Butler, 2008 You would not know where to begin to read the image It looks simple enough There are so many routes into the image so many points of recognition within the composition and yet you do not know where to begin and for that matter where to close off or frame your reading In Paul Winstanley's work the image is defined according to a frame of perception where the image exists both to represent a scene witnessed and to convey a position for the viewer within that This much is given Where the witness once was so now you stand in a reconstruction of the scene This much you think you know Andrew Renton Deferred landscapes A view from the threshold in the paintings of Paul Winstanley Threshold is the first extensive survey of British artist Paul Winstanley's career to date with over a 100 colour images and texts by Andrew Renton Director of Curating at Goldsmiths University of London and Christel Fricke Professor of Philosophy University of Oslo The substantial 144 page full colour catalogue was published by Artspace and Clouds on the occasion of the exhibition Paul Winstanley Paintings 1989 2007 currently showing at Artspace Auckland New Zealand 26 April 31 May 2008 Paul Winstanley Paul Winstanley, 2000 Paul Winstanley: Everybody Thinks This is Nowhere Paul Winstanley, 2010 Art School Paul Winstanley, Jon Thompson, Maria Fusco, 2013 Paul Winstanley who works from photographic material creates Architectures of Art and Design Education Neil Drabble, Rose Gridneff, 2025-06-20 The art school has had a fundamental effect on society internationally influencing how the creative arts are represented and perceived At a time that funding in the UK is placing arts education in crisis this is the first book of its kind to investigate the concept of the art school and its social
