Australasian Drama Studies ,2003      Catching Australian Theatre in the 2000s Richard Fotheringham,James Smith,2013-11-01 Whether catching Australian theatre during the 2000s or catching up now this volume provides the reader with an overview of the decade It reveals how Australian theatre continues to reflect the major political and social concerns of our time Each contribution explores an important area of Australian performance so that the volume provides crucial background and insightful analysis for current theatre practice The contributions cover political theatre Indigenous theatre playwrights concerned with cultural identity key Shakespearean productions the impact of funding and arts policy on theatre dramaturgy and innovative projects leading directors on rehearsal processes theatre for young people regional theatre including the Northern Territory and physical theatre and Circus Oz The book confirms the consolidation of previous artistic achievement over the decade and identifies the emergence of new trends and creative practices      Inter-cultural

Performance Graham Squires,Manami Simmons,2016 In the modern world we are accustomed to conceptualising international relations in terms of national identity We speak of English culture French culture and American culture as if these things were the basic building blocks of global civilisation While there is no doubt that national culture is important such a view fails to take account of the fact that there is great diversity within nations and powerful connections across national frontiers Just as individuals cannot be understood in isolation from the society of which they are a part so national cultures cannot be understood in isolation from the global community Since the beginning of human history cross cultural exchange has been important in bringing about social change This can be seen vividly in the way languages and their associated literary and dramatic traditions have interacted with one another This volume brings together a collection of essays that focus on the role cross cultural exchange has played in performance in the theatre and in film The aim is not to suggest any systematic theory of cross cultural exchange but rather to present a variety of examples that illustrate the subtle and complex way in which different cultures interact      Ency of Library and Inform Sci 2e V4 (Print) Miriam A.

Drake,2003 A revitalized version of the popular classic the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Second Edition targets new and dynamic movements in the distribution acquisition and development of print and online media compiling articles from more than 450 information specialists on topics including program planning in the digital era recruitment information management advances in digital technology and encoding intellectual property and hardware software database selection and design competitive intelligence electronic records preservation decision support systems ethical issues in information online library instruction telecommuting and digital library projects      A Performance Cosmology Judie Christie,Richard Gough,Daniel Peter Watt,2013-03-07 Exploring thirty years of work by The Centre for Performance Research CPR A Performance Cosmology explores the future challenges of performance and theatre through a diverse and fascinating series of interviews testimonies and perspectives from leading international theatre practitioners and academics

Contributors include Philip Auslander Rustom Bharucha Tim Etchells Jane Goodall Guillermo Gomez Pena Jon Mckenzie Claire MacDonald Susan Melrose Alphonso Lingis Richard Schechner Rebecca Schneider Edward Scheer and Freddie Rokem A Performance Cosmology is structured as a travelogue through a matrix of strategic imaginary interdisciplinary field stations This innovative framework enables readings which disrupt linearity and afford different forms of thematic engagement The resulting volume opens entirely new vistas on the old new and as yet unimagined worlds of performance

No End of a Lesson Stuart Macintyre, André Brett, Gwilym Croucher, 2017-10-02 A revolution swept through universities three decades ago transforming them from elite institutions into a mass system of higher education Teaching was aligned with occupational outcomes research was directed to practical results Campuses grew and universities became more entrepreneurial Students had to juggle their study requirements with paid work and were required to pay back part of the cost of their degrees The federal government directed this transformation through the creation of a Unified National System How did this happen What were the gains and the losses No End of a Lesson explores this radical reconstruction and assesses its consequences
