Tenor Arias by Gaetano Donizetti, Giacomo Puccini and Giuseppe Verdi Stephanie A. Landry,2018 The goal of this project was to transcribe and edit three Italian arias for solo euphonium and piano The arias were chosen from three different periods during the nineteenth century to explore different solo uses in operatic settings The process of transcription how the works were chosen background information on each work and a short explanation of how each aria fit into its respective opera are all presented in the document While all three arias are for tenor voice and in Italian the contrasts of time period of composition length of aria and variety of pedagogical tools found in the arias allow for good contrast in preparation and performance Areas for further research primarily include the transcription of arias in other languages as well as differing time periods Abstract from author supplied metadata

Puccini's Turandot William Ashbrook, Harold Powers, 2014-12-25 Unfinished at Puccini's death in 1924 Turandot was not only his most ambitious work but it became the last Italian opera to enter the international repertory In this colorful study two renowned music scholars demonstrate that this work despite the modern climate in which it was written was a fitting finale for the centuries old Great Tradition of Italian opera Here they provide concrete instances of how a listener might encounter the dramatic and musical structures of Turandot in light of the Italian melodramma and firmly establish Puccini's last work within the tradition of Rossini Bellini Donizetti and Verdi In a summary of the sounds sights and symbolism of Turandot the authors touch on earlier treatments of the subject outline the conception birth and reception of the work and analyze its coordinated dramatic and musical design Showing how the evolution of the libretto documents Puccini's reversion to large musical forms typical of the Great Tradition in the late nineteenth century they give particular attention to his use of contrasting Romantic modernist and two kinds of orientalist coloration in the general musical structure They suggest that Puccini's inability to complete the opera resulted mainly from inadequate dramatic buildup for Turandot's last minute change of heart combined with an overly successful treatment of the secondary character
