Painting Culture, Painting Nature Gunlög Fur, 2019-05-23 In the late 1920s a group of young Kiowa artists pursuing their education at the University of Oklahoma encountered Swedish born art professor Oscar Brousse Jacobson 1882 1966 With Jacobson s instruction and friendship the Kiowa Six as they are now known ignited a spectacular movement in American Indian art

Jacobson who was himself an accomplished painter shared a lifelong bond with group member Stephen Mopope 1898 1974 a prolific Kiowa painter dancer and musician Painting Culture Painting Nature explores the joint creativity of these two visionary figures and reveals how indigenous and immigrant communities of the early twentieth century traversed cultural social and racial divides Painting Culture Painting Nature is a story of concurrences For a specific period immigrants such as Jacobson and disenfranchised indigenous people such as Mopope transformed Oklahoma into the center of exciting new developments in Indian art which quickly spread to other parts of the United States and to Europe Jacobson and Mopope came from radically different worlds and were on unequal footing in terms of power and equality but they both experienced according to author Gunl g Fur forms of diaspora or displacement Seeking to root themselves anew in Oklahoma the dispossessed artists fashioned new mediums of compelling and original art Although their goals were compatible Jacobson s and Mopope s subjects and styles diverged Jacobson painted landscapes of the West following a tradition of painting nature uninfluenced by human activity Mopope in contrast strove to capture the cultural traditions of his people The two artists shared a common nostalgia however for a past life that they could only re create through their art Whereas other books have emphasized the promotion of Indian art by Euro Americans this book is the first to focus on the agency of the Kiowa artists within the context of their collaboration with Jacobson The volume is further enhanced by full color reproductions of the artists works and rare historical photographs
