Groupwork Helen Payne, 2019-12-09 This invaluable resource for teachers and therapists continues to explore the link between movement and emotions presented in the first edition of this innovative book. It provides 180 practical activities with a clear rationale for the use of creative dance and movement to enrich therapy or educational programmes. This book features session plans divided into warm ups, introductions to themes, development of themes and warm downs and explores many areas including developmental movement processes, non-verbal communication and expression communication. In addition to thoroughly updating the content of the original edition, this timely sourcebook includes new material on creative dance and dance movement psychotherapy, added references throughout and updated resources to reflect the most current knowledge. Creative Dance and Movement in Groupwork will be an invaluable asset for group leaders wishing to enhance their practice as well as a starting point for those wishing to learn more about the field. It provides guidance and practical information that is suitable for working with clients of all ages and for those with a professional or practical interest in the educational, health, recreational or psychotherapeutic use of the arts. This book may act as one of many guiding lights on your journey.

Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Harpists Wenonah M. Govea, 1995-06-30 The harp is both the oldest and the newest of instruments. It has existed in some form in nearly all cultures since man has made music. The contemporary concert instrument has been known since the mid 19th century. This work is a compendium of the biographies of many notable harpists of the modern era. The biographies make clear how these performers shaped the contrasts in style and technique of harp playing that have developed over the past 150 years as cultural, social and psychological forces influenced individual performance. In addition to the biographical information, the A-Z entries include critical reviews, discographies and selected bibliographies where possible. New material from the former Soviet states is included.

THE INDIAN LISTENER
All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi, 1940-11-07 The Indian Listener fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service Bombay started on 22 December 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in English which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927. From 22 August 1937 onwards it was published by All India Radio New Delhi. In 1950 it was turned into a weekly journal. Later The Indian Listener became Akashvani in January 5 1958. It was made a fortnightly again on July 1 1983. It used to serve the listener as a Bradshaw of broadcasting and give listener the useful information in an interesting manner about programmes, who writes them, take part in them and produce them along with photographs of performing artists. It also contains the information of major changes in the policy and service of the organisation.
