The Forger's Creed J. P. Park, 2025 The first in depth look at the history and legacies of forgeries in Chinese art In 1634 scholar official Zhang Taijie b ca 1588 published a book titled A Record of Treasured Paintings C Baohui lu presenting an extensive catalogue of a purportedly vast painting collection he claimed to have built However the entire book is Zhang's meticulously crafted forgery he even forged paintings to match the documentation and profited from trading them Furthermore the book intriguingly mirrors unfounded art historical claims of its time Prominent figures like Dong Qichang 1555-1636 made entirely fabricated arguments to assert legitimate lineages in Chinese art designed to create a fictionalized history shaped by preferred beliefs rather than reality While presenting the first comprehensive exploration of various forgery practices in early modern China fabricated texts forged paintings and fictitious art history The Forger's Creed examines the cultural social and genealogical desires anxieties and tensions prevalent in early modern China Through thorough scrutiny of the historical irregularities introduced by these forgeries J P Park highlights a peculiar and paradoxical phenomenon wherein forgeries transform into legitimate materials across Chinese history

Painters and Politics in the People's Republic of China, 1949-1979 Julia Frances Andrews, Andrews, Julia Frances Andrews, Center for Chinese Studies (Ann Arbor, Mich.), 1994-01-01 That Julia Andrews has reached sources that are so sensitive and difficult with such success is remarkable The book is unquestionably a brilliant job well written understandable and of enormous scholarly value Joan Lebold Cohen author of The New Chinese Painting

Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture Xiaofei Tian, 2011-07-01 Winner of a 2006 Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Title Award As medieval Chinese manuscripts were copied and recopied through the centuries both mistakes and deliberate editorial changes were introduced thereby affecting readers' impressions of the author's intent In Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture Xiaofei Tian shows how readers not only experience authors but produce them by shaping texts to their interpretation Tian examines the mechanics and history of textual transmission in China by focusing on the evolution over the centuries of the reclusive poet Tao Yuanming into a figure of epic stature Considered emblematic of the national character Tao Yuanming also known as Tao Qian 365 427 c e is admired for having turned his back on active government service and city life to live a simple rural life of voluntary poverty The artlessness of his poetic style is held as the highest literary and moral ideal and literary critics have taken great pains to demonstrate perfect consistency between Tao Yuanming s life and poetry Earlier work on Tao Yuanming has tended to accept this image interpreting the poems to confirm the image Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture is a study of how this cultural icon was produced and of the elusive traces of another historical Tao Yuanming behind the icon By comparing four early biographies of the poet Tian shows how these are in large measure constructed out of Tao Yuanming s self image as projected in his poetry and prose Drawing on work in European medieval literature she demonstrates the fluidity of the Chinese medieval textual world and how its materials were historically reconfigured for later purposes Tian finds in Tao s poetic corpus not one essentialized Tao Yuanming but multiple texts continuously produced long after the author s physical demise Her provocative look at the influence of manuscript culture on literary perceptions transcends its immediate subject and has special resonance today when the transition from print to electronic media is shaking the literary world in a way not unlike the transition from handwritten to print media in medieval China 王宇 2005 Yushu Wang, 2005

The Painter from Shanghai: A Novel Jennifer Cody Epstein, 2008-03-17 Reminiscent of Memoirs of a Geisha a reimagining of the life of Pan Yuliang and her transformation from prostitute to post Impressionist Down the muddy waters of the Yangtze River and into the seedy backrooms of The Hall of Eternal Splendor through the raucous glamour of prewar Shanghai and the bohemian splendor of 1920s Paris and back to a China ripped apart by civil war and teetering on the brink of revolution this novel tells the story of Pan Yuliang one of the most talented and provocative Chinese artists of the twentieth century Jennifer Cody Epstein s epic brings to life the woman behind the lush Cezannesque nude self portraits capturing with lavish detail her life in the brothel and then as a concubine to a Republican official who would ultimately help her find her way as an artist Moving with the tide of historical events The Painter from Shanghai celebrates a singularly daring painting style one that led to fame notoriety and ultimately a devastating choice between Pan s art and the one great love of her life

Xu Bing and Contemporary Chinese Art Hsingyuan Tsao, Roger T. Ames, 2011-09-01 How Chinese is contemporary Chinese art Treasured by collectors critics and art world cognoscenti this art developed within an avant garde that looked West to find a language to strike out against government control Traditionally Chinese artistic expression has been related to the structure and function of the Chinese language and the assumptions of Chinese natural cosmology Is contemporary Chinese art rooted in these traditions or is it an example of cultural self colonization Contributors to this volume address this question going beyond the more obvious political and social commentaries on contemporary Chinese art to find resonances between contemporary artistic ideas and the indigenous sources of Chinese cultural self understanding Focusing in particular on the acclaimed artist Xu Bing this book looks at how he and his peers have navigated between two different cultural sites to establish a third place a place from which to appropriate Western ideas and use them to address centuries old Chinese cultural issues within a Chinese cultural discourse The Painting Master's Shame Amy McNair, 2024-09-09 Overturning the long held assumption that the Xuanhe Catalogue of Paintings was the work of the Northern Song emperor Huizong r 1100 1126 Amy McNair argues that it was compiled instead under the direction of Liang Shicheng Liang a high ranking eunuch official who sought to raise his social status from that of despised menial to educated elite had privileged access to the emperor and palace McNair s study based on her translation and extensive analysis of the text of the Xuanhe Catalogue of Paintings offers a definitive argument for the authorship of this major landmark in Chinese painting criticism and clarifies why and how it was compiled The Painting Master's Shame describes the remarkable circumstances of the period around 1120 when the catalogue was written The political struggles over the New Policies the promotion of the scholar amateur ideal in painting criticism and practice and the rise of eunuch court officials as a powerful class converged to allow those officials the unprecedented opportunity to enhance their prestige through scholarly activities and politics McNair analyzes the catalogue s central polemical narrative the humiliation of the high ranking minister mistakenly called by the lowly title Painting Master as the key to understanding Liang Shicheng s methods and motives
