Artist's Journey Travis Elborough,2023-10-03 Follow in the footsteps of some of the world's most famous painters in this fascinating work from the Journeys of Note series Some truly remarkable works of art have been inspired by artists spending time away from their typical surroundings From epic road trips and arduous treks into remote territories to cultural tours and sojourns in the finest hotels this book explores 30 influential journeys taken by artistic greats and reveals the repercussions of those travels on the painters' personal lives and the broader cultural landscape Award winning author Travis Elborough brings each of these trips to life with fascinating insights into the stories behind the creation of some of the world's most famous paintings including Henri Matisse's vivid paintings of Morocco Katsushika Hokusai's woodblock prints of Mount Fuji in Japan Marianne North's paintings of India and David Hockney's California pool paintings

Paul Cézanne Jon Kear,2016-06-15 Few artists have exerted as much influence on modern art as Paul Cézanne Picasso Braque and Matisse all acknowledged a profound debt to his painting and many historians regard him as the father of modernism This new biography reexamines Cézanne's life and art discussing the key events and people who shaped his work and placing his oeuvre in the context of nineteenth and early twentieth century art and culture Jon Kear begins with Cézanne's formative years in Provence highlighting the deep and abiding impressions the landscapes of the region would have on his paintings He follows him through his turbulent years as a young artist in Paris where he would create the larger than life artistic persona through a rugged painting style detailing explicit subjects that would become a lasting mythology for him throughout all of his phases He looks closely at Cézanne's relationships with Edouard Manet whom he both emulated and critiqued and the writer Émile Zola as well as his close collaboration with Camille Pissarro Above all he tells the story of his life as a part of the pivotal shift toward the twentieth century illuminating how much his work and ideas helped to usher it in

Impressionist painting: its genesis and development Wynford Dewhurst,2023-07-10 In Impressionist Painting Its Genesis and Development Wynford Dewhurst offers a meticulously researched exploration of the birth and evolution of the Impressionist movement which forever altered the landscape of art Through a detailed yet accessible narrative Dewhurst examines the socio political backdrop of the late 19th century and delves into the techniques that defined Impressionist painters such as Monet and Renoir The book synthesizes critical analysis with vivid descriptions allowing readers to appreciate how color light and brushstroke merged to create a new aesthetic sensibility that challenged traditional norms in art Wynford Dewhurst an accomplished painter and art critic himself possessed a profound connection to the subjects he discusses His firsthand experience with artistic techniques and his immersion in the art community afforded him a unique lens through which to observe the tumultuous interactions between Impressionist artists and the conventional art world of their time Dewhurst s insightful perspective is not only rooted in a scholarly approach but also nourished by his own artistic pursuits and passions This book is not only an essential read for art historians and enthusiasts but also a valuable resource for anyone seeking to understand the transformative impact of Impressionism on modern art Dewhurst s eloquent writing and rich visual examples invite readers to engage with the pieces on a deeper level making it an indispensable guide to one of art s most revolutionary movements

Journey to Joy Mouton, Sibis,2014-12-01 From learning how to jump obstacles on horseback in the Modern Pentathlon to competing in triathlons in France this is an action packed autobiography of a young South African athlete sharing her dream of becoming a world champion A dream which seemed impossible during the sports boycott against apartheid Dr Sibis Mouton speaks to us from the heart as she ranges from her childhood her family to her travels around the world and her internal journeys heart aches and victories Life experiences like swimming with the dolphins in the Miami Keys or photographing the famous Masai Mara migration in Kenya are given deeper spiritual significance and take us on a mystical journey to discover the meaning and purpose of life This is an uplifting and inspiring story that should convince the reader that life is indeed a miracle to be enjoyed and treasured The Artist's Garden Jackie Bennett,2019-10-29

The Artist s Garden offers an intriguing study into 20 gardens that have inspired and been home to some of the greatest painters of history The most alluring image of an artist at work is surely one where he or she has come out of their studio set up their easel on the garden path pulled on a hat to shade their eyes from the sun and taken their brush and palette in hand This sumptuously illustrated and fascinating book delves into the stories behind the gardens which inspired some of the most beautiful and important works of art These gardens not only supplied the inspiration for creative works but also illuminate the professional motivation and private life of the artists themselves from Cezanne s house in the south of France to Childe Hassam at Celia Thaxter s garden off the coast off Maine Flowers and gardens have often been the first choice for artists looking for a subject A garden close to the artist s studio is not only convenient for daily material and ideas but also has the advantage of changing through the seasons and over time Claude Monet s Giverny was the catalyst for hundreds of great paintings by Monet and other artists each one different from the one before Sometimes a whole village becomes the focus for a colony of artists as at Gerberoy in Picardy and Skagen on the northernmost tip of Denmark This book is about the real homes and gardens that inspired these great artists gardens that can still be visited today The relationship between artist and garden is a complex one A few artists including Pierre Bonnard and his neighbour Monet were keen gardeners as much in love with their plants as their work while for others like Sorolla in Madrid his courtyard home was both a sanctuary and a source of ideas This book is as unmissable for art lovers as it is for anyone who knows the joy of time spent in gardens offering an intriguing insight into the lives of these great painters and the gardens which inspired them to their creative heights

Painting Below Zero James Rosenquist, David Dalton, 2009-10-27 From James Rosenquist one of our most iconic pop artists along with Andy Warhol Jim Dine Claes Oldenburg and Roy Lichtenstein comes this candid and fascinating memoir Unlike these artists Rosenquist often works in three dimensional forms with highly dramatic shifts in scale and a far more complex palette including grisaille and Day Glo colors A skilled traditional painter he avoided the stencils and silk screens of Warhol and Lichtenstein His vast canvases full of brilliant surreally juxtaposed images would influence both many of his contemporaries and younger generations as well as revolutionize twentieth century painting Rosenquist writes about growing up in a tight knit community of Scandinavian farmers in North Dakota and Minnesota in the late 1930s and early 1940s about his mother who was not only an amateur painter but along with his father a passionate aviator and about leaving that flat midwestern landscape in 1955 for New York where he had won a scholarship to the Art Students League George Grosz Edwin Dickinson and Robert Beverly Hale were among his teachers but his early life was a struggle until he discovered sign painting He describes days suspended on scaffolding high over Broadway painting movie or theater billboards and nights at the Cedar Tavern with Willem de Kooning Franz Kline and the poet LeRoi Jones His first major studio on Coenties Slip was in the thick of the new art world Among his neighbors were Ellsworth Kelly Robert Indiana Agnes Martin and Jack Youngerman and his mentors Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns Rosenquist writes about his shows with the dealers Richard Bellamy Ileana Sonnabend and Leo Castelli and about colorful collectors like Robert and Ethel Scull We learn about the 1971 car crash that left his wife and son in a coma and his own life and work in shambles his lobbying along with Rauschenberg for artists rights in Washington D C and how he got his work back on track With his distinct voice Rosenquist writes about the ideas behind some of his major paintings from the startling revelation that led to his first pop painting Zone to his masterpiece F III a stunning critique of war and consumerism to the cosmic reverie of Star Thief This is James Rosenquist s story in his own words captivating and unexpected a unique look inside the contemporary art world in the company of one of its most important painters Cézanne to Picasso Rebecca A.
