Lady with the Borzoi Laura Claridge, 2016-04-12 The untold story of Blanche Knopf, the singular woman who helped define American literature. Left off her company's fifth anniversary tribute but described by Thomas Mann as the soul of the firm, Blanche Knopf began her career when she founded Alfred A. Knopf with her husband in 1915. With her finger on the pulse of a rapidly changing culture, Blanche quickly became a driving force behind the firm, a conduit to the literature of Langston Hughes and the Harlem Renaissance. Blanche also legitimized the hard-boiled detective fiction of writers such as Dashiell Hammett. James M. Cain and Raymond Chandler signed and nurtured literary authors like Willa Cather, Elizabeth Bowen, and Muriel Spark. Acquired momentous works of journalism by John Hersey and William Shirer and introduced American readers to Albert Camus, André Gide, and Simone de Beauvoir, giving these French writers the benefit of her consummate editorial taste. As Knopf celebrates its centennial, Laura Claridge looks back at the firm's beginnings and the dynamic woman who helped to define American letters for the twentieth century Drawing on a vast cache of papers Claridge also captures Blanche's witty loyal and amusing personality and her charged yet oddly loving relationship with her husband An intimate and often surprising biography The Lady with the Borzoi is the story of an ambitious seductive and impossibly hardworking woman who was determined not to be overlooked or easily categorized Voice-Overs Daniel Balderston, Marcy E.

Schwartz, 2012-02-01 In Voice Overs an impressive collection of writers translators and critics of Latin American literature address the challenges and triumphs of translation in the publishing industry in teaching and in the writing culture of the Americas Through personal anecdotes as well as critical analyses they engage important ongoing debates over issues of language exile cultural identity and literary markets Institutions and personalities in Latin American literary translation are highlighted to examine the genre's cultural politics and transnational impact Novel Competition Evan Brier, 2024-04-16 Novel Competition describes the literary and institutional struggle to make American novels matter between 1965 and 1999 As corporations took over the book business Hollywood movies popular music and other forms of mass produced culture competed with novels as never before for a form of prestige that had mostly been attached to novels in previous decades In the context of this competition developments like the emergence of Rolling Stone magazine regional publishers Black studies programs and New Hollywood became key events in the life of the American novel Novels by Truman Capote Ann Beattie Toni Cade Bambara Cynthia Ozick and Larry McMurtry among many others are recast as prescient reports on and formal responses to a world suddenly less hospitable to old claims about the novel's value This book brings to light the story of the novel's perceived decline and the surprising ways American fiction transformed in its wake Supreme City Donald L. Miller, 2015-05-19 An award winning historian surveys the astonishing cast of characters who helped turn Manhattan into the world capital of commerce communication and entertainment The Worlds of Langston Hughes Vera M.

Kutzinski, 2012-10-15 The poet Langston Hughes was a tireless world traveler and a prolific translator editor and marketer Translations of his own writings traveled even more widely than he did earning him adulation throughout Europe Asia and especially the Americas In The Worlds of Langston Hughes Vera Kutzinski contends that for writers who are part of the African diaspora translation is more than just a literary practice it is a fact of life and a way of thinking Focusing on Hughes's autobiographies translations of his poetry his own translations and the political lyrics that brought him to the attention of the infamous McCarthy Committee she shows that translating and being translated and often mistranslated are as vital to Hughes's own poetics as they are to understanding the historical network of cultural relations known as literary modernism As Kutzinski maps the trajectory of Hughes's writings across Europe and the Americas we see the remarkable extent to which the translations of his poetry were in conversation with the work of other modernist writers Kutzinski spotlights cities whose role as meeting places for modernists from all over the world has yet to be fully explored Madrid Havana Buenos Aires Mexico City and of course Harlem The result is a fresh look at Hughes not as a solitary author who wrote in a single language
