Pauper Brawler And Slanderer:

Pauper, Brawler, and Slanderer Amos Tutuola, 1987

Pauper, Brawler and Slanderer Amos Tutuola, 2014-07-01

Drawing on the Yoruba folk tradition Amos Tutuola's tales combine the resonance of universal myth with reflections on a range of human vagaries. The leading characters of Pauper Brawler and Slanderer are all forced to embark on journeys of no return leading to incidents and adventures in classic Tutuola style. There is a ploughing competition for the hand of the beautiful Popondoro and the reign of Pauper and Slanderer in the town of women is inevitably brief. This is Tutuola at his most vivid and funny at his wisest and most imaginative.

Pauper, Brawler and Slanderer Amos Tutuola, 1990 New Fiction in English from Africa: West, East, and South André Viola, Jacqueline Bardolph, Denise Coussey, 2022-05-20

The term recent or new covers novels and some short fiction published between 1980 and 1995 a period characterized by growing pessimism about the state of affairs in both East and West Africa. The section on South Africa deals more narrowly with the 1985-95 watershed marking the end of official apartheid and the beginning of reconstruction. The three sections aim at giving a coherent picture of the main directions in production highlighting three main centres of interest: Nigeria, Kenya and the Republic of South Africa, although some novelists from neighbouring countries are also considered such as Kofi Awoonor from Ghana, Nuruddin Farah from Somalia and M. G. Vassanji and Abdulrazak Gurnah from Tanzania. The evaluations conducted in the three sections lead to the emergence of a number of common themes: in particular the writers' predilection for topicality, the role of the past and the controversy over the idea of the nation. Central themes also include the role of women in feeding for themselves both in rural and in urban environments. A further major theme is the role of the past: the Nigerian civil war, the Mau Mau period in Kenya, the revisiting of slavery, the refurbishing of myth, the questioning of historical reconstructions. The preoccupation of the West, East and South African novel with the idea and ideal of the nation is explored particularly in the context of migrancy, hybridity and transculturalism characterizing the anglophone diaspora. The volume is aimed at literary scholars and students and more generally readers of fiction seeking an introduction to contemporary literary developments in various parts of sub-Saharan anglophone Africa. No categorical distinction is drawn between popular and high literature. Though still selective and not intended as an exhaustive catalogue, the present survey covers a large number of titles. Rather than resorting to broad and ultimately somewhat abstract thematic categories, the contributors endeavour to keep control over this mass of material by applying a micro thematic taxonomy. This approach, well tested in the tradition of literary studies within France, groups works analytically and evaluatively in terms of such categories as actional motifs, plot frames and sociologically relevant locations or topics, thereby enabling a clearer focus on the dynamics of preoccupation and tendency that form networks of affinity across the fiction produced in the period surveyed.

Francis Nyamnjoh, 2023-12-05 Central to the Jensen Memorial Lectures 2023 is an invitation to take incompleteness seriously in how we imagine relate to and seek to understand a world in perpetual motion Despite our instinct for and obsession with completeness we are constantly reminded that the sooner one recognises and provides for incompleteness and the conviviality it inspires as the normal way of being the better we are for it Fluidity compositeness and the capacity to be present in multiple places and forms simultaneously in whole or in fragments are core characteristics of reality and ontology of incompleteness How would we frame our curiosities and conversations about processes relationships and phenomena with an understanding of the universality of incompleteness and mobility West and Central Africa for example are regions where it is commonplace to embrace and celebrate incompleteness in nature the suprasensory human beings human actions human inventions and human achievements The lectures indicate how we could draw inspiration in this regard to inform current
