Westerly ,2003 Whose ABC? Kenneth Stanley Inglis,2006 Whose ABC is Ken Inglis's long awaited political and cultural history of one of Australia's best loved institutions Combining in depth research interviews with the key players and a gift for story telling it is social history of the highest order Since 1983 the ABC has seen controversial managing directors David Hill Jonathan Shier come and go There have been fights over funding eight cents a day and charges of bias There have been both programming triumphs from Bananas in Pyjamas to Kath Kim and accusations of cowardice and dumbing down Whose ABC deals with all these events and more It seeks out the truth of events and breaks new ground The result is an unfailingly readable narrative that will be seen as a classic of Australian historical writing Australian Book Review ,2002

Beersheba Paul Daley,2009 The Battle of Beersheba a redeeming win for the ANZACs who lost at Gallipoli has slipped through the cracks of Australia's historical consciousness Why are Australians so much more content to commemorate a glorious defeat than we are to celebrate such a resounding against the odds victory A Memoir of the Rev. John Russell and His Out-Of-Door Life (Vintage Dog Books Breed Classic - Jack Russell Terrier) E. W. L. Davies,2020-10-16 A VINTAGE DOG BOOKS CLASSIC REPRINT Originally published in 1878 while the Rev Russell was still alive the book was then republished in 1883 with an extra chapter dealing with Russell's death and funeral Both editions are now extremely scarce and expensive VINTAGE DOG BOOKS have republished the 1883 edition using the original text and illustrations as part of their CLASSIC BREED BOOKS series The Rev John Russell of Tordown in Devon is probably best known for his establishment of one of the world's favourite dog breeds The Jack Russell Terrier This book is devoted to Russell's life as one of the great foxhunting characters in English history and his passionate involvement with horses hounds and terriers in his beloved Devon countryside Although not a typical dog book this title will prove of great interest to anyone owning a Jack Russell Terrier with its lively anecdotes of the history and origins of this game little dog The author was a good friend of the Rev Russell and before this book of memoirs was published he consulted his subject on the veracity of every line of its contents John Russell's life and his love of sport is detailed from his early days at Tiverton School where he kept his first pack of hounds For the next 75 years his life revolved around the Church and his love of hunting the fox stag and hare Upon his death in 1883 Russell left a legacy to the world not only of a hunting legend but also the Jack Russell breed of terrier now loved by so many This is a fascinating four hundred page read for any Jack Russell Terrier enthusiast or historian of the breed and will also stand as an important record of the early days of hunting in the South West Many of the earliest dog books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive VINTAGE DOG BOOKS are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork Keywords Jack Russell Terrier Dog Breeds Devon Countryside John Russell Rev John Passionate Involvement Books Series Breed Books Life As One English History Hounds Anecdotes Memoir Terriers Still Alive Minefields Hugh Riminton, 2017-09-26 Minefields is a compelling exploration of a foreign correspondent's life proof of Hugh's belief that if you go looking for trouble you'll probably find it Over nearly forty years as a journalist and foreign correspondent Hugh Riminton has been shot at blown up threatened with deportation and thrown in jail He has reported from nearly fifty countries witnessed massacres in Africa wars and conflicts on four continents and every kind of natural disaster It has been an extraordinary life From a small town teenager with a drinking problem cleaning rat cages for a living to a multi award winning international journalist reporting to an audience of 300 million people Hugh has been a frontline witness to our times From genocide in Africa to the Indian Ocean tsunami from wars in Iraq and Afghanistan to slave buying in Sudan Hugh has seen the best and worst of human behaviour In Australia he has covered political dramas witnessed the Port Arthur massacre and the Thredbo disaster and broken a major national scandal His work helped force half a dozen government inquiries His story is entertaining deeply personal and quietly wise An impressive career His story is a triumph of substance over style Sydney Morning Herald Hugh is an icon of Australian journalism Michael Ware former Iraq correspondent for TIME and CNN Venom Dorothy Horsfield, 2006 Auto/biography Studies, 1997 Light and Shadow Mark Colvin, 2017-10-30 Light and Shadow is the incredible story of a father waging a secret war against communism during the Cold War while his son comes of age as a journalist and embarks on the risky career of a foreign correspondent Mark covered local and global events for the ABC for more than four decades reporting on wars royal weddings and everything in between In the midst of all this he discovered that his father was an MI6 spy Mark was witness to some of the most significant international events including the Iranian hostage crisis the buildup to the first Gulf War in Iraq and the direct aftermath of the shocking genocide in Rwanda But when he contracted a life threatening illness while working in the field his world changed forever Mark Colvin's engrossing memoir takes you inside the coverage of major news events and navigates the complexity of his father's double life Light and Shadow was published seven months before Mark's death and he had the

Massenkommunikation ,2002 Brackles : Memoirs of a Pioneer of Civil Aviation Frida H. Brackley,1952 More Than Just War Charles A. Jones,2013 This book raises questions about the just war tradition through a critical examination of its revival and by juxtaposing it with a literary phenomenology of war Recent public debate about war has leaned heavily on a just war tradition dating back many centuries This book examines the recent revival of that tradition in the United States and Britain arguing that it is less coherent and comprehensive as an approach to the ethical issues arising from war than is generally supposed and that it is inconsistent in important ways with the theology on which it was originally based A second line of criticism is mounted through close readings of modern texts in English from Britain Australia and the USA that together constitute a more subjective bottom up understanding of the moral dilemmas of military life In this second tradition the task of representing war is seen as more problematic and its rationality more questionable than in just war discourse Works by William Shakespeare Sir Walter Scott James Fennimore Cooper Stephen Crane John Buchan Robert Louis Stevenson Joseph Conrad Tim O'Brien and Kurt Vonnegut are featured The book will be of great interest to students and scholars of security studies military studies theology and international relations
