Paul McCartney Jorie B. Gracen, 2000 A collection of photographs and descriptions of Paul McCartney from concerts and other events of the past twenty five years      I Saw Them Standing There Debbie Gendler, 2024-02-06 After February 9 1964 everyone wanted to be Debbie Gendler On that date she was just one of a relative handful of lucky fans who were in the live audience for The Beatles historic performance on The Ed Sullivan Show an iconic television event viewed in the living rooms of 73 million Americans Everyone has a story to share about where they were when they watched the appearance but very few were there in person and even fewer would actually go on not just to meet the Beatles but end up building an entire career around the band But Debbie did This is the story of a New Jersey teenager who managed to accomplish what millions only dreamed about Prior to the Beatles arrival in America Gendler met with the group s manager Brian Epstein regarding the establishment of a U S Fan Club At the start of the Beatles historic 1965 summer tour she was the only teen to welcome them to America and after their press conference at The Warwick Hotel she finally meets them in person Continuing her journey Debbie recounts her unique and sometimes wacky experiences having witnessed first hand some of the most historic events in pop culture She shares concert antics from Forest Hills Tennis Stadium Shea Stadium and Suffolk Downs and describes the mayhem outside the Plaza Hotel and later that year at the Delmonico Hotel chanting for the Beatles Organizing fans to sleep on Broadway to purchase tickets for A Hard Day s Night representing the Official Beatles Fan Club on television and promoting the Ringo for President novelty record are just some of the requests she fulfilled as one of the band s leading ambassadors in the US This coming of age tale details the adolescent journey of a devoted Beatles fan in all her youthful innocence against the backdrop of the turbulent 1960s and a shifting cultural landscape      Who Did It First? Bob Leszczak, 2014-07-10 Everybody has to start somewhere Businessmen start on the ground floor and try to work their way up the corporate ladder Baseball players bide their time in the minor leagues wishing for an opportunity to move up and play in the majors Musical compositions aren t very different some songs just don t climb the charts the first time they re recorded However with perseverance the ideal singer the right chemistry impeccable timing vigorous promotion and a little luck these songs can become very famous So writes Bob Leszczak in the opening pages of Who Did It First Great Rock and Roll Cover Songs and Their Original Artists In this third and final volume to the Who Did It First series readers explore the hidden history of the most famous indeed legendary rock songs and standards Did you know that the Wild Ones had a Wild Thing before the Troggs Were you aware that it took a second shot for Double Shot of My Baby s Love to make the charts Had you heard that Guy Villari and the Regents dated Barbara Ann five years before the Beach Boys Were you privy to the fact that there was Hanky Panky going on with Ellie Greenwich and the Raindrops as well as the Summits before Tommy James and the Shondells made the song a number 1 classic Some of the information contained within these pages will shock rattle and roll you You may fancy yourself a music expert but this third and last in a series of titles devoted to the story of great songs and their revival as great covers is filled with eye openers In many instances one's eyes will open even wider as a result of the list of cover artists with Paul Anka's remake of Nirvana's Smells like Teen Spirit leading the pack Who Did It First Great Rock and Roll Cover Songs and Their Original Artists is the perfect playlist builder So whether quizzing friends at a party answering a radio station contest or just satisfying an insatiable curiosity to know who really did do it first this work is a must have
