Correspondence Paul Celan, Nelly Sachs, 1995 Correspondence between the two twentieth century German poets

Correspondence , Poems of Paul Celan Paul Celan, 2007 This is a new revised edition of an Anvil Classic Paul Celan was one of the great poets of the twentieth century Born into a Jewish family in a German enclave of Romania his life and work were indelibly marked by the Holocaust his parents perished in a camp he was lucky to survive The Jewish experience and the force of history stretched language and Celan himself beyond breaking point Celan committed suicide in Paris in 1970 but not before he had remade and reclaimed German as a language fit for poets Celan spoke of a language north of the future and described his poems as messages in bottles that might never be received Encounters with Paul Celan's Poetry Pajari Räsänen, 2021-09-21 Encounters with Paul Celan's Poetry The Other's Time consists of encounters with poetry with its readers and with the other that poetry seeks to encounter What does it mean when Celan insists that every real encounter every true encounter happens in memory of the poetic encounter the secret of the encounter This book presents close readings of various poems often attempting textual and intellectual dialogue with philosophers who read Celan or who were read by Celan such as Jacques Derrida Werner Hamacher Edmund Husserl Hans Georg Gadamer and Maurice Merleau Ponty

Flight and Metamorphosis Nelly Sachs, 2022-03-15 The central collection by the poet dramatist and Nobel laureate Nelly Sachs newly translated by Joshua Weiner with Linda B Parshall So far out in the open cushioned in sleep In flight from the land with love's heavy luggage A butterfly zone of dreams like an open parasol held up against the truth Flight and Metamorphosis marks the culmination of Nelly Sachs's development as a poet Sachs who was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1966 speaks from her own condition as a refugee from Nazi Germany her loneliness while living in a small Stockholm flat with her elderly mother her exile her alienation her feelings of romantic bereavement and her search for the divine Forced onto a journey of endless change Sachs created her own path forward From these sublime poems she emerges as a visionary one who harnesses language's essential power to create and transform our world Joshua Weiner's translations with Linda B Parshall are the first in more than half a century to elucidate Sachs's enduring poetic power and relevance

Paul Celan Paul Celan, 1980 Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda Lê Alexandra Kurmann, 2016-01-14 Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda L Imagining the Ideal Reader uncovers the primary textual relationship that Linda L 1963 the most prolific Francophone author of the Vietnamese diaspora fosters with a literary precursor of Austrian descent the feminist writer in exile Ingeborg Bachmann 1926 1973 This study offers an overdue exploration of the notably European roots of L's writerly formation It traces an unexamined feminist import in her work to a sixteen year inter and intra textual engagement with Bachmann and positions the latter as an imagined ideal reader of L's oeuvre Intertextual analyses of Bachmann's post war novel Malina with L's literary essays early fiction and trilogy reveal that to overcome the challenges of writing in exile L adopts an alternative literary fore bear of the European tradition Counter-figures: An Essay on Anti-metaphoric Resistance. Paul Celan's Poetry and Poetics at the Limits of Figurality Pajari Räsänen, 2007 Paul Celan John Felstiner, 2001-01-01 Paul Celan Europe's most compelling postwar poet was a German speaking East European Jew His writing exposes and illumines the wounds that Nazi destructiveness left on language John Felstiner's sensitive and accessible book is the first critical biography of Celan in any language It offers new translations of well known and little known poems including a chapter on Celan's famous Deathfugue plus his speeches prose fiction and letters The book also presents hitherto unpublished photos of the poet and his circle Drawing on interviews with Celan's family and friends and his personal library in Normandy and Paris as well as voluminous German commentary Felstiner tells the poet's gripping story his birth in 1920 in Romania the overnight loss of his parents in a Nazi deportation his experience of forced labor and Soviet occupation during the war and then his difficult exile in Paris The life's work of Paul Celan emerges through readings of his poems within their personal and historical matrix At the same time Felstiner finds fresh insights by opening up the very process of translating Celan's poems To present this poetry and the strain of Jewishness it displays Felstiner uncovers Celan's sources in the Bible and Judaic mysticism his affinities with Kafka Heine Hölderlin Rilke and Nelly Sachs his fascination with Heidegger and Buber his piercing translations of Shakespeare Dickinson Mandelstam Apollinaire First and last Felstiner explores the achievement of a poet surviving in his mother tongue the German language that had passed Celan said through the thousand darknesses of deathbringing speech Speaking the Unspeakable in Postwar Germany Sonja Boos, 2015-03-10 In this an interdisciplinary study of a diverse set of public speeches given by major literary and cultural figures in the 1950s and 1960s Sonja Boos demonstrates that these speakers both facilitated and subverted the construction of a public discourse about the Holocaust in postwar West Germany The Craft of Translation John Biguenet, Rainer Schulte, 1989-08-15 These essays offer insights into the understanding and craft of translation The contributors not only describe the complexity of translating literature but also suggest the implications of the act of translation for critics scholars teachers and students The demands of translation according to these writers require both comprehensive scholarship in preparing to translate a text and broad creativity in recreating the text in a new language Translation thus becomes a model for the most exacting reading and the most serious scholarship Some of the contributors lay bare the rigorous methods of literary translation in comparisons of various translations of the same piece some discuss the problems of translating a specific passage others speak about the lessons learned over the course of a career in translation As these essays make clear translators work in the space between languages and in so doing provide insights into the ways in which a culture makes the world verbal From publisher's description The Translated Jew Leslie Morris, 2018-09-15 The Translated Jew brings together an eclectic set of literary and visual texts to reimagine the transnational potential for German Jewish culture in the twenty first century Departing from scholarship that has located the German Jewish text as an object that can be defined geographically and historically Leslie Morris challenges national literary historiography and redraws the maps by which transnational Jewish culture and identity must be read Morris explores the myriad acts of translation actual and metaphorical through which Jewishness leaves its traces taking as a given the always provisional nature of Jewish text and Jewish language Although the focus is on contemporary German Jewish literary cultures The Translated Jew also turns its attention to a number of key visual and architectural projects by American British and French artists and writers including W G Sebald Anne Blonstein H l ne Cixous Ulrike Mohr Daniel Blaufuks Paul Celan Raymond Federman and Rose Ausl nder In thus realigning German Jewish culture with European and American Jewish culture and post Holocaust aesthetics this book explores the circulation of Jewishness between the United States and Europe The insistence on the polylingualism of any single language and the multidirectionality of Jewishness are at the very center of The Translated Jew Selected Poems

Paul Celan,1972 Nelly Sachs--Paul Celan correspondance Paul Celan,1999 Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer,2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 The Contemporary Writer and Their Suicide Josefa Ros

Velasco,2023-07-05 This volume is the continuation of the book Suicide in Modern Literature edited by Josefa Ros Velasco Considering the positive reception of this book Ros Velasco launches the second part entitled The Contemporary Writer and their Suicide This time leading representatives of various disciplines analyze the literary philosophical and biographical works of contemporary writers worldwide who attempted to commit suicide or achieved their goal looking for covert and overt clues about their intentions in their writings This book aims to continue shedding light on the social and structural causes that lead to suicide and on the suicidal mind but also to show that people assiduous to writing usually reflect their intentions to commit suicide in their writings to explain how these frequently veiled intentions can be revealed and interpreted and to highlight the potential of artistic philosophical and autobiographical writing as a tool to detect suicidal ideation and prevent its consummation in vulnerable people This book analyzes several case studies and their allusions to their contexts and the socio structural and environmental violence and pressures they suffered expressions of their will and agency feelings of dislocation between the individual reality and existential alienation and literary styles writing techniques and metaphorical language Silence and Articulacy in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian Maureen E. Ruprecht

Fadem,2019-12-03 Silence and Articulacy in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian is an innovative contribution to the scholarship on Belfast poet Medbh McGuckian This book considers the entire oeuvre of this globally respected Irish woman writer a member of the contemporary avant garde with now fifteen U S published volumes and numerous individual publications The author positions McGuckian s oeuvre as political and historical poetry and offers a provocative new assessment of its crafted silences This work argues that it is the muted character of McGuckian s poems a consequence of a defamiliarized language the overwhelming sway of the image and a profusion of intertextual quoting that constitutes their agency and force The silences are read as a response to the precarious positionality of poet and speaker at the site of disaster and the limits of articulacy In line with Rukeyser s notion of the life of poetry the life of McGuckian s silences is located Fadem argues in the poems production as revealed self reflexively and in their prolonged consumption This oeuvre operates as a formidable counter discourse by converting poetry s reception into a much protracted task that redistributes the temporal economy of poem and reader and disrupts the given structures of time place and the order of things Stéphane Mosès »Displacements« Ashraf Noor,2024-05-06 St phane Mos s explores in Displacements the poetry of Paul Celan and the work of major German Jewish thinkers in the context of his distinction between normative and critical modernity The first part contains a translation of his book Approches de Paul Celan the third part a translation of his lecture series Figures philosophiques de la modernité juive and the central section contains alongside a text on Freud essays on Goethe and Benjamin that extend his analysis beyond the Jewish sphere while engaging with the questions of tradition and its fragmentation that he raises there Edited translated and with an Introduction by Ashraf Noor Elie Wiesel and the Art of Storytelling Rosemary Horowitz,2006-11-13 Elie Wiesel is a master storyteller with the ability to use storytelling as a form of activism From his landmark memoir Night to his novels and numerous retellings of Hasidic legends Wiesel s literature emphasizes storytelling and he frequently refers to himself as a storyteller rather than an author or historian In this work essays examine Wiesel s roots in Jewish storytelling traditions influences from religious folk and secular sources education Yiddish background Holocaust experience and writing style Emphasized throughout is Wiesel s use of multiple sources in an effort to reach diverse audiences
