Las Raras Sarah Moody, 2024-05-30 Premio al Mejor Libro Latin American Studies Association Nineteenth Century Section 2025 Las Raras proposes that the Modernistas advocacy for a writing style they considered feminine helps us to understand why so few and perhaps no women were accepted as active participants in Modernismo Author Sarah Moody studies how particular writers contributed to the idea of a feminine aesthetic and tracks the intellectual networks of Modernismo through periodicals and personal papers such as albums and correspondence Buenos Aires Paris and Montevideo figure prominently in this transatlantic study which reexamines some of the most important period writers in Spanish including Rubén Darío Amado Nervo and Enrique Gómez Carrillo This book also considers the critiques launched by women writers such as Aurora Cceres Clorinda Matto de Turner and Mar a Eugenia Vaz Ferreira who experienced Modernista exclusion firsthand deconstructed the Modernista discourse of a modern feminine style and built literary success in alternative terms These writers reoriented the discussion about women in modernity to address women's education professionalization and advocacy for social and civic improvements In this study Modernismo emerges as both a literary style and an intellectual network in which style and sociability are mutually determining and combine to form a system of prestige and validation that excluded women writers
