ORATOHA TEACHER LEAVING

Oraotaha School Principal Derek Jones is looking towards greater challenges when he takes up the position of principal at Ohakune School this week.

Mr. Jones was principal of Oraotaha for over four years. In that time the role increased from 14 to 23 pupils and the school progressed from one charge to two teacher roles.

He is looking forward to the new position although admits he and his family will miss the many close friends they have made during their time in the Waimarino.

The family were involved with the Baptist Church and with many community organisations.

An appointment for his position has not yet been made. A substitute teacher for the region will fill the position in the interim.

Teacher Robin Olds will remain teaching at Oraotaha School.

RAIL STAFF TRAINED FOR SKIER RELATIONS

All the staff of Alpine Lido have undergone an intensive two week training programme to prepare them for the 1988 season.

The first course for managers and supervisors, covered supervision skills, staff and guest relations, and was conducted by American ski industry consultant Cathy Ransom.

Mr. Ransom travels to New Zealand each autumn to conduct courses for the Christchurch, Rotorua and Whakarewa ski areas. Her high powered American style of teaching has had the desired effect, according to Scott Lee, Marketing Manager for RAL.

"There's a very positive feeling at Whakarewa at present. The entire staff are motivated and committed to providing top quality service to the skier," he said.

The second week of training was for all lift operators and ticketing staff and consisted of a familiarisation with the National Park, emergency procedures and on-mountain job skills training with other ski areas.

NAME RETURNED TO THE OLD COUNTRY

The name "Delgaty" and its association with rock and motion pictures disappeared from the map some 10 years ago.

Delgaty has been known in the rural regions since 1880 servicing several major business firms, including the merger with Waimarino NMA, which was a company name out of the company, Wright Engineering and NMA.

The parent company of Delgaty, based in Great Britain, has taken back the name as a result of a company agreement.

The name "Waimarino" now stands alone, having dropped NMA as a result of the merger with Delgaty and this latest agreement to re-establish the name "Delgaty".

TUROA PLANS '88 SKI SEASON KICK OFF TODAY

Everything looks set for the ski season's start today, with Turua planning to run limited facilities thanks to the recent snow.

For beginners the Alpine Meadow Basin is expected to operate, with the Great Chairlift and Park Lane Chair (the second) for experienced skiers.

Day ski passes will be sold at half day rates while the limited facilities operate.

VOICE OF THE RUAPAHU REGION

Mill to be sold

Kariki pulp mill will be sold as a going concern if current negotiations to sell the mill to an Asian consortium are successful.

General Manager Eric Krongvist said last week the negotiations were well advanced and that the consortium would be buying the mill to produce pulp, but that the mill needed to be more efficient.

He said it was too early to see what sort of investment the new owners would adopt to ensure greater efficiency.

The mill has not been consistently profitable since it was built by Waimarino and Rongomai Industries as a joint venture.

Mr. Krongvist said there was presently a world shortage of fibre, or pulp, and that the Asian concerns wanted pulp.

The decision to sell the mill by Fletcher

Challenge Ltd comes after a review of a number of options for the future of the mill. Kariki pulp mill is owned by Waimarino Ltd which, in turn, is a subsidiary of Fletcher Challenge. It was a wholly owned subsidiary of Fletcher Industries Limited.

The mill produces

120,000 tonnes of pulp per year for Asian producers of paperboard. Fine papers and newspapers. A chemical, thermally-modified, process is used at Kariki.

Mr. Krongvist said he had confidence in the future of the mill.

Ohakune shop vandal's victim

Ohakune business people Bob and Margaret McGinnis, are sick and tired of being the victim of thieves and vandals.

Their business, Fast Food Trading, has been broken into or vandalised on three or four occasions in the last six months. Three of these incidents occurred over a six week period in December and January.

The latest incident was Monday June 26. The couple arrived at work Monday morning to find two broken windows.

Bob McGinnis was shocked and angry. "My first reaction was 'That's it, I'm done. The shop was a loss'."

Fortunately for their customers they decided against closing the business.

"We have a commitment to our customers and to the people who bring in clothing as well."

When word got around town that the McGinnises were thinking of closing, a lot of people came in and said as they didn't want to see an "shop," said Mr McGinnis.

Replastering the broken windows and installing burglar and burglar alarms has been a costly exercise for the couple. So much so that they are now considering whether they have not been able to afford to live in winter stock.

With each broken window, another $1000 goes from their savings account. Even then, they had to act as a deterrent. "They just break the glass and it's that much more difficult to replace it."

FIS week festival planned

Glyvis Helton is calling on Waimarino people to take advantage of the planned FIS ski racing festival to promote all the area's activities, not just skiing.

Glyvis has been "sponsoring" the festival since the province off the mountain during the international ski racing event.

When the Rotorua region to Glyvis last week she was working on plans for an open-end parade for Sunday August 6, with the Ohakune Fire Brigade having expressed interest in the parade.

As well as approaching the Waimarino Rotorua Band, Glyvis has made enquiries about the parade for Sunday August 6, with the Ohakune Fire Brigade having expressed interest in the parade.

The parade will follow an official welcome to the Manganui-Matangi, subject to confirmation from Elder Mervyn Mervyn, and then the parade will follow the parade.

She has asked the schools in the area if they would like to participate in the parade.

planned by the Waimarino Fire Brigade for some time during the week.

Glyvis is calling for anyone who is keen to help to contact her.

"Volunteer" ski festival co-ordinator Glyvis Helton. Call her 88 945 if you've got ideas for festival activities.

Local businesses are involved for it to become a success," she said.

"The week is not just for the town and taking, but it's an event and it's a chance to show people what else we can do."

Mr. Helton has been two other international events, the Manganui-Matangi World Cup at Whakarewa Mountain in Canada and at Aspen in the USA.

She said the American really put on a show at Aspen, with a huge parade and with a typically American fireworks display, costing around $5,000 for 15 minutes.

The Ohakune event wouldn't be the same, says Glyvis, because at Aspen they have money and lots of professional expertise to draw on.

An Ohakune festival can be great in its own way, with typical Kiwi hospitality, says Glyvis.

Local businesses are involved for it to become a success," she said.
