Public Television Americas First Station:

Public Television William Hawes, 1996 KUHT TV in Houston Texas was the first non commercial educational television station This is the story of its development and struggle for survival Public Broadcasting in America L. R. Ickes, 2006 The Corporation for Public Broadcasting CPB was created out of the Public Broadcasting Act of 1967 P L 90 129 The CPB was intended to provide a funding mechanism for individual public broadcasting stations but not subject these stations to political influence or favouritism Therefore the CPB receives an annual appropriation and then uses this money in addition to foundation corporate individual memberships and other funding sources to provide grants to individual public television and radio broadcast entities The Public Broadcasting System PBS National Public Radio NPR and Public Radio International PRI do not receive any direct appropriations from CPB all of the appropriated money goes directly to member stations of these organisations The number of radio and television public broadcasting stations supported by the CPB increased from 270 in 1969 to approximately 1 100 as of August 2003 of which 356 are television stations Public broadcasting stations are mostly run by universities non profit community associations and state government agencies Public broadcasting is regarded as a public service To serve most Americans public television reaches approximately 99% of the population and public radio 91% With regard to programming the public broadcasting system observes the principle of local autonomy That is public broadcasting stations make decisions independently of the CPB as to what programming will be available to their viewing or listening audience as well as on their programming schedule The CPB serves as an umbrella organisation for public television and radio Broadcasting The CPB s principal function is to receive and distribute government contributions or federal appropriations to fund national programs and to support qualified member radio and television stations based on legislatively mandated formulas The bulk of these funds are to provide Community Service Grants or CSGs to member stations that have matching funds By law the CPB is authorised to exercise minimum control of program content or other activities of local member stations The CPB is prohibited from owning or operating any of the primary facilities used in broadcasting In addition it may not produce disseminate or schedule programs This new book presents the issues dealing with this hot topic

Filmed Television Drama, 1952-1958 William Hawes, 2002-01-09 This work examines the change from live to filmed television dramas during the period 1952 1958 and the characteristics and programs that are most associated with filmed television drama Along with many technical changes that had to be made in the industry in order to convert live television to filmed television came an interesting social one The American society in general was developing a growing interest in the lives of ordinary people and television moved with them offering more programs that concentrated on the middle and lower classes Because of the inherent qualities of filming television began to feature more documentary like realism began to broaden its interpretation of traditional romantic escapism to include more outer space and supernatural science fiction began to better fulfill materialistic desires through well designed enjoyable commercials and began to offer the best dramas and most popular personalities often leading viewers to greater self appreciation and richer lives This work focuses on the important anthology programs and specials that were on the air from 1952 to 1958 such as Kraft Television Theatre Philco Television Playhouse and The Hallmark Hall of Fame filmed serials like Colgate Theatre Amos n Andy and I Love Lucy and the challenges of converting from live to filmed television drama

Public Radio and Television in America Ralph Engelman,1996-04-22 Ralph Engelman s history of the growth of public radio and television in America is timely compelling and instructive Very useful for citizens who take seriously the need for public use of the public airwaves which we need to remember the people own but do not control Ralph Nader Director The Center for the Study of Responsive Law There is no cynicism or stridency in Ralph Engelman s definitive history of public broadcasting s failure to fulfill its promise only documentation of the immense problems endemic to government and corporate sponsored mass media For models of hope this volume acknowledges the civic discourse that has thrived in the margins of public broadcasting in the independent community and in the homespun programming of the public access movement Dee Dee Halleck Cofounder Paper Tiger Television Deep Dish TV Public Radio and Television in America by Ralph Engelman effectively navigates the complex controversial and often maddening history of public broadcasting as a political and cultural force Always more important than its audience size in America public broadcasting s promise and problems as well as its heroes and villains are treated effectively and well in this solid and critical analysis The book is compact yet sufficiently substantive and blessedly well written and well documented Everette E Dennis Executive Director Freedom Forum Media Studies Center editor Media Studies Journal Ralph Engelman s Public Radio and Television in America is a chilling description of how noncommercial broadcasting is the tragic victim of conservative corporate politics that have spent most of this century trying to cripple and kill it Ben H Bagdikian former Dean Graduate School of Journalism at the University of California
