Pale Ramon:

Pale Ramón Rane Arroyo, 1998 Buenas Noches, American Culture María DeGuzmán, 2012-07-09 Often treated like night itself both visible and invisible feared and romanticized Latina/os make up the largest minority group in the US In her newest work María DeGuzmán explores representations of night in art and literature from the Caribbean Colombia Central and South America and the US calling into question night's effect on the formation of identity for Latina/os in and outside of the US She takes as her subject novels short stories poetry essays non-fiction photo-fictions photography and film and examines these texts through the lenses of nationhood sexuality human rights exoticism among others The Margins of Meaning Robin Melrose, 2022-07-11 The title of this book is inspired by Jacques Derrida and by his seminal work The Margins of Philosophy The study of meaning in the past thirty years has focused on core meaning and largely ignored the margins of meaning where much of the power of language is to be found The present work seeks to shift this focus by taking a postmodern approach that sees meaning as an accretion of verbal social cultural and personal sign systems with fluid boundaries that shrink or expand with each meaning Chapter 1 begins with a brief examination of present day approaches to meaning and goes on to a deconstruction of four twentieth century linguists Chapter 2 takes as its starting point two aspects of the 20th century scientific paradigm non-deterministic causation and relativity and considers a number of thinkers who have worked within this paradigm A major aim of this work is to convince students and teachers of literary theory cultural studies and feminist theory of the validity of a linguistics of indeterminacy so Chapter 3 focuses on an analytical approach that models indeterminacy in language and Chapter 4 applies the model to a newspaper editorial a Wallace Stevens poem and an extract from a Patrick White novel The Turning of the Leaves Sarah M. Zang, 2016-10-14 The poems in this book reflect the seasons of life and the seasons of Nature The Modern Dilemma Leon Surette, 2008 Leon Surette's new study of T.S. Eliot and Wallace Stevens The Modern Dilemma challenges the received view that Stevens' poetry expresses a Humanist world view and more surprisingly documents Eliot's early Humanist phase when Eliot and his bride shared Bertrand Russell's tiny London flat and later rented a country house together 1914-17 Eliot's poetry of that time up to The Waste Land is seen to reflect his Humanist phase closed by his conversion poetically documented in Ash Wednesday Where Eliot's poetry is dominated by cultural religious and philosophical angst Stevens is bright witty and playful and commonly dismissed as superficial The Modern Dilemma challenges this view demonstrating the seriousness of Stevens' life-long engagement with the modern dilemma of disbelief and also that like Eliot he rejected the Humanist resolution characterized by Russell in The Free Man's Worship as man worshipping at the shrine that his own hands have built The study proceeds by juxtaposing the two poets' responses in poetry and prose to the same texts and events Marianne Moore's poetry the Great War Humanists and anti-Humanists the Franco-Mexican Humanist Ramon Fernandez Pure Poetry and finally the gathering war clouds in the late thirties The strategy is to put the two men in juxtaposition so as to highlight the differences and similarities of their responses to the same issues or the same works Among the issues under examination is the nature and status of poetry religious belief or disbelief and political engagement or the lack thereof 8th International Conference on Computing, Control and Industrial Engineering (CCIE2024) Yuriy S. systematically The images indexed at the back of the book are examined in four natural groups Figures of the Mind of Disorder of Order and of Change The last half of the book is concerned with close analyses of some longer poems of Stevens s using the information gleaned from the anatomy of the first half
