic examination of neglected artistic sources makes the book a significant contribution to research in art history sermon studies gender studies and theology

Sienese Renaissance Tomb Monuments Robert Munman, 1993 The first scholarly study to treat the sepulchral memorials of Quattrocento Siena in a comprehensive way These works include contributions by such noted sculptors as Jacopo della Quercia Il Vecchietta Neroccio de Landi Giovanni di Stefano and Urbano da Cortona as well as a number of monuments by followers of Donatello Some of these works most notably Quercia's tomb for Ilaria del Carretto occupy well recognized places in the history of Italian sculpture But others many of significant artistic importance are presented here for the first time Includes a thorough catalogue of all traceable figured memorials from Renaissance Siena and its artistic dependencies Illustrations

Sienese Painting (Second) (World of Art) Timothy Hyman, 2023-04-25 An essential visual overview for students and readers with an interest in Sienese art history and Renaissance culture For two centuries the city republic of Siena was home to a brilliant succession of painters who produced some of the greatest masterpieces of all time This overview by Timothy Hyman is an essential introduction to this extraordinary artistic tradition Taking a broadly chronological approach it moves from the fourteenth century Siena of Duccio Simone Martini and the

Lorenzetti brothers to the fifteenth century city of Sassetta and Giovanni di Paolo Hyman combines perceptive visual analysis of the distinctive styles and conventions of Sienese painting with clear explanations of traditional techniques such as fresco and tempera The works are also placed in their social and religious context through discussion of Siena's system of government its civic consciousness the importance of the Franciscan movement and the cults of local saints An accomplished writer curator and practicing artist Hyman brings his breadth of knowledge experience and personal enthusiasm to this brilliant extensively illustrated and newly revised overview of Sienese art The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture

Illuminating the Vitae patrum Denza Gallant, 2024-04-30 During the fourteenth century in Western Europe there was a growing interest in imitating the practices of a group of hermits known as the Desert Fathers and Mothers Laypeople and religious alike learned about their rituals not only through readings from the Vitae patrum Lives of the Desert Fathers and sermons but also through the images that brought their stories to life In this volume Denza Gallant examines the Morgan Library's richly illustrated manuscript of the Vitae patrum MS M 626 whose extraordinary artworks witness the rise of the eremitic ideal and its impact on the visual culture of late medieval Italy Drawing upon scholarship on the history of psychology eastern monasticism gender and hagiography Gallant deepens our understanding of the centrality of the Desert Fathers and Mothers to late medieval piety She provides important insights into the role of images in making the practices of the desert saints both compelling and accessible to fourteenth century city dwellers who were just beginning to cultivate the habit of private devotion on a wide scale By focusing on the most extensively illuminated manuscript of the Vitae patrum to emerge during the trecento this book sheds new light on the ways in which images communicated and reinforced modes of piety It will be of interest to art historians religious historians and students focusing on this period in Italian history

Publications of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005 Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2012-10-09 The present volume Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1964 2005 is a successor to a volume published by the Museum in 1965 entitled Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1870 1964 These two bibliographic volumes endeavor to list all the known books pamphlets and serial publications bearing the Museum's imprint and issued by the institution during the first 135 years of its existence through June 2005 The first volume was compiled by Albert Ten Eyck Gardner at the time an Associate Curator of American Paintings and Sculpture and the present volume has been compiled from the Annual Reports issued by the Museum during the relevant years Together the two volumes testify to the tremendous contributions made to knowledge by the curators and conservators of the Metropolitan and by the many other experts who have contributed to the Museum's exhibition catalogues. Various issues of the Bulletin emphasize the great sweep of the Museum's acquisitions during these years and the exhibition catalogues a number of them. Alfred H. Barr Jr. Award or the George Wittenborn Award testify to the continuity of the institution's dedicated program to enrich people's lives through knowledge of art. This title was originally published in 2006.

The Oxford History of Christian Worship Geoffrey Wainwright, 2006. The Oxford History of Christian Worship is a comprehensive and authoritative history lavishly illustrated of the origins and development of Christian worship up to the present day. Following contemporary methods in scholarship it attends to social and cultural contexts and examines the worship traditions from both Eastern and Western Christianity ancient and modern. It offers a chronological account while encompassing spatial and confessional variations from Baptists in Britain to Roman Catholics in Mexico from Orthodox in Ethiopia to Pentecostals in the United States from Lutheran and Reformed in Europe to united churches in India and Australia. The material details of Christian worship such as music architecture and the visual arts are considered within specific cultural contexts throughout the volume as well as studied thematically in individual chapters.

BOOK JACKET The Art of Renaissance Europe Bosiljka Raditsa, 2000. Works in the Museum's collection that embody the Renaissance interest in classical learning fame and beautiful objects are illustrated and discussed in this resource and will help educators introduce the richness and diversity of Renaissance art to their students. Primary source texts explore the great cities and powerful personalities of the age. By studying gesture and narrative students can work as Renaissance artists did when they created paintings and drawings. Learning about perspective students explore the era's interest in science and mathematics. Through projects based on poetic forms of the time students write about their responses to art. The activities and lesson plans are designed for a variety of classroom needs and can be adapted to a specific curriculum as well as used for independent study. The resource also includes a bibliography and glossary.
