Patricia Grace Selected Stories:

Collected Stories: Patricia Grace Patricia Grace, 2001-08-01 This is one of the finest collections of stories by any New Zealand writer The collected edition of Patricia Grace's stories brings together all the work contained in her first three celebrated books of short stories Also available as an eBook

Spiritcarvers Antonella Sarti, 2022-06-08 In a land caught between the sea and cloud where the natural landscape still refuses civilization there are those the composers of words tellers of tales that help shape the minds of the people that live on its shores They are spiritcarvers New Zealand writing today is engaging in an intent struggle to subvert multiple shapes into voices These interviews as a record of biographical orature are shaped into presenting the figure of the storyteller through memory and language explorations of how we imagine and create ourselves with and into words Here we encounter the dichotomy of fiction and non fiction myth and consensual reality imagination and truth do we live within our own selected fictions Identity is shaped by the authors sense of displacement as well as of belonging meeting otherness with dispossession discovering connection through isolation Among the focal points of the interviews are the role of women's writing Maori writing interrelations among different cultures and the influence of literary and oral tradition within New Zealand

Small Holes in the Silence Patricia Grace, 2006-06-29 This is a fine new collection of short stories by the much loved Patricia Grace probably never more popular since the great commercial success of the novel Tu The feast of stories is varied urban rural New Zealand overseas tribal contemporary An elderly woman whose husband has died gathers firewood on the beach while the appliances in her house fall to bits one by one Willie falls in love with a statue Great grandmother reveals how she chose her husband to be both of them Rona curses the Moon Petina tells Raycharles she's looking for a father for her baby The thread that runs through all the stories though is Grace's huge sympathy for the underdog and the perspective of the outsider The world she depicts is often a stark and unsentimental place in which people struggle against ageing rejection violence and betrayal Also available as an eBook

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory

Electric City Patricia Grace, 2013-08-01 These are short stories about ordinary folk leading seemingly ordinary lives The power of community extended family and culture are central to all Thirteen stories in which the joys of discovery are tempered by the knowledge of a harder colder world Sunlight

The Postcolonial Short Story Maggie Awadalla, Paul March-Russell, 2012-10-23 This book puts the short story at the heart of contemporary postcolonial studies and questions what postcolonial literary criticism may be Focusing on short fiction between 1975 and today the period in which critical theory came to determine postcolonial studies it argues for a sophisticated critique exemplified by the ambiguity of the form

Writing Along Broken Lines Otto Heim, 1998 Covering the two decades from 1972 Swiss scholar Otto Heim presents detailed readings of the novels and short fiction by Heretaunga Pat Baker Alan Duff Patricia Grace Keri Hulme Witi Ihimaera Bruce Stewart J C Sturm Apirana Taylor and Ngahuia Te Awakotuku His book places the fiction by Maori writers in the context of a culture of survival and traces its textual engagement with violence between empathy and sacrifice from the privacy of domestic violence to the public arenas of systemic violence and war He argues that out of this confrontation with violence emerges a distinctive ethnic world view created by the construction of individual experience the development of an ideological stance and the expression of a spiritual orientation Heim s analysis shows works of fiction by contemporary Maori writers as challenging explorations of the constraints placed on the literary imagination by the urgent facts of the human condition and the imperatives of culture

A Talent(ed) Digger , 2022-05-20 Anna Rutherford has been the most dynamic ambassador of Australian culture in Europe More than any other single person she has been instrumental in spreading interest in Commonwealth and post colonial studies Wherever she has been in the world she has brought people together in friendship and intellectual endeavour This volume ranges widely over the areas Anna has promoted as teacher editor and publisher

Bodies and Voices , 2008-01-01 A wide ranging collection of essays centred on readings of the body in contemporary literary and socio anthropological discourse from slavery and rape to female genital mutilation from clothing ocular pornography voice deformation and transmutation to the imprisoned dismembered remembered abducted or ghostly body in Africa Australasia and the Pacific Canada the Caribbean Great Britain and Eire

From Silence to Voice Paola Della Valle, 2010 The first comprehensive history of how Maori have emerged from the silence of depictions by European writers to claim their own literary voice with a focus on Patricia Grace and Witi Ihimaera

'My Mother was the Earth, My Father was the Sky' Nadia Majid, 2010 This study brings together three closely related aspects of Maori literature myth memory and identity It examines selected novels by Witi Ihimaera and Patricia Grace in order to trace an ever developing Maori identity that has changed considerably over three decades of the Maori novel This book demonstrates that an investigation of the construction of identity in literature benefits from a close look at the importance of Maori mythology as well as associated cultural and individual memories Indicating that Maori fiction has become what Homi Bhabha terms a third space this book verifies the links between novel myth and memory with the help of existing research in these areas in order to assess their importance for the reinterpretation of identity The Maori novels that depict situations reflecting current issues are viewed as an experimental playground in which authors can explore a variety of solutions to tribal societal and political issues This study establishes the early novels as reinterpretations of the past and guides to the future and characterises the more recent novels as representing a move towards empowerment and pioneering that has not yet come to a conclusion English Literature and the Other Languages,2022-06-08

The thirty essays in English Literature and the Other Languages trace how the tangentiality of English and other modes of language affects the production of English literature and investigate how questions of linguistic code can be made accessible to literary analysis This collection studies multilingualism from the Reformation onwards when Latin was an alternative to the emerging vernacular of the Anglican nation the eighteenth century confrontation between English and the languages of the colonies the process whereby the standard British English of the colonizer has lost ground to independent englishes American Canadian Indian Caribbean Nigerian or New Zealand English that now consider the original standard British English as the other languages the interaction between English and a range of British language varieties including Welsh Irish and Scots the Lancashire and Dorset dialects as well as working class idiom Chicano literature translation and self translation Ezra Pound s revitalization of English in the Cantos and the psychogrammar and comic dialogics in Joyce s Ulysses As Norman Blake puts it in his Afterword to English Literature and the Other Languages There has been no volume such as this which tries to take stock of the whole area and to put multilingualism in literature on the map It is a subject which has been neglected for too long and this volume is to be welcomed for its brave attempt to fill this lacuna Meanjin Vol 82, No 3 Meanjin Quarterly,2023-09-15
