Painting The Shadows Extraordinary Life Of Victor Hoo:

Painting the Shadows Mona Yung-Ning Hoo, 1998 Building States Eva-Maria Muschik, 2022-04-13 Postwar multilateral cooperation is often viewed as an attempt to overcome the limitations of the nation state system However in 1945 when the United Nations was founded large parts of the world were still under imperial control Building States investigates how the UN tried to manage the dissolution of European empires in the 1950s and 1960s and helped transform the practice of international development and the meaning of state sovereignty in the process Eva Maria Muschik argues that the UN played a key role in the global proliferation and reinvention of the nation state in the postwar era as newly independent states came to rely on international assistance Drawing on previously untapped primary sources she traces how UN personnel usually in close consultation with Western officials sought to manage decolonization peacefully through international development assistance Examining initiatives in Libya Somaliland Bolivia the Congo and New York Muschik shows how the UN pioneered a new understanding and practice of state building presented as a technical challenge for international experts rather than a political process UN officials increasingly took on public policy functions despite the organization's mandate not to interfere in the domestic affairs of its member states These initiatives Muschik suggests had lasting effects on international development practice peacekeeping and post conflict territorial administration Casting new light on how international organizations became major players in the governance of developing countries Building States has significant implications for the histories of decolonization the Cold War and international development The United Nations Trusteeship System Jan Lüdert, Maria Ketzmerick, Julius Heise, 2022-11-10 This book considers the past and present legacies continuities and change of the United Nations Trusteeship System by assessing consequences and legacies of decolonization in contemporary society international organizations and international politics International contributors address the UN Trusteeship System as a venue for multiple state and non state actors and its effect on the international system Rather than viewing UN trusteeship as a bygone phenomenon the volume underscores its current relevance particularly in view of the recent resurgence of trusteeship models such as in Kosovo and East Timor Offering a novel and robust yet simple and intuitive analytical framework through which to understand a broad range of cases related to the Trusteeship System and its impact on the international system the book places emphasis on the agency of states in the Global South and highlights the importance of multiple actors in global governance It will be of interest to scholars of international relations theory and history in a variety of fields ranging from African Politics to Intergovernmental Organizations and Comparative Politics The Last Empress Hannah Pakula, 2009-11-03 With the beautiful powerful and sexy Madame Chiang Kai shek at the center of one of the great dramas of the twentieth century this is the story of the founding of modern China starting with a revolution that swept away more than 2 000 years of monarchy followed by World War II and ending in the eventual loss to the Communists and exile in Taiwan An epic historical tapestry this wonderfully wrought narrative brings to life what Americans should know about China the superpower we are inextricably linked with the way its people think and their code of behavior both vastly different from our own The story revolves around this fascinating woman and her family her father a peasant who raised himself into Shanghai society and sent his daughters to college in America in a day when Chinese women were kept purposefully uneducated her mother an unlikely Methodist from the Mandarin class her husband a military leader and dogmatic warlord her sisters one married to Sun Yat sen the George Washington of China the other to a seventy fifth lineal descendant of Confucius and her older brother a financial genius This was the Soong family which along with their partners in marriage was largely responsible for dragging China into the twentieth century Brilliantly narrated this fierce and bloody drama also includes U S Army General Joseph Stilwell Claire Chennault head of the Flying Tigers Communist leaders Mao Tse tung and Chou En lai murderous warlords journalists Henry Luce Theodore White and Edgar Snow and the unfortunate State Department officials who would be purged for predicting correctly the Communist victory in the Chinese Civil War As the representative of an Eastern ally in the West Madame Chiang was befriended before being rejected by the Roosevelts stayed in the White House for long periods during World War II and charmed the U S Congress into giving China billions of dollars Although she was dubbed the Dragon Lady in some quarters she was an icon to her people and is certainly one of the most remarkable women of the twentieth century

Phasing Out the Colonial Status of Greenland, 1945-54 Jens Elo Rytter,2010 With the Constitution of 1953 the colonial status of Greenland came to an end and Greenlanders were granted equal rights as citizens within the Danish realm In 1954 this new arrangement was supported by the UN General Assembly The decision to change Greenland s status was conditioned both by internal and external circumstances In the UN context Danes increasingly felt the strain of being a colonial power and they feared the possibility of future UN interference in Greenlandic affairs

Legalising the Drug Wars John Collins,2021-12-02 Provides the first regulatory history of UN drug control and examines its enabling role in the modern war on drugs

Chiang Kaishek's Last Ambassador to Moscow Yee Wah Foo,2010-11-30 This fascinating study examines wartime Chinese Soviet relations from a Moscow based Chinese perspective at the ambassadorial level The book includes descriptions of everyday life in Moscow of embassy business of contemporary events and diplomacy of intelligence operations of meetings with Stalin and of communications to and from Chongqing

The League of Nations and the East Asian Imperial Order, 1920-1946 Harumi Goto-Shibata,2020-07-02 Well grounded on abundant Japanese language sources which have been underused this book uncovers the League of Nations works in East Asia in the inter war period By researching the field of social and other technical issues namely the trade in narcotics the trafficking of women and the work in terms of improving health provision and providing economic advice to Nationalist China it not only examines their long term impacts on the international relations in the region but also argues that the League s works challenged the existing imperial order of East and Southeast Asia The book offers a key read for academics and students of international history and international relations and others studying Japan or East Asia in the twentieth century Sisters of Heaven Patti Gully, 2008 In the late 1930s as the world moved closer to war three vivacious Chinese women defied gender perceptions by becoming pilots Driven by a fierce independent spirit they realized their dream of flying completed barnstorming goodwill missions across the Western Hemisphere and captured the imagination of all those whose lives they touched They were Hilda Yan once China's representative at the League of Nations Li Xiaqing known as film actress Li Dandan before becoming China's First Woman of the Air and Jessie Zheng the only commissioned female officer in the Chinese Air Force In a story almost forgotten to history Patti Gully's exhaustive research delves into the personal lives of these women uncovering their fascinating personalities loves passions and above all their overwhelming sense of patriotism and duty In a time when no Chinese woman could even drive a car these aviatrixes used flight as a metaphor for their own freedom as well as a symbol of empowerment Gully shows how despite their success their relationships with men were checkered and stormy leaving behind the wreckage of broken marriages and the children they abandoned the price they ultimately paid to realize their dream of flying With an uncanny eye for detail and technical accuracy Sisters of Heaven offers a rare look at a lost era in aviation history gender studies and the history of China and the West Patti Gully is a graduate of the University of Winnipeg She holds a BA in arts with an emphasis on English religious studies and classics She also holds an MLIS from the University of British Columbia She is an amateur pilot and aviation history scholar and lives in Vancouver Chinese American Forum , 2002
