Suckling, 1954      Paul Valery Norman Suckling, 1954      Paul Valéry and the Civilized Mind Norman Suckling, 1954

Paul Valery's Album des Vers Anciens Suzanne Nash, 2014-07-14 Questioning the view that the work is not representative of the poet's mature accomplishment Suzanne Nash argues that the revisionary process involved in its creation led Valery to reflect on problems fundamental to poetic production and thus provided inspiration for all his later poetry Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      The Anchor Anthology of French Poetry Angel

Flores, 2000-04-18 First published in 1958 this collection introduced an indispensable corpus of western poetry to countless American students Francophiles and would be poets among them Patti Smith whose Introduction to this edition testifies to its epochal impact on her own career The poetic and cultural tradition forged by the symbolist poets featured herein Baudelaire Rimbaud Verlaine Apollinaire and others reverberated throughout the avant garde and countercultures of the twentieth century Surrealism modernism abstract impressionism and the Beat movement all find their roots in the examples of these poets and their theories of art With translations by Richmond Lattimore W S Merwin Richard Wilbur and Louise Varese this rediscovered gem is sure to inspire a new generation      Encyclopedia of Modern French Thought Christopher John

Murray, 2013-01-11 In this wide ranging guide to twentieth century French thought leading scholars offer an authoritative multi disciplinary analysis of one of the most distinctive and influential traditions in modern thought Unlike any other existing work this important work covers not only philosophy but also all the other major disciplines including literary theory sociology linguistics political thought theology and more      Inventing Leonardo A. Richard Turner, 1994-10-06 As he examines the changing views of Leonardo since the sixteenth century A Richard Turner both gives the reader a cultural history in brief of western Europe during this period and provides a context for examining Leonardo's relevance to our own ways of perceiving and interpreting the world      Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies      In Search of the Classic Steven Shankman, 2010-11 The classical Steven Shankman argues should not be confused with a particular historical period of Western antiquity although it may owe its original articulation to the literary and philosophical explorations of ancient Greek authors Shankman's book searches for and attempts to formulate the shape of the continuing presence as embodied in particular literary works mainly from Western antiquity and the neoclassical and modern periods of what the author calls a classical understanding of literature For Shankman literature defined from a classical perspective is a coherent compelling and rationally defensible representation that resists being reduced either to the mere recording of material reality or to the bare exemplification of an abstract philosophical precept He derives his definition largely from his reading of Greek literature from Homer through Plato from the history of literary criticism and from the Greco Roman tradition in English American and French literature Shankman reveals unsuspected yet convincing connections among authors of such widely disparate times and places His idea of the classic that authorizes these connections is presented as normative thus making possible the evaluation of literary works and in turn forthright discussion of what constitutes the literary as distinct from other kinds of discourse Shankman's study runs counter to a strong tendency of contemporary criticism that argues precisely against any distinct category of the literary He offers a series of interpretations that cumulatively advance theoretical discussion by challenging scholars to rethink the critical paradigms of postmodernism At the center of the book is a discussion of the quintessentially classic Valéry poem Le Cimetière marin and the classic qualities it shares with Pindar's third Pythian ode from which Valéry derives the epigraph for his poem      French singers and teachers in interpreting art songs and building song recital programs      Literary Polemics Suzanne Guerlac, 2000-02-01 During the 1960 s and 1970 s the eruption of theory was presented as an epistemic break reorganizing the field of questioning both prospectively and retrospectively In the forefront of this new movement was the influential journal Tel Quel which both canonized a body of preferred avant garde texts both literary and theoretical and nullified prominent figures from preceding generations In a broad remapping of French modernism this book shows how the milieu of Tel Quel transferred myths of the powers of literature inherited from Bataille Sartre Valéry and Breton to theory in the process erasing the traces of these myths and their common ground The author analyzes cultural and theoretical positions pure art automatism engagement and transgression that structured the literary and critical field from the 1920 s to the 1950 s to show their strong impact on the formulation and elaboration of theoretical issues in more recent decades Focusing on the question of relations between poetry and action she reexamines these positions and uncovers proximities between them that significantly displace theoretical issues These proximities emerge when a philosophical subtext of Bergson antiphilosopher and nondialectical thinker is revealed to operate alongside the more obvious subtext of Hegel The discourse of Bergson shifts the category of action central to these literary polemics and revalues the visual register suggesting a reconsideration of Surrealism The book concludes by examining the ideological pressures associated with the eclipse of the discourse of Bergson as well as some of the effects of this erasure on our understanding of the modern as distinct from the postmodern      The Ironic Vision in Modern Literature Charles I.
