Working Knowledge Joel Isaac,2012-06-11 The human sciences in the English speaking world have been in a state of crisis since the Second World War The battle between champions of hard core scientific standards and supporters of a more humanistic interpretive approach has been fought to a stalemate Joel Isaac seeks to throw these contemporary disputes into much needed historical relief In Working Knowledge he explores how influential thinkers in the twentieth century's middle decades understood the relations among science knowledge and the empirical study of human affairs For a number of these thinkers questions about what kinds of knowledge the human sciences could produce did not rest on grand ideological gestures toward science and objectivity but were linked to the ways in which knowledge was created and taught in laboratories and seminar rooms Isaac places special emphasis on the practical local manifestations of their complex theoretical ideas In the case of Percy Williams Bridgman Talcott Parsons B F Skinner W V O Quine and Thomas Kuhn the institutional milieu in which they constructed their models of scientific practice was Harvard University Isaac delineates the role the Harvard complex played in fostering connections between epistemological discourse and the practice of science Operating alongside but apart from traditional departments were special seminars interfaculty discussion groups and non professionalized societies and teaching programs that shaped thinking in sociology psychology anthropology philosophy science studies and management science In tracing this culture of inquiry in the human sciences Isaac offers intellectual history at its most expansive

Solidarity and Reciprocity with Migrants in Asia Mary Mee-Yin Yuen, 2019-11-21 Based on Catholic and Confucian social ethics this book develops an ethic of solidarity and reciprocity with the migrants in Asia who are marginalized Mary Mee Yin Yuen draws off her own pastoral experiences in the Church the situation of the wider Christian community and the personal experiences of migrant women from various Asian countries in Hong Kong to describe the features and practices of an ethical approach that emphasizes solidarity and reciprocity Interdisciplinary in nature this book integrates Catholic social ethics moral philosophy Chinese Confucian ethics social sciences and cultural studies to investigate the phenomenon of international and intra national migration in Asia particularly with regard to women migrants moving from South Asia Southeast Asia and Mainland China to Hong Kong

In Harm's Way Joel Feinberg, Jules L. Coleman, Allen Buchanan, 1994-06-24 This 1994 volume contains fifteen essays by leading philosophers exploring themes developed in the work of Joel Feinberg

An Aristotelian Feminism Sarah Borden Sharkey, 2016-08-01 This book articulates the theoretical outlines of a feminism developed from Aristotle's metaphysics making a new contribution to feminist theory Readers will discover why Aristotle was not a feminist and how he might have become one through an investigation of Aristotle and Aristotelian tradition The author shows how Aristotle's metaphysics can be used to articulate a particularly subtle and theoretically powerful understanding of gender that may offer a highly useful tool for distinctively feminist arguments This work builds on Martha Nussbaum's capabilities approach in a more explicitly and thoroughly hylomorphist way The author shows how Aristotle's hylomorphic model developed to run between the extremes of Platonic dualism and Democritean atomism can similarly be used today to articulate a view of gender that takes bodily differences seriously without reducing gender to biological determinations Although written for theorists this scholarly yet accessible book can be used to address more practical issues and the final chapter explores women in universities as one example This book will appeal to both feminists with limited familiarity with Aristotle s philosophy and scholars of Aristotle with limited familiarity with feminism Myth of National Defense: Essays on the Theory and History of Security Production, The ,

From Sacrament to Contract, Second Edition John Witte Jr.,2012-01-31 This newly revised and enlarged edition of John Witte s authoritative historical study explores the interplay of law theology and marriage in the Western tradition Witte uncovers the core beliefs that formed the theological genetic code of Western marriage and family law He explores the systematic models of marriage developed by Catholics Lutherans Calvinists Anglicans and Enlightenment thinkers and the transformative influence of each model on Western marriage law In addition he traces the millennium long reduction of marriage from a complex spiritual social contractual and natural institution into a simple private contract with freedom of entrance exercise and exit for husband and wife alike This second edition updates and expands each chapter and the bibliography It also includes three new chapters on classical biblical and patristic sources The Educational Significance of Human and Non-Human Animal Interactions Suzanne Rice,A. G. Rud,2016-04-29 The Educational Significance of Human and Non Human Animal Interactions explores human animal non human animal interactions from different disciplinary perspectives from education policy to philosophy of education and ecopedagogy The authors refute the idea of anthropocentrism the belief that human beings are the central or most significant species on the planet through an ethical investigation into animal and human interactions and real life examples of humans and animals living and learning together In doing so Rice and Rud outline the idea that interactions between animals and humans are educationally significant and vital in the classroom
