Matsiliza,2023-03-01

This book focuses on the knowledge area of higher education governance organisational dynamics leadership and decolonisation We have observed that governance discourse has been excluded in debates that concern the public good The construct of public good seeks to support higher education that does not support a capitalist view of profit making arguably to respond to societal demands and needs such as developmental efforts through academic functions Higher Education focuses on interconnected multi disciplinary constructs intending to provide services for the public good The issue of public good is an interesting construct that puts universities on the spot since they are expected to be responsive to environmental changes and stakeholder needs through the functioning of accountable governance structures These governance structures are compelled to comply with policy demands within external and internal environmental factors This experience has exposed universities to systematic challenges that are local regional and global and which forces them to adapt while serving stakeholders and society This book will also interrogate the governance of South African public universities in the post decolonisation era and new demands from stakeholders Doing the Public Good Kenneth P. Gonzalez, Raymond V. Padilla, 2023-07-03

How can scholars reconnect themselves and their students to higher education's historic but much diluted mission to work for the public good Through the lenses of personal reflection and auto ethnography and drawing on such rich philosophical foundations as the Spanish tradition of higher learning the holistic Aztec concept of education the Hispanic notion of bien educado and the activist principles of the Chicano movement these writers explore the intersections of private and public good and how the tension between them has played out in their own lives and the commitments they have made to their intellectual community and to their cultural and family communities Through often lyrical memoirs reflections and poetry these authors recount their personal journeys and struggles often informed by a spiritual connectedness and always driven by a concern for social justice and show how they have found individual paths to promoting the public good in their classrooms and in the world beyond Contributors include Jennifer Ayala Dolores Delgado Bernal Flora V Rodriguez Brown Kenneth P Gonzales Miguel Guajardo Francisco Guajardo Aida Hurtado Maria A Hurtado Arcelia L Hurtado Raymond V Padilla Caroline Sotello Viernes Turner and Luis Urrieta Jr The Future of the Public University in America James J.
