Palabras De Mediodia Noon Words Pioneers Of Modern Us Hispanic Literature:

Palabra de mediodía / Noon Words Lucha Corpi, 2001-03-31 Palabras de mediodía Noon Words is Lucha Corpi's pioneering collection of poems that established her as a major figure in Mexican American literature. Written in Spanish and expertly translated by Catherine Rodriguez Nieto, the poems fairly bloom off the page in a display of lyric virtuosity. Corpi is the first of the Mexican American poets to explore through deeply personal and intimate feelings potentially explosive political topics: transculturation, the role of women, her commitment to social change, and the grand themes of love and death. Highly sophisticated, enchanting, and well steeped in the literary tradition of Juana de Ibarbouro, Federico García Lorca, and Pablo Neruda, Corpi's poetry successfully portrays the magic of her childhood in tropical Veracruz, her move to the city, and the challenges of modern life in San Luis Potosí and the San Francisco Bay Area. Particularly moving is Corpi's struggle to bridge the chasm between the obligations of family life and single parenthood and the career opportunities of the outside world. MultiCultural Review, 2001

Handbook of Hispanic Cultures in the United States: Literature and Art Nicolás Kanellos, Claudia Esteva-Fabregat, Francisco Lomelí, 1993-01-01 Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Project is a national project to locate, identify, preserve, and make accessible the literary contributions of U.S. Hispanics from colonial times through 1960 in what today comprises the fifty states of the United States. American Poets and Poetry Jeffrey Gray, Mary McAleer Balkun, James McCorkle, 2015-03-10 The ethnically diverse scope, broad chronological coverage, and mix of biographical, critical, historical, political, and cultural entries make this the most useful and exciting poetry reference of its kind for students today. American poetry springs up out of all walks of life; its poems are maternal as well as paternal, stuff'd with the stuff that is coarse and stuff'd with the stuff that is fine. As Walt Whitman wrote, adding "Of every hue and caste am I / of every rank and religion." Written for high school and undergraduate students, this two-volume encyclopedia covers U.S. poetry from the Colonial era to the present, offering full treatments of hundreds of key poets of the American canon. What sets this reference apart is that it also discusses events, movements, schools, and poetic approaches, placing poets in their social, historical, political, cultural, and critical contexts and showing how their works mirror the eras in which they were written. Readers will learn about surrealism, ekphrastic poetry, pastoral, elegy, the Black Mountain poets, and language poetry. There are long and rich entries on modernism and postmodernism, as well as entries related to the formal and technical dimensions of American poetry. Particular attention is paid to women poets and poets from various ethnic groups. Poets such as Amiri Baraka, Nathaniel Mackey, Natasha Trethewey, and Tracy Smith are featured. The encyclopedia also contains entries on a wide selection of Latino and Native American poets and substantial coverage of the avant-garde and experimental movements, and provides sidebars that illuminate key points.

Noon Words Lucha Corpi, 2001 This pioneering collection of poems established Corpi as a major figure in Mexican American literature. She explores potentially explosive political topics: transculturation, the role of women, her commitment to social change, and the grand themes of love and death. Chican@s y
