Confronting Empire Eqbal Ahmad, 2017-02-20 The Pakistani political thinker and activist shares his insight into global emancipatory politics in this interview collection foreword by Edward W Said Edward W Said once urged the legendary Egbal Ahmad not to leave your words scattered to the winds or even recorded on tape but collected and published in several volumes for everyone to read Then those who don't have the privilege of knowing you will know what a truly remarkable gifted man you are Unfortunately Ahmad died suddenly before Said's wish came to fruition But in Confronting Empire Ahmad's most provocative ideas are available to future generations of activists In these intimate and wide ranging conversations Ahmad discusses nationalism ethnic conflict the politics of memory and liberation struggles around the world

Health Outcomes and the Pakistani Population Ikhtlaq Din, 2014-11-19 This book examines dietary habits and physical activity among older people in Mirpur Pakistan through an exploration of changes in diet over time and investigates the cultural enablers and barriers to the participation of older people in physical activity

Pakistan Affairs, 1988

Pakistan's Nuclear Exclusion Sana Rahim, 2024 Developed over six chapters Pakistan's Nuclear Exclusion provides an account of how orientalism is a lived experience of post colonial racism injustice and inequality amongst members of the nuclear community in Pakistan The account is produced through interviews with members of the community consisting of students academics and physicists in Pakistan Rahim offers unique insights into how Pakistan's nuclear community is not only perceived and represented but also how it seeks to operate in a wider nuclear community dominated by Western nuclear powers The provision of such highly contextualised insights is enabled by the book setting out to both provide analytical space for and give voice to how orientalism is experienced in the everyday of their lives Consequently the work provides 1 an analysis of how dominant discourses of nuclear management and their pictures of reason are exclusionary 2 an analysis of the core features of orientalism as they pertain to Pakistan's nuclear community and 3 empirical findings which produce categories of the experience of orientalism into areas of the everyday exclusion making a career Islamophobia technology denial and self reliance Pakistan's Nuclear Exclusion is enormously valuable to the research community as well as extremely well conceived and researched In addition much of the methodology chapter offers a level of sophistication and self reflection that translates well in the interview material and its subsequent analysis Sign Language in Indo-Pakistan Ulrike Zeshan,2000-01-01 To find a suitable framework for the description of a previously undocumented language is all the more challenging in the case of a signed language In this book for the first time an indigenous Asian sign language used in deaf communities in India and Pakistan is described on all linguistically relevant levels This grammatical sketch aims at providing a concise yet comprehensive picture of the language It covers a substantial part of Indopakistani Sign Language grammar Topics discussed range from properties of individual signs to principles of discourse organization Important aspects of morphological structure and syntactic regularities are summarized Finally sign language specific grammatical mechanisms such as spatially realized syntax and the use of facial expressions also figure prominently in this book A 300 word dictionary with graphic representations of signs and a transcribed sample text complement the grammatical description The cross linguistic study of signed languages is only just beginning Descriptive materials such as the ones presented in this book provide the necessary starting point for further empirical and theoretical research in this direction Speaking Like a State Alyssa Ayres,2009-07-23 This text examines language and culture's importance to political legitimacy using the example of Pakistan in comparison with India and Indonesia English Language Teaching in Pakistan Naziha Ali Raza,Christine Coombe,2022-02-05 This book presents empirical research on teaching learning and assessment and teacher development practices in Pakistan Despite extensive academic research conducted in Pakistan over the last decade there is a dearth of internationally published literature on English language teaching in the country This book covers current research priorities and initiatives concerning English language teaching learning and assessment empirical developments and major professional development initiatives both in Pakistan and involving the work of Pakistani scholars based in abroad It highlights the impacts that development efforts are having in the ELT world in Pakistan The respective chapters cover a diverse range of topics including continuous professional development CPD identity construction English language policy curriculum development and innovative ELT approaches and methodologies used in Pakistan This volume provides valuable insights for TESOL and applied linguistics scholars and practitioners working in the field of ELT both in Pakistan and elsewhere in the globalized world Domestic Violence in Pakistan Daanika Kamal,2025-05-22 Pakistani women are increasingly pursuing legal avenues against acts of domestic violence Their claims however are often dismissed through character allegations that label them as bad women in need of control or mad women not to be trusted Domestic Violence in Pakistan explores why the subjectivities of women victims are constructed in particular ways and how these subjectivities are captured and negotiated in the Pakistani legal system Drawing on feminist poststructuralist accounts relating to the use of gendering strategies in institutional and disciplinary settings and based on an analysis of over a hundred case files and judgements seventy two interviews and court observations in three cities of Pakistan this book shadows the experiences of women victims of domestic violence in both criminal law and family law proceedings It captures and offers empirical insights in relation to gendered subject formation in discursive spaces ranging from the use of societal narratives that minimise and silence women s harms to the deployment of police mechanisms that assist in maintaining the secrecy of familial violence and the application and enactment of boilerplate lawyerly strategies to present alternative legal truths Amidst regulations of the public versus the private and understandings of rights versus duties Domestic Violence in Pakistan explores how these practices construct the victim subject of domestic violence in a way that not only subjectivise her but also secure her within the field of that subjectification setting her up to be viewed by the judiciary through the lens of the allegations applied to her
